AN ENJOYABLE PICNIC.

Held By Princess Street Methodic Sunday School.

Brophy's Point was the scene of another very enjoyable picule or Friday afternoon, when the members of Princess street Methodist church Sunday school were given their annual outing by their teachers and parents. There was a record crowd in attendance. The Steamer Waubic carried the picnickers to the popular point, where the usual games, races and other sports were engaged in with great glee until the time for refreshments came around-none too soon for the kiddies, at least. Miss E. Wilder, school superintendent, was in charge of the young people, and she had a busy time plooking after her throng of pleasure-seeking youngsters. General regret was expressed that Rev. J. K. Curtis was unable to be present. The results of the races were as follows: Girls' events-3 to 4 years, Jean Graves and Jean Marshall; 8 to 9 years, Dorothy Rutherford and for-all, Dorothy Peters and Mary man. Pomfret; 15 to 17 years, Florence Harkness and Lois Baker; young ladies, Marion Asselstine and Mild-red Knight; married ladies. Mrs. red Knight; married ladies, Mrs. Archibald and Mrs. Rutherford. Boys' events-3 to 5 years, W.

Wilson and James Peters: 7 to 8 BRINGING UP FATHER years, Carl Pomfret and J. Rutherford; 9 to 10 years, Jack Wood and C. Graham; 11 years, Harry Ward and Harry Peters; 12 years, Ralph Darling and Robert Wood; 12 to 15 years, W. Wood and Cyril Darling.
