POLICE AND A BURGLAR HAVE REVOLVER DUEL

Culprit Shot in Neck and Captured in a Montreal Grocery.

Montreal, Aug. 21.—After holding three police officers and several citizens at bay for half an hour, while both sides blazed away with revolvers and the besieged man beat off the attack of one constable with a volley of beer bottles, Joseph La Pierre, aged twenty-nine years, was captured when he was shot in the neck, in a grocery store early this morning.

JUNETOWN JOTTINGS.

Lots of People are Moving About Now.

Junetown, Aug. 20.—Miss Grace McDonald, Quabbin, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. D. Bigford. Miss Orma Fortune spent a few days recently with Lansdowne friends. Mrs. Frank Fortune spent a few days last week at Glen Ebbe and Kilkenny street. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ferguson also Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Franklin and Everett Franklyn motored to Ottawa and spent a few days last week.

Recent visitors at J. A. Herbison's are: Misses Ethel Hensy and Annie Haws, Fred Radmore and Silas McGee, Ottawa; A. Scott and son, Harold, Toronto; Charles Norton and son, Howard, Lepauville, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher and children, Redwood, N.Y. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mulvaugh, Canton, N.Y., motored here, and spent a few days with his parents last week.

Harold Winton and George Henderson left on Monday for the harvester's excursion west. Mrs. A. N. Earl, and children, Warburton, are spending a few weeks at Walter Purvis' before they move to their home in Brockville. Miss Kathleen Earl left on Saturday to attend Model school in Kingston. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glenn, Ivy Lake, spent Sunday at G. P. Scott's.

Bush Fires Under Control.

Tieborne, Aug. 18.—Rain is very much needed in this locality. The farmers are about through with their harvest and report a very light crop. Fire has been set several times by C. P. R. trains, but was got under control before very much damage was done. A number from here took in the Ladies' Aid meeting which was held at L. A. Cameron's cottage on Eagle Lake, last Wednesday afternoon. A most enjoyable time was spent, a sumptuous supper spread under the glorious old hemlocks, by Mrs. L. A. Cameron and Mrs. John Gray. Some from here have gone west on the excursion. Visitors: Lola Dermott, the Rev. Evelyn Steele, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Steele, Toronto, at A. Kennedy's, Sr., Mrs. John Steele, Sr., at M. Cronin's, Parham; Mrs. Thompson, Sr., at S. Rothwell's, Jewel Thomson at Burridge.

Sherlock-Holmes Methods.

A joke was played on Sir Arthur Conan Doyle by a French taxicab driver recently. The man had driven the world-famous creator of "Sherlock Holmes" from the station to the hotel, and when he received his fare he said, "Mercl, M. Conan Doie."

"Why, how do you know my name?" asked Sir Arthur. "Well, sir, I had seen in the papers that you were coming from the South of France to Paris. Your general appearance told me that you were English; your hair had been clearly cut by a barber of the South of France. I put these indications together, and I saw your name on your luggage!" Beautiful plans and lofty dreams lose their value unless they are in some way built into action. The things people would do "if they had time" are not the things that are feeding the hungry or pushing the world along. Mrs. Mary C. Dooley, Brockville, is suing her husband, Alfred W. J. Dooley, Toronto, for divorce.

A. O. H. CONVENTION.

Convenes in Ottawa — C. J. Fay is Presiding. Ottawa, Aug. 21.—Seventeenth biennial convention of the Ontario provincial order of Ancient Hibernians, which is to occupy two days, opened this morning in the Hibernian hall here with nearly one hundred delegates.

The convention is representative of three Ottawa lodges, five from Toronto, two from Hamilton and one each from St. Thomas and Kingston. The convention is being presided over by C. J. Fay, provincial president of the order, who delivered the address of welcome.

After lying unconscious for several days, three-year-old Donald McLeod, adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. McEwen, Prescott, died at the Hepburn hospital of sleeping sickness.

Fire at Renfrew did $3,000 damage to the premises of G. Ellis, feed merchant.

The Family Next Door

Wherever you go, or wherever you live, there seems to be one of those lucky families next door who have everything they want. Perhaps you have watched them roll away in their comfortable car on a Sunday afternoon while you sat twirling your thumbs wondering why you, too, could not have more of the things that make life worth living. Have you ever tried to find out the reason why the family next door roll through life so easily and so merrily?

Probably they always reach out and accept the good things that are offered them. Most likely they read the A-B-C Classified Sections regularly.

Automobiles, homes, household goods and many other things are offered at economical prices in the A-B-C Classified Section. And you'll always find income-increasing opportunities there, too.

BRINGING UP FATHER

"I wonder if daughter told that Beau of hers what I said."

"I'll go see before he calls tonight. That guy never knows when to go home."

"When you told him that all lights in the house were to be out at ten o'clock what did he say?"

"He said he'd be here tonight at ten-thirty."
