LORD BYNG WILL LAY CORNER STONE OF ARCH

Which Will Commemorate Sacrifice of R. M. C. Cadets Who Fell in War.

Information has been received that their Excellencies the Governor-General and Lady Byng will attend the closing exercises at the Royal Military College next Monday, and that Lord Byng himself will lay the foundation stone of the memorial arch.

The diplomas and prizes will be presented by His Excellency in the Sir Arthur Currie Hall at noon on Monday, and after arrangements have been made for the seating of the relatives of the cadets, the doors will be thrown open to the public.

According to present arrangements, their Excellencies will leave their private car at 9.15 a.m. (daylight saving) on Monday and, escorted by a travelling escort of cadets, will cross the La Salle causeway en route to the college.

Drills and exercises by the cadets will occupy the morning and will conclude with presentation of prizes. At 2.30 p.m. the service in connection with the laying of the foundation stone of the memorial arch will commence.

To this function, the staff, ex-cadets and cadets are particularly anxious a cordial invitation should be extended to the citizens of Kingston. Commemorating as it does, the sacrifice of those ex-cadets who paid the supreme sacrifice, the memorial arch of the R.M.C. will have a special significance to those Kingstonians who remember the gallant lads who went smiling from Point Frederick to face the horrors of war on a dozen different fronts, many of whom eventually found a last resting place on foreign soil.

The ceremony will be quite short and on its conclusion their Excellencies will leave in their private car.

VANDALISM REPORTED AT MILITARY COLLEGE

Flower Beds Are Destroyed And Plants Stolen—Boys Are Suspected.

The authorities at the Royal Military College are very much distressed at several instances of vandalism which have occurred recently and feel that if the situation does not improve it may be necessary to revert to the old system and make the college grounds private thoroughfares.

It is stated that flower beds have been wilfully destroyed and trampled upon, and that plants have been mysteriously disappearing for several weeks. For instance, over a hundred beautiful tulip plants are missing from the flower beds scattered over the college grounds, whilst serious damage has been done to the lilac trees by youngsters eager to take the blossoms home. Even the cannon shot piled near the flagstaff at Fort Frederick has been removed.

For the past few years, Kingstonians have enjoyed, through the courtesy of the commandant, the privilege of going through the pretty college grounds and have been glad to avail themselves of the opportunity of idling a pleasant hour in the secluded precincts of Point Frederick. It would be a cause for great regret if, through the pilfering and graceless conduct of a number of small boys and young men, the college authorities found it necessary to forbid admission to the grounds except on business.

Interviewed in connection with the matter, General Macdonell stated that he would be extremely sorry to have to take so drastic a step, for he had liked the thought that citizens were able to enjoy the quiet and pretty grounds at the college. He disliked to have to take action because of the conduct of a few ungrateful youths and intended to wait for several weeks in the hope that these depredations would cease. In the meantime a guard is being placed on the college grounds whose duty it is to detain anyone noticed to be ruining trees or pillaging the flower beds.

PRAISE FOR PICTON AT POLITICAL MEETING

Hon. W. R. Motherwell Says It is Like a Metropolitan Centre.

Pictou, June 19.—An interesting incident occurred here at the big political meeting held on Saturday in the interests of Hon. Nelson Parliament when Hon. W. R. Motherwell, breaking off from his address asked the question, "Is this a town or a city?"

The speaker added that in stepping out from the lobby of the hotel where the guests were treated in a truly "royal" fashion manner, it was hard to realize that one is not in some metropolitan centre. Reference was made to the many fine automobiles, the streets, the shops, the many very pleasant beauty spots in the town, and also the churches and the fine theatre.

The speaker also remarked that the happy looking youngsters and the young looking "oldsters" testified to the healthy condition of the town. A group of Toronto capitalists must be impressed with that fact. Taken all in all, the people of the town could well term it "Proud Pictou."

Precaution. "What are you cutting out of the paper?"

"An item about a California man securing a divorce because his wife went through his pockets."

"What are you going to do with it?"

"Put it in my pocket."
