UNDER TWO MOONS

Consider all the different things—differing peoples and different customs—on which the moon looks down. Changing as it does in its own luminous globe, the moon may seem to some to be not one but two, and the piquing thought is lent

NEIL-THOMPSON WEDDING.

At South Sherbrooke, Near Westport, on April 25th.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thompson, South Sherbrooke, was the scene of an interesting and pretty event, when at four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, April 25th their only daughter, Inez Marie, was united in marriage to Herbert W. Neil, South Sherbrooke. The service was conducted by Rev. L. G. Osborne Walker, rector of Westport, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and bridegroom.

The bride, who was handsomely crowned in white satin, trimmed with pearl beads and radium lace and wearing a veil with wreath of orange blossoms, entered the room on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, to the strains of Loebengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Walker. She was preceded by her little niece, Vera Thompson, dressed in pale blue silk, who acted as ring bearer, carrying the ring in a little white basket, and also by her bridesmaid, Miss Alberta Neil, only sister of the groom, dressed in pale pink crepe de chine over pink silk and wearing large white hat. As the party entered the room they were met by the bridegroom and best man, Joseph Thompson, only brother of the bride. All took their places under an arch of evergreens in front of the officiating minister. The groom's gifts were both useful and pretty; to the bride a handsome gold knot brooch set with pearls; to the bridesmaid, a gold brooch; to the best man gold cuff links, and to the ring bearer, pearl beads.

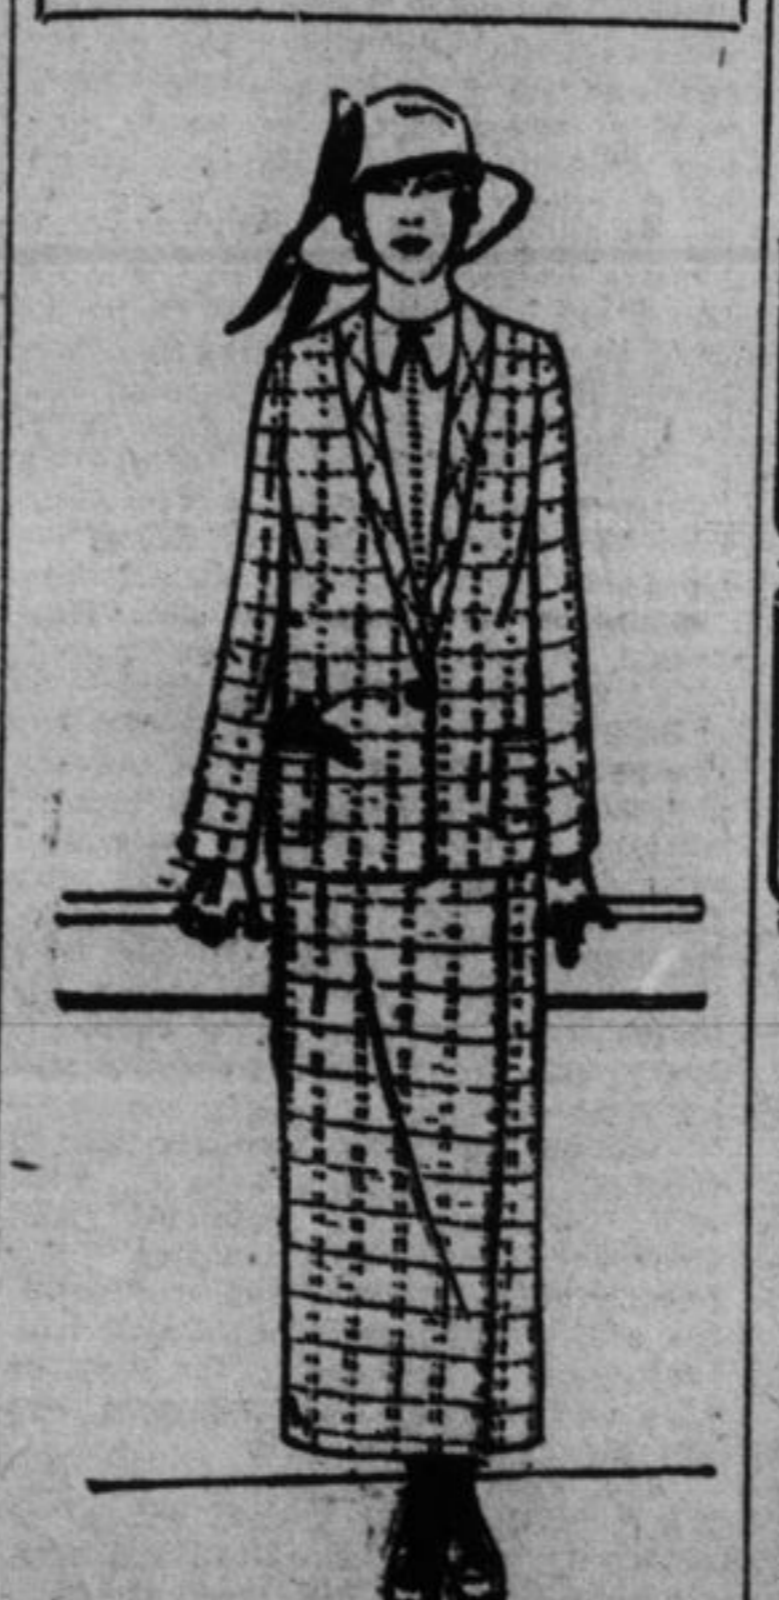

After the ceremony a sumptuous five course dinner was served to those present. The table was attended by cousins and girl friends of the bride. Another interesting event followed the marriage—the baptism of the little niece of the newly married pair, Inez Marie, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson. Later in the evening a reception was held, when about one hundred and fifty guests enjoyed a very pleasant evening, spent in games and dancing. Dainty refreshments were served about midnight. The bride wore a sand crepe de chine dress for the reception. Many useful and beautiful presents were received which showed the esteem in which both were held. The following day Mr. and Mrs. Neil motored to Perth where they took the train for Toronto, Niagara Falls and points west. The bride's travelling suit was of navy blue with hat to match. On their return they will reside in Sherbrooke.

some measure of proof by the varying ways it looks upon this side of the world and upon the other side. How different are the ways of one girl from those of another! Yet both, at heart at least, are the same in love!

TO-DAY'S FASHION

This Smart Box-Coated Sports Suit of Soft Gray-Green is Striped in Beige. The perfectly straight box-coated suit never fails to be youthful and smart. The one here is of a soft wool sports material in a lovely tone of greenish gray. The fine lines of brown which form a two-inch check are invisible at a distance, but when you come closer the suit takes on added smartness because of them. The sports hat is of green candy-straw with green feathers.

BUILT FOR SLEEP How much sleep is enough? Is quantity the only test? Edison says, "Four hours of sleep are enough for me." Napoleon was likewise satisfied with four. Yet most people need eight. Science now explains the difference by suggesting that quality of sleep is important. One person sleeps lightly, nerves tense and muscles taut. Another sleeps deeply and soundly, with the repose of complete relaxation that good sleeping equipment insures.
