

KINGSTON AND VICINITY

Don't Miss This.
Oddfellows' moonlight to Clayton on Str. Waubic. Tuesday 26th, 7.30 city time. Dancing on board. One hour in Clayton. Fare 50c. Street car meets steamer.

Warburton is Aged Seventy
W. H. Warburton, proprietor of the Thousand Islands house at Alexandria Bay, N. Y., was congratulated upon Monday being his seventieth birthday.

Mr. Copland Comes to Kingston
George Steacy Warburton, has purchased the Copland house, Lansdowne, and purposes moving his family to the village. Mr. Copland purposes moving to Kingston.

To Attend Church
The members of the Ancient St. John's Lodge No. 3, A. F. and A. M., G.R.C., are to attend divine service in Christ church, Cataragui, at 4 p.m. next Sunday.

Say of Men's Shirts.
We have just received three cases of men's colored shirts, sizes 13-1-2 to 16-1-2, guaranteed fast colors, beautiful patterns. Regular price $2.50 to $3.50; our sale price $1.75 each. Prevost, Brock street.

Campers Moving In
Rhoddy's Bay, the popular summer resort, is fast filling up with campers from Arnprior and Renfrew. Several new cottages have been erected and everything points to a busy summer at the bay.

Engagement Announced
Mrs. Margaret Telford, Peterboro, announces the engagement of her daughter Elizabeth to Hewe Francis, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adam, Ameliasburg. The wedding to take place in the near future.

Manager of Clayton, N. Y., Office
Miss Lois Dewey, who has been acting manager of the Western Union telegraph office, Lake Placid, N. Y., for the past two months, has left for Clayton where she will be in charge of the office in that village for the summer.

To Be Special Preacher
Dean Starr, St. George's cathedral, is to be the special preacher at the evening service at St. Mary Magdalene church, Napanee, on July 1st, when the congregation will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of that church.

Moonlight Excursion.
Kingston Merchant an Officer W. Y. Mills, Kingston, has been re-elected second vice-president of the Eastern Ontario and Ottawa District Retail Merchants' Association of Canada which has just concluded a convention in Brockville.

Attended Golden Wedding Event
Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Arnold were in Montreal attending the golden wedding of Rev. W. and Mrs. Riggold. The latter is a sister of Mr. Arnold and Mr. Arnold was best man and Mrs. Arnold bridesmaid at the wedding fifty years ago.

To Be At Islands in July
Charles G. Emery, Jr., California, at present in New York, will pass July at the Thousand Islands Country Club. Mr. Emery is the grandson of the late Charles G. Emery, who built the attractive villa on Calumet Island, near Clayton, N. Y., which Mr. Emery, Jr., has inherited.

Kingston the Coolest City
On Wednesday at 3 p.m. reports were sent to the Meteorological Observatory, Toronto, giving the temperatures. In Toronto it was 93; Ottawa 94; Montreal 90; Quebec 92; and Kingston 76. Kingston certainly deserves the name of the coolest city in Eastern Canada.

Ask for An Island
The executive of the U.E.L. Celebration committee, meeting in Belleville, passed a resolution requesting the Belleville council to dedicate Zwick's Island as a U.E.L. Park with mooring conveniences and a wharf at which boats could land with picnic parties from all along the bay and lake.

Gave a Contribution
J. H. Joynt, an old North Augusta boy, now of Omaha, Neb., was a caller last week among his old friends. Mr. Joynt, who has become an enthusiastic Mason, was delighted to see the new Masonic temple erected on the property of his old home, so much so that he gave the trustees a nice contribution towards the building fund.

Come and enjoy a delightful sail to Clayton, N.Y., on SS. Waubic, Friday, June 22nd, giving one hour at Clayton to attend the block dance given especially for Kingston and Gananoque people. Orchestra on board for dancing. Boat leaves foot of Brock street 7:30 p.m. city time. Tickets, 50 cents. There will also be an excursion from Gananoque to Clayton the same evening. Tickets on sale at office, foot of Brock street.

Look for Big Summer
Indications that the season at Alexandria Bay will be the most successful in the history of the Bay increase every day. Cottagers have been arriving and taking possession of their villas in groups daily for some time. Much work in the way of improvement to different summer residences has been done, and preparations are being made for the reception of the owners of those cottages that have not already become established in their villas

Goes to St. Mary's
Prof. Thomas Singleton, organist in the Methodist church, Port Hope, has resigned, and will accept a similar position with the Knox Presbyterian church at St. Mary's, his duties to commence at the end of next month. He was at one time organist in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church of this city.

Sheppard-Waterman Wedding
On the 9th June, at Walkerville, in the First Presbyterian Church, the marriage was solemnized of Helen Waterman, daughter of E. J. Waterman, Kingston, and Frederick Norman Sheppard, youngest son of Mrs. Annie Sheppard, of Peterboro. Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard left later on a water trip to Cleveland, Ohio. They will reside in Detroit, Mich.

Had a Pleasant Outing
Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Ketcheson, 13 Morris street, Belleville, and her sister, Mrs. F. P. Johnson, Millbrook, enjoyed a pleasant motor trip and visited relatives and friends at Waukegan, Midland and Toronto. Mrs. Johnson and her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) W. R. Reynolds and little son, Clifford, Toronto, accompanied them on their return to their home and are spending a pleasant holiday in Fellewille.

Tait-DeLor Wedding
On Tuesday at 1 p.m. in Chalmers church, the marriage took place of Isabel Ivy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William DeLor, Amherst Island, and Clifford Robert Tait, Toronto. Only the immediate relatives of both the bride and groom were present. The happy couple left for Toronto by boat. Mrs. Tait is a graduate nurse of Kingston General hospital.

Soon Time for a Dip
The Richardson bathing house is now open until 9 o'clock each night. So far the temperature of the lake water has not been warmed up to the point where it is comfortable enough for bathing, but the hot weather will very quickly affect the water. Along the St. Lawrence the water is sufficiently warm to make bathing a pleasure. In Cataragui Bay, too, the water is enjoyable for swimming.

Death of Chief's Son
The death occurred at the General hospital, Toronto, on June 19th, of Allen Wawanosh Johnson, youngest son of the late G. H. M. Johnson, head chief of the Mohawks of the Six Nations Indians, Grand River Reserve, and of his late wife, Emily S. Howells, Bristol, England, and brother of the late E. Pauline Johnson, and husband of Floretta K. Maracle, Mohawk of the Bay of Quinte Six Nations Indians.

Fine Foundations Laid
Splegdid foundations are being laid for the large vaults in the new Bank of Montreal Building on King street. Two vault foundations are being laid of reinforced concrete, so that the intensest fire would not dislodge the vaults from their underpinnings. Everything in the new building will be up-to-date.

Not Pleased with Holidays
There is considerable feeling among school trustees over the vacation, which the department of education has forced on the Collegiate Institute, fourteen days ahead of the regular vacation granted to the public schools. The loss in salaries reaches well over $1,500. The board is likely to make representations to the department to prevent the recurrence of this waste of time and public money.

He Taught at Napanee
Cortez Fossenden, M.A., a former principal of Peterboro Collegiate Institute, is dead. His remains were taken to Toronto for burial. In 1885 he was principal of the Napanee Collegiate Institute, remaining there for five years. Deceased was seventy-one years of age. Several of his sons went through the Royal Military College.

Mrs. Stephen King Dead
Death visited Athens and called away a respected resident in Mrs. Stephen King. Deceased had always been robust in health, when last December she was stricken with influenza from which she never recovered. This left the heart in a very weakened condition and Bright's disease also developed with the result that she passed peacefully away June 15th. Deceased was sixty-two years of age. She is survived by her husband and daughter, and also one sister, Mrs. Mark Chant, Harlem; three brothers, George Pattimore, Athens; Oliver Plum Hollow, and Charles, Smith's Falls.
