A WAGE REDUCTION IS NOW THREATENED

Pere Marquette Railway Issue Will Be Investigated-Trouble Brewing.

St. Thomas, April 23.— Trouble over threatened wage reductions is again reported to be brewing on the Canadian division of the Pere Martelegraphers organization being the employees affected this time. conference is being arranged in Detroit between the officials of the union and the company and it is hoped that a settlement will be effected. In the event, however, that an amicable understanding is not reached, it is understood that the federal government will be asked to intervene and to appoint a board under the industrial disputes investigation act.

The company is said to have attempted to introduce a reduced scale of wages for the telegraphers without giving the notice required by the Canadian law. About fifty operators on the division are affected.
