FINED $100 AND COSTS THREE-YEAR-OLD CHARGE

Police Stated Herbert Clancy Throw Away Supply of Liquor.

Herbert Clancy answered a three-year old charge in police court on Thursday morning. He was accused of having "liquor in a place other than his own private dwelling" and pleaded "not guilty," but after the evidence of Constables Thomas Mullinger and Leslie Armstrong had been taken, he was fined $100 and costs, or three months in jail. The fine will be paid.

Constable Mullinger told about Clancy having a couple of bottles of liquor in his possession. He said that as he was about to apprehend the accused he ran away and in his flight he threw away two bottles of liquor. These two bottles were produced in court.

Constable Armstrong, who happened to come along at the time Clancy was making his escape, told the magistrate about the foot race Clancy was having.

Former Sailor Offers Evidence. New Rochelle, N.Y., August 2.—Charles Noxon, who has been mentioned as a new attorney for Walter S. Ward, re-indicted for the murder of Clarence Peters, ex-sailor, announced he had received an anonymous letter signed "an ex-sailor" offering aid in obtaining information about the private life of the slain man.

The man claimed he was acquainted with Peters when he was in the navy. Noxon turned the letter over to Ward's lawyers.

Escape, Get Lost, Caught. Sudbury, Ont., Aug. 2.—Allan Greenfield and Leon Durant, Toronto, serving two year terms in Burwash for theft, escaped from Burwash by use of a skeleton key. They got turned around in the bush, however, and were met by a search party, a short distance from the farm later in the day. Wednesday morning in police court here, they elected trial by a judge.

Caught In The Act. According to Charles Kingston, who has made a study of famous legal figures, that famous judge, Sir Henry Hawkins, loved fresh air except when occupied in his official duties, which he would often sit for a dozen hours in a stuffy little court packed to the doors and insist upon every window being kept tightly shut. Once at Nottingham, when he was nearly eighty, he kept the court sitting in these conditions until 11 at night. The next morning he left his lodgings at 5 with his famous dog "Jack" at his heels, and a gun over his shoulder, and spent a couple of hours rabbit shooting. As he was returning with a couple of rabbits suspended from his gun, two working men who had made the acquaintance of the judge in his court caught sight of him. Transfixed by the sight of the gun and the rabbits, they remained petrified, until one exclaimed, in the hearing of Sir Henry: "Gorblime! The old 'un's been poachin'!"

Stars That Are Not Stars. Shooting stars are not in any sense stars, but meteoric particles, the luminosity of which is caused by the friction in their passage throughout atmosphere.

Dr. W. A. Maclean, St. Giles' church, Wimpole, a native of Elizabethton, has just completed the eighteenth year of his ministry in the church. Knowledge humbles the great man, astonishes the common man, and puffs up the little man.

To-Day's Blunder Corrected (See Illustration on Page 10.) When packing a big lunch for a picnic it is better to pack the food in smaller packages and distribute the responsibility of carrying them among those in the party. When the different kinds of food are wrapped separately, they will keep better and be handled easier when served.
