TWO AUTOMOBILES DROP OVER BANK INTO RIVER

Accident to Cars of A. Masoud and W. Trenhalie at Kingston Mills.

Early Sunday evening an unusual accident occurred at Kingston Mills, when an automobile driven by A. Masoud, a well-known Princess street merchant, backed over a ten foot bank into the river, to be followed about two minutes later by another car, owned by W. Trenhalie, Kingston, who had stopped by the roadside to render assistance. The second car took the big plunge when it was knocked off the road by a passing resident of the county.

According to information obtained, both cars were badly damaged, but none of the occupants were injured or even bruised in any manner as a result of the double-accident. A local garage was communicated with and both cars were pulled out of the river with some difficulty, and brought into the city.

The original mishap took place just a few yards west of the bridge at the locks, when Mr. Masoud was attempting to turn his car around in the centre of the road. In backing up, the driver became confused in some manner, and suddenly shot backwards over the high bank into the water, which is about nine feet deep at that point. Mr. Masoud managed to climb out of the car and he was brought to shore in a boat.

SAIL BOAT IS BLOWN OUT INTO THE LAKE

Occupants Refuse Aid of Steamer—Life Crew Now Searching for Them.

Toronto Aug. 13.—Caught in the heavy off shore wind somewhere along the city's shores last night, a small sail boat of the sloop type with five male passengers aboard was blown about ten miles into the lake and sighted by the steamer Cayuga homeward bound. The steamer immediately went to the smaller vessel's aid, but the passengers, one of whom had a bandaged head, declined to come aboard if it was necessary to abandon their craft asking that word be sent to the local life saving crew to come and tow them in. Wireless messages were immediately broadcast, with the result that a speed boat, fully manned, put off in search of the disabled sail boat. After three hours vain search in the dark the rescue boat put back, shipped a new crew under Acting Superintendent Hilliard Lang and again went out in quest of the drifters. They are still out.

WITH THE BOY SCOUTS.

The Lads Are Having A Big Time in Camp.

The boy scouts of No. 1 troop continue to enjoy the camp life started a week ago. On Friday night, over a big camp fire, the boys had pop, candy and peanuts. Saturday's camp fire was the scene of a marshmallow roast, while out on the water, a motor boat with girl guides, who are camping on a neighboring point, hovered around. The girl guides sang a number of fine songs.

Sunday was a quiet day in camp. At 11 o'clock a short service was held and an address on "Scout Ideals" was given by Capt. Laro, who remained at the camp over Sunday. Several snapshots of the troop and the camp were taken. Some who are trying for their staking proficiency badge have a few pictures of squirrels, chipmunks, etc. Badge work in every quarter is going ahead with much interest, camp life and surroundings adding greatly to help the boys. The boys had a few visitors on Sunday. The threatening weather kept many people away from the camp.
