Transferred to Midland.
Jackson Kilborn, of the Athens branch of the Standard Bank for the last two years or so, has been transferred to the branch at Midland.

Floated at Half-mast.
The flags on the city hall floated at half-mast on Tuesday and Wednesday out of respect for the late Dr. D. E. Mundell, who was a city alderman thirty years ago.

Entered Partnership.
Dr. J. E. Minns, son of Inspector Minns, North Hastings, has entered in partnership with Dr. Kindred Tweed. Dr. Minns is well and favorably known in Tweed and surrounding country.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. John McArthur, Carleton Place, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Hope, to John J. Dunlop, B.A., Williamstown, the marriage to take place this month.

Were Paid Rain Insurance.
The G. W. V. A., Belleville, received $1,000 a rain insurance for their King's birthday celebration. It rained one-tenth of an inch, between the hours of 3 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. on Monday, June 4th.

Expressed Great Interest.
The delegates to the Ontario and Quebec geographical conference were shown through Memorial Hall on Tuesday morning, and expressed great interest in this striking monument to the valor of our Canadian dead.

Died Quite Suddenly.
At London, Ont., while preparing to leave his office on Monday afternoon to visit a patient, Dr. Charles E. Jarvis was stricken with an attack of heart disease, and died instantly. He was aged sixty-five years and at one time practised in Kingston.

R. A. Reid Won.
The Danforth Racing Pigeon Association held a club race on Saturday from Kingston to Toronto, a distance of 155 miles. Owing to the late arrival of the birds at Kingston they were not liberated until 3:40 p.m., daylight time, the winner being in at 8:15:32 p.m., daylight time.

A Sale of Property.
According to a real estate transfer recorded in the county clerk's office, at Watertown, N.Y., J. A. Hunt has sold the Union House property, Cape Vincent, N.Y., to John W. Reed, Jerome E. Lewis and William G. Motherwell, Watertown, N.Y., for a consideration of $2,500.

Burial of an Infant.
The funeral of Donald Harold Parker, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Parker, George street, was held on Tuesday morning under the direction of the James Reid firm. The service was held in St. James' chapel by Rev. T. W. Savary, interment taking place at Cataract cemetery.

Able to be About.
The many friends of James Swift are much pleased to see him about again. On Tuesday he was driving, this being the third time he has been out in the past ten months. Suffering from a broken limb he was improving when pneumonia threatened. Then the long cold winter kept him indoors. With bright sunshine and plenty of fresh air, Mr. Swift's friends hope for his permanent recovery.

Died in Ireland.
David Boyd, Syracuse, N.Y., died in Ireland on Sunday night, and his remains are en route to the United States, accompanied by his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd had been touring in Europe and were about to sail for home when Mr. Boyd was attacked with pneumonia. He lived only ten days after. He was an insurance man and a brother-in-law of Mrs. George Mills, University avenue.

Will of Joseph Horner.
According to the will of the late Joseph Horner, Hope township, who died in February, 1923, his wife is bequeathed a farm of 150 acres, also furniture and residue of the estate after bequests are paid, so long as she remains a widow. A son, James Wilbur, received $1,000 and a daughter, Martha Rhoda Horner, also received $100. His daughter Mabel Gordon and sons, William Henry and Walter Joseph receive $50 each it is stated.

by M. W. Bro. W. B. Simpson, acting grand master.

Changed to Carleton Place.
Harry Shannon, Barrie, has received notice of transfer to the Carleton Place branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia. He will be greatly missed, particularly in musical circles, he being a popular soloist and one of the most valued members of St. Andrew's choir.

Graduating Exercises.
The graduating exercises of the Cape Vincent, N.Y., high school will be held on June 25th and 26th, the class day exercises on the former and the commencement exercises on the latter. The class is composed of the Misses Elsie Pratt, Mildred Wiltoughby, Winifred Wiley and Agatha Ryan, and Wellington Bardick, Paul Grandjean and Sidney Gordon.

Another View of It.
"I was very much interested in the remark of an Anglo-Ian regarding parliamentary candidates being alone developed in St. Andrew's and Chalmers churches, said a Salvationist, "but I was unaware that churches were created for that purpose; in my innocence I thought churches were to develop Christians, not politicians?"

Death of R. W. Bell.
Dr. R. W. Bell, chief provincial medical inspector of health, died on Saturday of heart trouble, at his residence in Toronto. He was born at Carleton Place, in 1851, the son of Robert Bell, M.P. Dr. Bell was a Presbyterian, a militia man, an Oddfellow and an honored member of other societies. Dr. Bell's wife predeceased him by about two years. He is survived by two sons.

Married in the Church.
At Smith's Falls, on June 7th the marriage took place in St. John's Church of Miss Elsie Shane, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shane, Smith's Falls, and Frederick Langley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Langley, Hastings. Miss Rose Shane was bridesmaid and Harry Code conducted the ceremony. The bride wore a French blue canton crepe gown, with corsage bouquet of sweet peas, also a large black hat. The bridesmaid wore a rose crepe de chine dress, with hat to match. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the bride's parental home, about twenty friends being present. The young couple left upon a honeymoon tour, the bride travelling in a three-piece navy costume with hat to match. They will reside in Belleville.

To Give Music Lessons.
Harold T. Packer, A.T.C.M., Arch street, who has been attending the Toronto Conservatory of Music, is expected home at the beginning of July, and will give instruction to a limited number of pupils during the summer months. Mr. Packer is one of the city's brilliant young musicians, and has a great future ahead of him. His friends will be pleased to learn that he has been offered a position on the teaching staff of the Conservatory, which he will probably accept. His decision to give instruction to a few pupils in his home city this summer will afford an excellent opportunity to the lucky beginners who enroll with him.

To Join Mahood Drug Co.
G. W. Mahood, of the Mahood Drug Co., having found his duties too onerous, since the enforced absence of his former partner, J. B. Phillips, has now taken into association with him M. T. Saunders, Oshawa. Mr. Saunders is an honor graduate of the Ontario College of Pharmacy and gold medalist in dispensing. He has been for several years in charge of the Oshawa stores of Jury and Lovell, Ltd., and is fully qualified to assist in maintaining the confidence and trust reposed by the people of Kingston in this well known store.

Mr. Mahood will also have the able assistance of Mr. McGlynn, Mr. Cleland and others of his present staff who are already so well and favorably known.

After Every Meal

WRIGLEY'S

"A bite to eat—a bit of sweet"

After a substantial meal, the children naturally want to top off with a bit of sweet. Give them WRIGLEY'S, the great Canadian Sweetmeat.

It combines the enjoyment of sweet with many BENEFITS. It cleanses the teeth, removing food particles that lodge in the crevices. It neutralizes the acids of the mouth, soothes the throat, and lastly—

WRIGLEY'S helps the stomach by supplying saliva to aid in digestive work. Made clean, kept clean, sealed tight in a wax-wrapped package.
