AT THE GRAND
Action Pictures and Musical Comedy All This Week
"The Power of a Lie," a strong photo drama, was shown at the Grand Opera House on Tuesday evening and proved an awakening to those who little dream of the accumulated force of falsehood and the tremendous shock that must eventually take place to overpower the mischief that is bound to ensue. In this picture, the great moral problem involved is admirably worked out, while the thrilling episodes and the elaborate setting make the picture one of the most entertaining. It is a gripping story from beginning to end. The cast includes Mabel Julienne Scott, June Elvidge, Maude George, David Torrance, Earle Metcalfe and Phillips Smalley.
"The Passing Revue" by the Joe Mall Musical Comedy kept the audience in a continuous state of meriment. The splendid programme opened with a screaming hit by Harry Cook the Irish comedian, Frank Davis, Baby Dorothy and the beauty chorus, and Joe Mall appeared as a humorist and entertainer.
"The Power of a Lie" will be shown this evening for the last time, but the comedy company will remain all the week giving a new programme on Thursday.
On Thursday evening, "Rudolph Valentino" will appear in a big feature comedy "All Night," and Joe Mall and his talented company will present "The Telephone Girl," a rollicking comedy.
THRILLING SEA DRAMA AT ALLEN'S THURSDAY
"Masters of Men," by Morgan

When Laddie Cliff was in America, prior to the war, he scored a tremendous hit with American audiences owing to his likable personality and keen sense of humor. His appearance at the Strand in his first picture, "The Card," will bring forth a host of his former admirers and they will see on the screen the same likable personality that they admired on the speaking stage. "The Card" is a story of a young man who, through sheer pluck and nerve, overcame all kinds of obstacles, won the girl he loved and finally became the Lord Mayor of the town.
Manager Abbey has arranged to present Laddie Cliff in "The Card," on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This is the first appearance on the screen of Laddie Cliff who, although still young, has been before the public for over twenty years, and when but sixteen years of age, made a complete tour of the world. There is hardly a branch of entertainment in which he has not shown, from minstrel troupes to revues, and from "fit-ups" to the latest brilliant musical show, "The Co-optimists," which has been running in London for nearly three years. Laddie Cliff, prior to the great war, was a great favorite in America as he was in England, but up until a few months ago had never appeared on the screen. Laddie was very particular about the story for his screen debut, and after several months of search, decided to produce "The Card," which was written by Arnold Bennett, the author of several celebrated plays, including "The Great Adventure," and "Mistones." "The Card" is one of the most popular of Mr. Bennett's stories, and has been published in twenty-three editions. "The Card" is a diverting tale of a pishful young man, who manages by a sheer cheek of a humorous kind to become one of the celebrities of his home town. He is resourceful and he makes the most of the ideas that suddenly flash into his mind, and with his easy assurance, he carries everything before him in a humorous manner. The types, characters and locations all have the Old Country atmosphere, and the story breathes the spirit of London and the British Isles.

VISIT OF KIWANIAN TO THE MOWAT HOSPITAL

An Enjoyable Time Was Spent With the Patients on Tuesday Evening.
On Tuesday evening about eighty Kiwanians left the market square for the Mowat Hospital. Following a zig-zag route, with much blowing of horns, the Kiwanians reached the hospital about 6:30. Dinner was served and places set for about three hundred were filled with Kiwanian members and patients alternately.
Hugh Nickle acted as chairman. During the repeat several songs were sung, while every Kiwanian tried to keep in touch with his patient guest. The two pieces of cloth given by Collier's were raffled off, the lucky winners being Tommy Shields and Nurse McKane. Souvenirs to nursing sisters and patients revealed much fun in the selection and the generosity of the donors.
In his address to the members of the club, Dr. Edward Ryan paid great tribute to the Victorian Order of Nurses, and said he felt assured that the Kiwanian Club which stood behind everything for the good of the country, would make the coming tag day a success.
W. R. Givens moved a vote of thanks to Dr. Bruce Hopkins for the very pleasant evening he gave the Kiwanian Club. This motion was seconded by H. W. Newman and conveyed to Dr. Hopkins by W. T. Nickle. In reply, Dr. Hopkins assured the Kiwanians that he was very grateful to them for their kindness, that their visits could only be a source of cheer and happiness for everyone.
A lawn social, arranged by the men of the Mowat is to be held on June 4th.
In closing, President Nickle told the men of the Mowat that it was the third enjoyable visit the Kiwanian Club had with the patients and he expressed the hope that in a short time they would all be returned to health.
Those who contributed to the musical programme of the evening were Clarence Skinner and Prof. Thomas, Gananogue; T. O. W. Fowler, Captain Lee, and Dr. Broom, Kingston. The orchestra under the leadership of Dr. Broom rendered excellent music.

Robertson, the world's most noted writer of sea stories, is to be shown at the Allen Theatre starting Thursday. Critics have unanimously acclaimed this picture as the greatest sea story ever screened. The picture is a story of a boy who accepted the shame of another's crime that he might protect the girl he loved from humiliation. Branded in his home town as a thief he ran away and joins the Navy. While on leave he is shanghaied and suffers the brutality accorded to men before the mast on board a four master sailing the Spanish Main. How he effects his escape and aids in the destruction of the Spanish fleet at Santiago provides a thrilling drama which holds interest throughout every foot of the screening.
There are four principal parts, as the story involves the love affairs of four young people. Earle Williams, one of the most popular stars of the screen, plays Lieutenant Breen, the officer who assists Dick Halpin (played by Cullen Landis) to win back honor and manhood. Pretty Alice Calhoun who has been starred in many Vitagraph productions and Wanda Hawley, long a popular star, play the chief women's roles.
It is a picture of types and of vivid realism. The selection of types is said to have been perfect, particularly of those actors who play the brutal, hard-fighting men who comprise the crew of the "Mary Earle." Dick Sutherland and Jack Curtis, who play the mate and captain of the four master, are known to fans as the most brutal looking actors in motion pictures. They give realism to Morgan Robertson's description of the brutes who made life a hell for men before the mast.
"Meatlers of Men" will provide excellent entertainment at the Popular Theatre.

LADDIE CLIFF IS ONE OF THE GREATEST COMEDIANS
England has three comedians who are loved and esteemed throughout the British Isles, Wilkie Bard, George Robey and Laddie Cliff. Actors in England occupy a different position than they do on this side of the water, and many have been knighted. In America the public demands something new all the time. In England, if any actor creates a role that strikes popular favor, they want to see him in it over and over again. George Robey has been doing the same act for years, Wilkie Bard has a number of character sketches that he has done for a long time, Laddie Cliff is the only one that keeps changing his material, probably due to the fact that he introduces new songs, dances and comedy ideas.

MEETING AT PITTSFERRY

Senator Turritt Again Speaks For U.F.O. Candidate
Senator Turritt and G. A. B. Clarke, U.F.O. candidate in Frontenac, addressed a meeting of farmers at Pittserry on Tuesday evening.
James Bell presided and introduced the speakers. Senator Turritt dealt mostly with dominion politics and showed the position of the Progressive party and the need for strong support by the farmers of Ontario. "This election will have a very great influence in the west," said he, "and it is time for you to support your U.F.O. candidates." He devoted much time to discussing the grain question and other agricultural matters.
Mr. Clarke distributed copies of the Big's Highway bill introduced into the legislature on April 12th to relieve the counties of the cost of construction repairs and maintenance of the provincial highway, but which had to be dropped on account of the obstruction of the Conservatives. "Although the passage of this bill meant a saving of $45,000 to the people of Frontenac, our member sat silent and never tried to help have it passed," said Mr. Clarke.
Envy is a kind of praise.

TENDERS FOR DREDGING

The Late Mrs. James MacDonald.
The death of Mrs. Mary Pauline MacDonald, aged twenty-five years, wife of James MacDonald, Watertown, N.Y., occurred at the Jefferson Sanatorium on Thursday, May 31st. She was the second daughter of Mrs. and the late Edward McConnell, Nanpanee, and moved to Watertown three years ago. During the past year and a half she had been in failing health and had been confined to bed since January. She was a trained nurse, graduating from Rockwood Hospital, Kingston, and nursed at the Jefferson Sanatorium a year previous to her marriage, on Nov. 22nd, 1920. The funeral was held from S. J. Payne's undertaking parlor, on Saturday, at 9 a.m., and at St. Patrick's church at 9.30 a.m. Rev. Father Cole celebrating a requiem high mass. The bearers were members of Camp Vimy, Great War Veterans No. 21, of which Mr. MacDonald was a member, and delegates from Ladies' Auxiliary No. 21 attended in a body. There were many mass cards and beautiful floral tributes, including set pieces from nurses of the sanatorium, Camp Vimy No. 21, and Ladies' Auxiliary, Surviving, besides her husband, are her mother, Mrs. Margaret McConnell, Watertown, N.Y., and two sisters, Miss Anna, Watertown, and Mrs. Clifford Horne, Rome, N.Y. Interment was made in Glenwood cemetery, Watertown, N.Y.
