HE CAME FROM LONDON TO KINGSTON BY STAGE

Dr. Samuel Lake, Johnson Street, Was Ninety Years Old on Friday.

Dr. Samuel Knapp Lake, 357 Johnson street, was ninety years of age on Friday. At the noon hour meal, fourteen sat down to the birthday luncheon. The table was decorated with pink and white, and the roses on the table came from his niece and nephew at Fulton, N. Y. A large birthday cake, laden with candles was in the centre of the table. Dr. Lake, although four-score years and ten, is a very active man. When speaking to the Whig, he stated that he still felt fit, and was able to work his garden as well as look after his hens. He attends his furnace in the winter time. Dr. Lake has yet to have to hire a man to shovel his snow.

Dr. Lake was born in the township of Storrington on May 4th, 1833, being a son of the late Christopher Lake, a farmer. He remained on the homestead until seven years of age, when he took the steamer "Magnet" to Hamilton, and upon arrival in Hamilton he walked from there to Tilsonburg, where he spent three years, attending the millwright business. At the end of that time, he came from London to Kingston by a four-horse stage. The owner of the stage was a colored man named George Mink. This stage-driver had charge of the route from London to Kingston. The stage travelled day and night, and the only stops that were made, was for the purpose of changing horses. The stage would drive in to an appointed place, the four horses would be unhitched, and the driver would go to the fire to warm his hands, and then in a few minutes he would be ready to proceed on his journey.

Upon arrival in Kingston, Dr. Lake secured work with Thomas Overland, a contractor, who was building an elevator which was later burned. He worked as a foreman for this contractor in preparing plans. He was in charge of the workmen who built six stations on the Grand Trunk Railroad, at Kingston Mills, Kingston, Collins Bay, Ernestown, Napanee and Deseronto. In those days the engines on the railroads were operated by wood. After finishing this work, Dr. Lake took up the ministry, and located at Burlington, Ont., where he preached for six years. He had to quit this work on account of throat trouble. He then took up the study of medicine at Philadelphia, and obtained a license to practice in this province, and then went to Cincinnati and graduated there. Later, Dr. Lake returned to Canada, and practised in Concession, Bloomfield and Picton, in the latter place he remained for twenty years. There, his first wife, the late Ann Miller, of Storrington, died. Leaving Picton, he went to Pittsburg, Penn., where he remained for ten years, and returned to Battersea to reside with his father and mother, and was there twelve years. His father died when he was in his ninety-eighth year, and his mother when she was eighty-one.

Dr. Lake has been a resident of Kingston for the past ten years. He is the oldest of twelve children, six boys and six girls. His oldest brother, the late Dr. D. E. Lake, who located in Fulton, N.Y., died ten years ago, and his two daughters were here for the celebration.

Dr. E. J. Lake, Kingston, is the only child, and there is one adopted daughter, Miss Irene Lake. His second wife, who was a sister of his first, is still living. Dr. Lake's church membership is in Marburg Messiah's Church, Port Dover, in the county of Durham, and he is the president of this church. The brothers and sisters are: Stephen Lake, of Prince Edward, who is in his eighty-second year, James Edgar, of Holyoke, Mass., J. S. Lake, Granite House, Battersea, Mrs. Campbell, of Sauk Rapids, Minn., who is in her eighty-third year, Mrs. McMillan, of Sydenham, who is in her seventy-second year, and Mrs. McMillan, of Wisconsin. Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. McMillan (Sydenham), S. J. Lake, were in the city for the occasion. During the day numerous letters and telegrams of congratulations were received by Dr. Lake.

Dr. Lake has been a reader of the Whig for at least forty years, and the Whig joins in extending its congratulations.

HELD CLOSING BANQUET

Prizes Awarded to Members of Y. M. C. A. Bible Class. The closing banquet of the Sunday morning Y. M. C. A. Bible class on Friday evening was a most enjoyable affair. A feature was the presentation of prizes to the best all around boys. These prizes were presented through the kindness of D. A. Shaw. The prizes were awarded as follows: 1, George Ashby; 2, Hugh Veale; 3, William Coffey; 4, Donald Bruce. Mr. Shaw was unable to be present and the presentations were made by S. T. Lilley. The president of the class, Donald Nixon, was in the chair and a splendid "sing-song" was held, led by Ernest Madrand. Hon. "Bob" Borjak, Brockville, a member of the dominion boys' parliament, was a guest and addressed the boys. The social committee of the Mothers' Council had charge of the supper, and an excellent spread was provided and much enjoyed.

Tweedell's suit sale $25.50. According to the United States treasury department, a dollar note lasts only two and three hundredths years.

ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATION FORMED

With Dr. J. C. Connell as President—Strong Local Executive Appointed.

At a gathering of representative citizens in the city council chamber on Friday evening a strong organization was formed for the purpose of taking up the question of free treatment for tubercular patients. The chief objective, as outlined by A. McDonough, bacteriologist, at the Mowat sanatorium, is to secure from the Ontario government legislation that will result in financial support for all afflicted with tuberculosis so that they may get sanatorium treatment.

A nominating committee composed of Mrs. John Carson, A. McDonough, H. E. Fennie, Lt.-Col. W. J. Morgan, Dr. Bruce Hopkins, Miss Ronan, Mrs. Pilley and Dr. Little brought forward a report containing the names of the officers and executive committee, and on a motion of F. J. Hoag, the report was unanimously adopted. The officers are: Hon. president, Dr. A. E. Ross, M. P.; hon. vice-president, W. F. Nickle, K.C., M.P.P.; president, Dr. J. C. Connell; vice-presidents, J. M. Campbell, Miss M. Redden; secretary, Mr. McDonough; corresponding secretary, W. G. Bailie; treasurer, P. DuMoulin. Executive committee in addition to the officers: Dr. Bruce Hopkins, Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Pilley, F. J. Hoag, A. E. Hunt; ways and means committee, Mayor Angrove, L. Abramson, H. T. Sargent, H. C. Nickle, A. E. Wellery; publicity committee, W. R. Given, L. A. Guild, Dr. D. A. Casey.

In addition to those named on the executive committee, representatives will be added as appointed by the various social, public and fraternal societies in Kingston, including the following: Independent Order of Oddfellows, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, Knights of Columbus, I.O.O.F., Red Cross Society, Hebrew Congregation, G.A.U.V., G.W.V.A., Children of Mary, Catholic Women's League, Victorian Order of Nurses, Frontenac Medical Society, Trades and Labor Council, National Council of Women, Kiwanis Club, Rotary Club, Canadian Club, Queen's Alumni Association, Nurses' Alumnae of the Kingston General Hospital, and the Hotel Dieu, Associated Charities, Board of Trade, Ancient Order of Forersters.

The secretary was instructed to write to all of these organizations requesting that a representative be appointed to the executive committee of the Anti-tuberculosis Association of Kingston.

Ald. T. H. Sargent presided and in calling the meeting to order outlined briefly the work of the provisional committee, and pointed out the desirability of forming a permanent association that would be a representative one. He introduced Mr. McDonough and Dr. Hopkins, both of whom told of the need for clinics to detect tuberculosis and of sanatorium treatment for its cure.

Presentation at Cooke's.

A pleasing event took place at Cooke's church on Friday evening when Mrs. Ernest Treneer, soprano, was presented with a purse of money, and Miss Bessie Rogers, organist, was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses, as a mark of appreciation of their splendid services. Addresses were given by T. Donnelly, Allan Lemmon and Rev. Mr. Ferguson, all of whom fittingly expressed the warm regard in which these talented artists are held by the congregation. Miss Goldie Haslett made the presentation.

Sunday Evening Service.

Allen Theatre, 8.30 p.m. Address by Rev. C. Adams, Toronto, and Rev. Principal Taylor, of Queen's, in memory of the soldiers and seamen lost in the great war, under auspices of Navy League.

The Political Pot

Not Likely to Run. Smith's Falls, May 5.—Rev. A. E. Sanderson, pastor of the Methodist church, Merrickville, says it is unlikely he will be a candidate in Grenville county for election to the legislature. He says he would be glad to run, and would be confident of success, if his only opponent were the Hon. Howard Ferguson, but that he does not only see the Conservatives to bring out Mr. Ferguson, but that the Liberals and U.F.O. each want a candidate of their own, and are likely to have one. Under the circumstances he feels that his chances of election would be small.

Grenville Liberals. Prescott, May 5.—Indications of political activities are apparent among the Liberals of Grenville county. A mass meeting of Liberals of the county of Grenville will be held in the town hall, Prescott, Thursday, May 10th, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to contest the riding of Grenville in the coming provincial election.

Glenarry Liberals. Alexandra, Ont., May 5.—The convention to select a Liberal candidate to contest Glenarry county at the forthcoming provincial elections will be held here on May 12th. Prospective candidates include Messrs. E. J. McDonald, James McCune, Allan D. MacDonald and Dr. Georges Montette.
