The Political Pot

Complex Situation in P. E. County.

Picton, April 25.—The unprecedented political situation is in a great measure reflected in political conditions in Prince Edward county. The local situation presents a many-sided and complex problem. The Conservative party is endeavoring to put forth a standard-bearer unsmirched from the fires of years of internal discord, with their chances of ultimate success diminishing. The U.F.O. have apparently discovered in C. W. Burr one whom they hope will redeem laurels lost in the last federal election. The Liberal executive has called a mass meeting for May 12th to decide the course to be pursued.

West Elgin.

St. Thomas, April 25.—Keen interest is centred in the United Farmers' convention at Dutton, Friday evening, when the U. F. O.-I.L. P. candidate for West Elgin will be selected. The United Farmers, by agreement with the Labor men in 1919, have the right to make the selections for the provincial house and there is little doubt but that Peter G. Cameron, the present incumbent, will be re-nominated. Both prominent United Farmers and Labor men have reported that Mr. Cameron will be the choice and they have discounted the talk that Dury-Morrison division was threatening the U. F. O. ranks in the riding and that there was a possibility of the Labor interests withdrawing and running one of their own. The Labor men appear to be safe with Mr. Cameron's stewartship, having endorsed it at a meeting several weeks ago.

On "grounds of compassion," Nellie Ryan, sister-in-law of General Richard Mulcahy, and Annie O'Neill, who have been on a hunger strike have been released from prison in Dublin.

The by-election in Nicolet, Que., necessitated by the elevation of Arthur Trahan to the bench will take place May 28th; nominations on May 14th.

The cargo steamer Brush is aground off Cape Arago, Oregon, and the crew of forty-two is being rescued in lifeboats, according to a wireless message picked up.
