FLOWER SUNDAY SERVICES

In the Methodist Churches-Presentations at the Princess Street Church.

The annual flower service of Sydenham street Methodist Sunday school was held on Sunday morning. The church auditorium was beautifully decorated with flowers. The arranging of the programme was in charge of a committee of which Miss Ida Garbutt was conveuor. The programme consisted of numbers given by the members of the school. C. S. Anglin, superintendent acted as chairman. Miss Doris Pound extended the welcome of the scholars to the parents and friends of the school. The cradle roll department, of which Miss Ruth Lyons is the superintendent, gave a number. The exercise "Time" was given by the children from the four departments of the school, John Alexander also assisted in this exercise. The Home department dialogue, given by Miss I. McIntyre and Miss Thelma Bogart, gave the large congregation some idea of the great work which this department is doing for the adult members of the congregation. who are unable to attend the Sunday school - sions.

The senior department gave a very fine exercise entitled "Canada." Leslie Joliffe gave a recitation entitled "The Missionary Hen," and Miss Maureen Moffatt made an appeal on of the school. Mrs. W. M. Campbell presided at the organ, and the choir alphabetical order for quick reference. was composed of senior girls.

At Princess Street Church. The annual flower day service was held at Princess street Methodist church Sunday morning, and was attended by an exceptionally large congregation. The children contributed a fine programme.

During the service, a most interesting event took place, when life membership pins of the Mission Band was presented to Mabel and Jean Waddell, by Miss Aleda Gardiner, superintendent of the junior department of the Sunday school. Another pleasant feature was the presentation of a group photograph' of the first class of Tuxis boys of Princess street church, taught by Rev. J. A. Waddell. Mr. Parkhouse made the presentation. The photograph was given to the Sunday school.

Rev. Mr. Waddell gave an address In which he spoke about a candle and candle stick. The candle stick exhibitedd by Rev. Mr. Waddell in his address, is 150 years old, and was made in Scotland.

At Queen Street Church.

At Queen street Methodist church on Sunday morning a most interesting flower service was held and was much enjoyed. The church was very beautifully decorated with flowers and the pastor, Rev. Dr. W. S. Lennon was in charge of the service.

REV. J. A. WADDELL FAREWELLS

No Place In Canada So Dear to Him

as Kingston. Rev. J. A. Waddell, who has been pastor of Princess street Methodist church for the past five years, said farewell to the members of his congregation at both services on Sunday. At the evening service he made a very strong appeal on the topic "Go Forward." At the close of this well thoughtout discourse, Mr. Waddell said he wished to say a few parting words to the members of the church. He said that there was no place in Canada as dear to him as Kingston. Twenty years ago he was accepted as a probationer to the Methodist ministry and he had spent those twenty years working in the Kingston district, having first been posted to Perth Road circuit. He thanked the members of the official board of the church and the members of the different organizations of the church for their loyalty to himself and his wife, and said that his work would not have been a success without their able assistance. He made special reference to the choir members who had helped him so much in his work.

It is with regret that the congregstion of Princess street church had to say farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Waddell. During the past five years, Mr. Waddell has made himself dear to the hearts of the members of the congregation who only wish that he could stay longer.

Mr. Waddell asked that all the church members give Rev. Mr. Curtis, who comes from Winchester, the same co-operation as they gave him, and he was sure that the church work would continue to advance.

The Late F. J. Morley. The funeral of the late Frederick John Morley, who was drowned on Thursday evening, was held on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock from the family residence, 39 Ordnance street, to Cataragui cemetery, under the direction of the James Reid firm. Canon W. F. FitzGerald conducted the service at the house. The pall-bearers were H. Albertson, F. Cunningham, S. Mulholland, H Coventry, R. Donnelly and W. Mul-peautiful memorial service was held for the deceased on Sunday evening in St. Paul's church.

R. J. Wilson, Toronto, was-in the city for the week-end and visited his old friends.
