TO TAKE DEFINITE STEPS TO AVERT COAL STRIKE

John Lewis Asked to Place the Miners' Cards on the Table.

Washington, May 26.—A definite step to avert another anthracite coal strike is to be taken to-day or tomorrow by the United States coal commission in summoning John L.
 Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, to appear before the commission to lay the miners' cards on the table.

Lewis was in Washington to-day but without any appointment with the commission. At the office of that body, however, it was said that a meeting with him would be arranged.

With the anthracite field wage agreement expiring September 1st coal commission officials are preparing to draft recommendations for submission to President Harding on July 1st, concerning the policy it believes the federal government should adopt toward the anthracite industry.

The commission has held lengthy meetings with anthracite operators and has at the same time pushed its own private investigation into conditions of the industry. Lewis' testimony will complete the data on which the commission will have its recommendations.

On May 19th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hodgson, near Plainfield, Roscoe Robson, North Thurlow, was united in marriage to Miss Eva, the eldest of the family.

Gas will be off Sunday. See large ad.

THE BRITISH FLAG IS NOT TO BE CARRIED

The Anti-British Agitators of New York Threatened a Riot.

New York, May 26.—Anti-British agitators, who intimated that they participated in the demonstration some months ago that broke the windows in the Union League Club have notified the British World War Veterans' societies that they will riot if the Union Jack is carried into St. Patrick's Cathedral on Sunday afternoon, to the memorial service for the war dead.

However, an old ruling, which prohibits the carrying any but the United States flag into a cathedral, has been uncovered and no attempt will be made by the Britishers to carry their national emblem.

SATURDAY'S MARKET
 Of Fair Size With Little Price Variation

Saturday morning's market was not so large as last week's turnout but there was a sufficient gathering to supply the needs of the buyers, and trading was good. Pork was going at 17c and 19c per pound, veal at 17c and 14c, mutton at 14c and 17c, and spring lamb at $1.50 for fronts and $2.25 for hind.

Eggs, of course, were thirty cents a dozen, a seemingly permanent price, and butter went at forty cents were offered at $1.25 a bag and some a little dearer. Chickens were $1.50 to $2.00 per pair and fowls could be bought for $1.10 each in some places. Lettuce, green onions, radishes, beets, new carrots, celery and all varieties of greens were offered at prices ranging from 5c to 15c and 25c per bunch.

TO USE FAIR GROUNDS

It was announced this morning that the Kingston C.O.B.L. team will in future use the fair grounds for its games and work has been starting on the diamond and the grounds about it. It is hoped to have it ready in time for Monday's game with Belleville.

It was learned on later advice that this action has been necessary on account of a special ruling just introduced by the O.B.A.A. ordering Kingston to play on enclosed grounds. A gang of fifty men has been at the work all day and they will keep going until Monday. Two steam rollers are on the job. Season ticket holders will have their tickets honored at the new grounds and the admission prices have been set at 50c general, and 25c for

DEATH AT PERTH ROAD
 Mrs. Edward Dunford Passes After A Brief Illness

Perth Road, May 26. — The Angel of Death visited the home of Edward Dunford on Sunday morning and called away his beloved wife, after a three days' illness. Her passing is greatly regretted as she was a fond wife, kind friend and neighbor.
 Mrs. Dunford was a devout Anglican in religion. The funeral service was conducted at 9 a.m.
 Tuesday at the Perth Road Union Church by Rev. Mr. Leach, of Syden-ham English Church, after which the remains were taken by Mr. Knight to Perth for interment. The pallbearers were William Broadhurst, George Green, H. McCadden, William Raymond, Wilmar Campbell and William Amey. Mr. Dunford has no other relatives in Canada and the community extend their deepest sympathy in his great loss.

The Helping Hand will meet in two weeks time at Mrs. H. Amey's.
 Miss Blanche Raymond spent the 24th at home. Charles Ennis, of Lake Opinicon, also James Teeples, made a trip to Perth Road on Wednesday. Rev. R. R. McMath has purchased a new auto which will aid

MUCH MAIL FOR IRELAND SANK WITH THE MARVALE

But It Will Be Salvaged at Once and Sent Across the Ocean.

Montreal, May 26.—More than 3-000 letters for Ireland, mailed in Montreal around May 17th and May 18th, and twelve bags of newspapers lie at the bottom of the sea on the sunken Canadian Pacific liner Mar-vale. Anxious inquiries have reached the head office concerning the lost mail, including some from the Montreal banks. To these, the postal authorities have sent the reasuring reply that the work of salvaging the mail will be commenced in a few days and as the position of the ship is fairly easy for salvaging, it is confidently anticipated that the mail will be raised and be once more on its way to its destination within a reasonable space of time. The Mar-vale carried mail for Ireland only.

Why Attend Church?

Why go to church today? will be the question asked in ten thousand households this morning. Won't we get more good by resting, by going to the country, by doing lots of things we rather do? That is a natural feeling. But is it a wise feeling? We are busy through the week with our own affairs. Most of us keep our nose pretty close to the grindstone.
 Our horizon is limited. At church on Sunday we have the chance to get away from ourselves, to consider our broader relations with our fellows and with God.

We are social animals. We need association with others. Meeting with them for worship, we help create the religious mood which we need and which society needs as a solvent for the perplexing problems that beset us. The minister may have a message for us. But he cannot always strike 12. Even if the sermon is disappointing, the rest of the service remains to bring us into that frame of mind in which we recognize our obligations and see the far horizon.

Work, play, love and worship, Dr.
 Richard Cabot, of Boston, has set down from his medical experience as the factors entering into a normal life. We cannot afford to ignore the importance of the last.—Kansas City Star.

Ended His Career.
 Winnipeg, May 26.—Max Hoffman, president of the defunct firm of Max Hoffman & Co., which failed about two months ago with liabilities of about $50,000, committed suicide here, yesterday, by shooting himself through the head, while in a cemetery.

It is fit for a man to know his own abilities and weaknesses, and not think himself obliged to imitate all that he thinks fit to praise.

Some people are always grumbling because roses have thorns. Others are thankful that thorns have roses.

The fellow with one leg generally grows rich while he who calls him a fool dies poor.

Ignorance is anything but bliss to those who are compelled to be its associates.

Be content with your lot while you look for a better.
