The Oshawa Reformer speaks in complimentary terms of the improving of Collings, Belleville and Sullivan, Kingston. "These umpires," it says, "handled the game in big league style. It was a treat to see a pair of arbitrators like Collings and Sullivan."

The Canadian National Exhibition was visited by 1,372,500 people in 1922, double the attendance of any of the great state fairs across the line, and a better showing than ever was made by any of the world's fairs of the past in the same number of consecutive days.

MISS NELLIE BRUCE WIRES SHE IS WELL

The many Kingston friends of Miss Nellie Bruce, who resided with Mrs. H. F. Pickering, 126 Nelson street, will be relieved to hear that she escaped without injury from the Wawa hotel, which burned early Sunday morning. Miss Bruce had been an employee of the big summer hotel this summer and when the news of the disastrous fire reached this city, with dead, unidentified, grave fears for her safety were expressed. Mrs. Pickering received a telegram on Wednesday morning from Miss Bruce, in which she stated she was safe and well at Bracebridge, but had a trying time.

NEW OFFICE BUILDING OF THE UTILITIES

Being Pushed Ahead—To be "White Way" On Queen Street Block.

Work is proceeding on the new office building of the utilities commission. The cellar and foundation walls are about completed and the materials are on hand for the erection of the building so that there will be no delay in pushing it forward to completion.

The work of removing the poles from the street is proceeding, and within a short time the street will be as clean as Princess street. The conduits have been laid, for all wires and steel poles are being placed for a "White Way." It is hoped to have the permanent pavement laid this season.

C. C. Folger, manager of the utilities, left for Ottawa Wednesday to attend the annual convention of the Canadian Gas Association which meets in the Chateau Laurier.

Still Grappling.

Up to press time on Wednesday, no trace of the body of George Sakell, drowned in Collin's Lake on Sunday afternoon, had been found, although diligent search is being made. Several men have been hired to continue the grappling work, and the party were in the city on Wednesday morning to obtain additional equipment. The windy weather has rendered the work exceedingly difficult.

FIRE CONSUMES LODGE AT FRESH AIR CAMP

Bolton, Ont., Aug. 22.—Yesterday 130 mothers and children left Hastings lodge, the main building of the Fresh Air camp here, for their homes in Toronto, and early this morning fire of unknown origin, fanned by a strong wind, destroyed the institution, with the loss of forty thousand dollars, partly covered by insurance. The camp was operated by the Neighborhood Workers Association of Toronto, with an auxiliary camp maintained by the Rotary Club, and another party of children was to come from Toronto to-day. Three workers were in charge of the place last night, but they fortunately slept in a tent some distance from the building which was destroyed.

IN MEMORIAM.
In loving memory of Mrs. E. F. Dennee, who departed this life two years ago, August 22nd, 1921.

One by one earth's ties are broken,
As we see our loved ones,
And the hopes we fondly cherished,
Brighten but to pass away.
One by one our hopes grow brighter,
As we near the shining shores,
For we know across the river,
Waits dear mother gone before.
—Daughter, Mrs. John Gordon, Creasy.
