T. J. Park Association Refused Injunction—Defendant Is Granted $10.

Justice E. N. Smith refused to grant an injunction to the Thousand Island Park Association against George A. Hunter, who for the past forty-five years has lived at Fisher's Landing and has been running a small ferry between the landing and the park, denying him the right to take on passengers or land them. The justice said the defendant had a right to carry passengers between the two points, and issued an order to that effect. He also granted the defendant $10 charges against the plaintiff.

Hunter, who is seventy-six years old, has been maintaining a small ferry from Fisher's Landing to the Thousand Island Park and other points on the river for many years. He owns property at the landing on the river front and up to 1922 the Thousand Island Park Association leased the land from him and used it as a docking place for its ferry. They gave Hunter the right to carry passengers to and from the island providing he did not interfere with their service. Mr. Hunter has always taken special pains to see that his boat did not in any way conflict with the schedule of the park ferry.

This year the association bought some land and erected a dock where it can land its boats. They did not use the land belonging to Mr. Hunter and they said he could not take on or discharge passengers at the park. They sent an order to show cause for an injunction to be issued him restraining him from landing at the Thousand Island Park.

The matter was brought up before Justice E. N. Smith. Attorney Lewis H. Ford appeared for the association and argued in favor of an injunction being issued not allowing Hunter to land at the park for the purpose of taking on or discharging passengers. Attorney N. M. Smith appeared for Mr. Hunter and opposed the motion to grant the injunction.

The court after hearing both arguments refused to grant the injunction restraining Hunter from landing at the park and ordered the defendant to be paid $10.

SURPRISE TO SUPERVISORS. Are Dumbfounded at Bill for Use of Country Club.

Waterbury, N.Y., Standard.
A little aftermath of the Board of Supervisors and Lincoln League outing to Brockville, Ont., last week, came recently in the form of a bill for $500 from the Brockville Country Club where the local men were entertained for less than two hours.

Needless to say, the committee in charge of the outing were dumbfounded at the amount. To make the figure sound easier, the club told them that the usual figure for the use of the clubhouse and entertaining was $1,000.

The committee expected to pay for the cigars, soft drinks and other incidental expenses and made arrangements before hand for these. At present the committee is at a loss to understand the bill and have written the Brockville people for a more detailed explanation.

The outing was highly successful and the receipts about equalled the expenses until the extra large Brockville bill was presented.

In twelve hours 35,000 vehicles pass the Mansion House, London, Eng., and 30,000 pass Ludgate Circus.

In Russia there are 1,229 women to every 1,000 men. Germany comes next with 1,100 and Austria, 1,069.

TWELVE WEEKS' COURSE AT THE SUMMER SCHOOL

Is Favored by Queen's Association—Want Term From June 9th to Aug. 29th.

The third term proposal received the hearty support of the Queen's summer school Association and Tuesday night at the final meeting for this season a resolution was passed asking the university to arrange for a twelve weeks' course for next summer if possible. This would mean that a regular fall term, similar to either of the two winter terms, would commence on June 9th and continue until August 29th, giving those who attended credit for a whole term's work, two of which would be equivalent to a winter's attendance at college and fulfill the intra-mural requirements for a degree. The matter was fully discussed at several meetings of the association, and Tuesday night the result of the questionnaire, which was sent out, was announced. The students were in favor of the long summer term by about 10 to 1. For those who cannot leave their schools so early, the second half of the summer course, that is the last six weeks, will count as a regular short summer course, four of which will fill the residence requirements.

A garden party is to be given to the Summer School Association by the university and will be held on the lawn in front of the principal's residence on Monday, August 13th.

The Methodist Sunday School picnic held in Mr. Shelby's grove, on Tuesday was much enjoyed by those present, judging by the enthusiasm with which the sports were entered into by both children and grownups.

GANANOQUE

Aug. 5.—A pretty wedding took place on Saturday, August 4th, at St. James church, Pontiac, Michigan, when Gladys Mae, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Deacon, was united in marriage to Hillard LaFranc, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles LaFranc, of Gananoque. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a gown of white crepe de chine. Her veil was held in place by a band of myrtle and she carried a bouquet of white roses. The matron of honor was Miss Marion Wardell, who was attired in a dainty gown of Reseda silk and carried a bouquet of pink snap-dragon. The bridesmaids were Miss Freda Deacon, sister of the bride, and Miss Violet Bowyer the bride's cousin. They wore frocks of maize organdie and white silk hats, and carried bouquets of yellow snap-dragon. The bridegroom was attended by Joseph Coche. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a gold pendant, to the bridesmaid, a pearl necklace, and to the groomsmen, a gold fountain pen. A reception was afterwards held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Coche, where upwards of eighty guests were entertained. Among those who attended were Mrs. Child and family, Gananoque, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Kerastas, Detroit. The happy couple will take up residence in Pontiac, Mich. The bride, who was very popular, had many show-ers given in her honor, including one by the telephone girls of Pontiac, she having been employed by the Telephone Company for several years.

Mrs. Thomas Morris, New York, who is occupying her cottage on the rift, near Alexandria Bay, N.Y., accompanied by her guest, Mrs. John Murphy, also of New York, were trolling in the Lake of the Isles, when Mrs. Morris had a strike. She supposed she had a pickerel on the line, and not having a net, after playing the fish a sufficient length of time, they rowed their boat to the dock, and drew the fish up on the land. Much to their surprise they discovered they had landed a baby muskie, which weighed 22 pounds.

Violated Fishing Laws. George Eves, a 24coo Island fisherman, was charged before Magistrate J. W. Bradshaw, on Tuesday, with fishing with illegal nets and fishing with nets not properly marked. ### SUCCESS--POWER

Doing Things Today

One of the most valuable habits of thinking and living a man can have is that of refusing to put things off until to-morrow or next week—or next year.

If vigorous, whole-hearted action does not follow inspiration, the vision of the opening opportunity dies. The more we deny these calls to activity, the weaker and more infrequent they become.

The trouble with to-morrow is that it's such a good time to put things off till the day after. The pathos of the man who postpones is in his inevitable failure.

To-morrow is a fair mirage in the desert of falling hopes. Don't be fooled!

AN HISTORIC HALL RESTORED

A noble example of early English architecture has been restored in Westminster Hall, which was recently re-opened by the King. With the exception of the Hall of Justice at Padua, it is the largest hall in existence unsupported by columns, being 240 by 67 feet. It was built by Richard II., and in it 40,000 of his followers were feasted at Christmas, 1398. In it Charles I. was condemned, and from 1661 to 1681 Cromwell's head was exposed in it.
