"THE CHRISTIAN" AT ALLEN

Hall Caine's Famous Masterpiece Shown in Wonderful Motion Pictures.

It has been said that a really great novel, one that becomes famous in every corner of the earth, and that survives through the generations, is only written once in a decade. Such a novel, and one that has been tried and found true in the acid test, is Sir Hall Caine's famous masterpiece "The Christian."

This novel has been read and re-read until the very name has become a byword among book-lovers the world over. Such a work more than deserved pictorialization on the screen and that it has been accomplished is indeed a great tribute to the moving picture art, the plot and scenes having been portrayed in such a manner that even the most critical could not but approve and applaud.

Opening at the Allen theatre on Wednesday evening to an over-flowing house, this wonderful picture is due for a big run in Kingston during the remainder of the week. It is truly a picture that marks a milestone in the progress of the films toward dramatic and artistic supremacy in the field of entertainment. All the great gripping moments that have caused this story to be translated into every living tongue are presented vividly on the screen. The play grips the audience from the first scene and everyone feels a part and parcel of the stirring action that is portrayed on the screen. John Storm's fearless denunciation of the hypocrisy of wealth, the parting of the ways between John and Glory, the thrilling races where the lovers meet again, John's decision to kill the wayward Glory, the colossal mob scenes in Trafalgar Square, the downfall of John at the hands of London's poor—the whole surging panorama of human love, hate, lust and tenderness—well, the old Underwood just won't do justice to the play, so what's the use.

It is the age old story of a man, who, renouncing his wealth and social position, sets out to spread Christianity among the poor and ignorant people of a large city, and finds that the love of a woman is even greater than his love and faith in humanity.

Can a man live, here and today, the life that Christ lived two thousand years ago? Have selfishness, superstition and bigotry been even a little diminished, so that a man can love his fellowman better than himself, and not have to pay for his altruism with his life? These are the vital questions asked—and answered—in the production of "The Christian" now being shown at the Allen. If it is worth thinking about, it is surely worth going to see, and there will be no disappointments—unless you arrive late.

To miss this stupendous attraction is to miss the truly great screen offering of the year. It is suggested that you bring the family early, whether one, two, three or umpteenth, in order to avoid the rush of the unprecedented crowds that the Allen theatre staff are preparing to handle during the remainder of the week.

ECZEMA Hands Were Raw Would Crack and Bleed

Eczeema or Salt Rheum, as it is commonly called, is one of the most agonising of skin diseases. The intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when exposed to heat, are almost unbearable and relief is gladly welcomed.

Burdock Blood Bitters

has met with its permanent removing a disease of such severity is due to its wonderful blood cleansing and purifying properties.

Mrs. M. R. Willard, Dudwell Jct., Que., writes:—"For about three years I had eczeema, in a very bad form, on my hands. They were all raw and would crack and bleed so that I could not do my housework. I tried everything I could think of without any results. At last I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and when I had it about all taken I could see it was helping me; by the time I had taken five bottles my hands were all well again and I have not been bothered since. I cannot praise Burdock Blood Bitters enough."

Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT, IS FIERY, ITCHY OR ROUGH, USE SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczeema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczeema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

Taxes That Actually Reduce Revenues.

Those who figure out the taxes of a country or a province always have to reckon with that last forkful of straw that, if it does not break the camel's back, at least makes him an inefficient worker. There are taxes that are good taxes up to a certain point; that provide revenue and provide it with the minimum of effort and of unfairness. And beyond that point they defeat their own purposes. Witness the cigarette taxes. At $6 a thousand cigarettes were heavily taxed, but Canadians smoked nearly 2,500,000,000 a year. The tax was increased last year to $7.50 a thousand and smokers turned to pipes and to rolling their own. Cigarette consumption dropped by about half a billion a year and the government suffered a net loss in revenue of about $2,000,000. The higher tax actually provides a lower revenue.—Toronto Financial Post.

DISTRIBUTION OF SEEDS

To the School of Frontenac For School Fair Competition.

A. W. Sirett, the local representative of the Ontario department of agriculture, has been very busy during the week distributing seeds furnished by the department for school fair work. On Tuesday, Mr. Sirett visited all of the schools in the township of Kingston, and on Wednesday he went to the Pittsburg schools. It is his intention to pay a visit to all the schools in Frontenac. There are about one hundred and twenty-five schools in the county where the children secure seeds from the agriculture department. Last season about sixteen hundred children entered in the school fair competition and the results were very satisfactory.

This year the agriculture department has the following seeds from which the children may select any two kinds: Oats, barley, wheat, potatoes (early), potatoes (late), mangels, turnips, sweet corn, field corn, beets, carrots, onions, asters, ginnia and calendula. A setting of hatched rock eggs is furnished on the payment of sixty-five cents. The children are allowed more than one setting.

Some of the rules and regulations of the competition are as follows: Each pupil may choose any two of the above classes but no more. Ten pupils in each school (or room, in school of more than one room) may have flowers provided they also have a plot or setting of eggs.

room will be treated as separate units for distribution of material.

The work of planting seed, caring for plot and harvesting of crops must be done by the pupil. If knowledge to the contrary comes to hand such pupils will be barred from entering exhibits at fair. Work of setting eggs and caring for chickens must also be done by pupil.

Products of seeds and eggs must be exhibited at the school fair.

Only products from the seed supplied by the department may be exhibited at the school fair, unless otherwise specified.

Instructions as to size of plot and growing of wheat, oats, barley and potatoes will be enclosed with seeds. Each school is requested to select an even number of each kind of grain, field and vegetable crop as far as possible, so that a school will not have more of one crop than another.

"I Can Now Do My Work Without Feeling Tired"

Mrs. A. Moffatt, Roxton Falls, Que., writes:
"I suffered from a run-down system and nervous debility. I could not sleep or rest at night, and felt so weak I could not walk any distance. I took several tonics, but they only helped me while I was taking them. Mother advised me to take Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I felt great benefit from the first box, and continued taking several boxes. Today I feel like a new woman, and am able to do my work without that dreadful tired feeling."
