NOVA SCOTIA MINERS RETURNING TO WORK

Those in Pictou and Springhill Regions to Side With Lewis.

Springhill, N.S., July 19 .- The miners at Westville went back to work this morning and other mines in the Pictou field will follow suit, according to a message received at Springhill this morning. It is expected that the majority of the miners in the mainland will side with John L. Lewis, president of the International Union of Mine Workers, against the MacLachlan-Livingstonefaction. John Foster, an international organizer from Indianapolis, and a brother of Kent Foster, wellknown Springhill miner, has gone to Cape Breton, where he will aid Silby Barrett, provincial president of district 26 in an effort to straighten out the existing tangle. Mac-Lachlan it is expected, will conduct the fight against the Lewis edict.

THE A. O. H. MAY FIGHT THE KU KLUX KLAN

Resolution Expected To Be Passed at the Convention in Montreal.

Montreal, July 19 .- A declaration of the Ancient Order of Hibernians as an active, militant force pledged in a fight to the finish with the Ku SALE OF PALMER'S Klux Klan is confidently looked for to-day when it is expected a resolution based on Hon. Patrick O'Donnell's disclosures before the convention will be brought forward for adoption. Judge O'Donnell, Chicago, on account of the work being done by the Axerican Unity League, an organization founded by him to maintain racial, religious and social tolerance, made a strong indictment of the Ku Klux Klan as a body treasonable to the States.

Treasure House of Art Fast Rising From Ruins from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Louvain, Belgium, July 19.-Louvain university, world-famous treasure house of art and learning, destroyed by the Germans early in the Belgian invasion, is rapidly rising from its ruins. Today, less than two years after the laying of the corner stone, Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, blessed the completed first wing of the restored library, in the building of which the American committee for restoration of Louvain university played so large a part.

Br. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university and chairman of the executive committee of the American organization, delivered an address and placed in the library a book containing the names of the American teachers and school dian Presbyterian church. children who contributed nearly $40,-000 to the restoration fund.
