DIED AT WAGARVILLE.

The Late Enoch Simpkins Aged Eighty-One Years.

Wagarville, May 22.—On Wednesday evening a highly respected resident passed away in the person of Enoch Simpkins, aged eighty-one years. A few weeks ago, deceased suffered a stroke and recovered, and was able to be out. On the Saturday before his death he took pneumonia and another stroke and passed away. He was a good neighbor and always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. He leaves to mourn his loss his third wife and one son, Fred, and one sister and brother at Odessa. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon at the church, Rev. Mr. Duncan, officiating, after which the remains were laid to rest at Parham cemetery beside his first and second wives.

A number from here attended the convention at Tamworth last week. Miss Gladys Cronk is under the doctor's care at Enterprise. She is suffering from rheumatism. Frank Snider arrived home from Kingston General Hospital and is gaining nicely. W. A. Wagar has purchased a Chevrolet car. Owing to the recent rain, the farmers are delayed with their seeding. Loading pulp is the order of the day.

William J. McDowan passed away at his home in Picton on May 17th. He was stricken on May 12th, pneumonia following. The deceased was seventy-two years of age and had lived in Picton practically all his life. The lives of most men are mispent for want of a certain end of their actions.
