KINGSTON AND VICINITY

Bearing a Smokestack.

A large smokestack is being erected on Hepburn Bros.' cannery factory, in Picton. John I. Cullerton is superintending the work.

Order Now.

We are showing the finest range of Men's Suits ever carried, and our prices are the lowest. Suits made to measure from $32.50 to $40.00.—Prevost, Brock Street.

Moving to Picton.

Mrs. George Genier has bought Anson McLaughlin's place, at South Bay, and Mr. McLaughlin has bought a house and lot in Picton and is moving there.

Are Back in Watertown, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen, No. 937 Remington Street, Watertown, N. Y., returned home after three weeks' vacation, visiting at Kingston, Harrowsmith and Verona.

Dr. Crowley Appointed.

Dr. L. E. Crowley, Kingston, has been appointed general medical supervisor of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Canada, whose annual convention was held in Ottawa this week.

Taking Up the Rails.

The Canadian National Railway authorities are stated to have given instructions to have the rails in the old C. N. R. between Brighton and Colborne taken up, and that work has started at the east end of the road.

Engagement Announced.

Charles E. Sheridan, Brockville, announces the engagement of his sister, Violet Evelyn, to William Charles Peterson, Detroit, Michigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Peterson, Prescott, the marriage to take place in September.

Pembroke Man Killed.

Patrick Lynch, Fort William, aged thirty, brakeman, fell under the wheels of a freight train at Brock, east of Fort Arthur, on Aug. 20th, and received injuries of which he died while being taken to hospital. His parents reside in Pembroke.

Located in Picton.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Grover and two sons, Don and Harold, formerly of Halleybury, have moved into the Drummond House on Queen street, Picton, where they will reside. Mrs. Grover is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Jacob and sister of Mrs. W. B. Turnbull, Picton.

Removing to Mount Kisco, N. Y.

Miss Lucy Hummel, Chesterville, who recently graduated as a nurse at the Cornwall General Hospital, has accepted the position of night superintendent of the Northern Westchester Hospital at Mount Kisco, N. Y., a town of about 5,000 population, thirty miles from New York. The institution has twenty-five beds.

Battersca Thronged.

The Battersca summer camp was thronged with tourists and other campers over the weekend. The church was crowded with them on Sunday and they showed keen appreciation of the opportunities for enjoyment at this fine summer camping spot. Fishing is reported good.

Little-Benmont Wedding.

On Saturday a quiet wedding took place when William Little, Oshawa, was united in marriage to Miss Ruth Benmont, Belleville. The popularity of the bride and groom is attested by the fact that their friends in Belleville presented them with a couple of beautiful rocking chairs upholstered in leather.

Parking Signs Ignored.

The Board of Works has had red parking signs placed on the curb of streets where parking is allowed, but some drivers and owners are driving past the point of the arrow. They say they don't know what the signs are for, but the arrow at the end of the red mark is the limit beyond which no car or truck should be stalled. The reason for this is to protect corners for cars that have to turn.

Girl Swims Five Miles.

Miss Bertrice Brown, daughter of Abner B. Brown, Baltimore, Md., made a five-mile swim in four hours, without floating, swimming on her back, or stopping to rest in any way. The side-stroke was the one chiefly used, with occasionally the crawl stroke. The starting point was Emery Island. Just out in the channel from Clayton, N. Y., and the stopping point the light house just beyond Thousand Island Park.

Coming Up from Cuba.

Merton Gibson, of Cuba, will join his family in Picton in the early fall for a two months' leave. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson moved to Havana about three years ago and Mr. Gibson has had no respite until now from his duties as bank manager. His mother, Mrs. James Gibson, who is at present a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gibson, British Columbia, will return to Picton earlier than planned to welcome her son from the south.

Back To The Old Home.

Thomas A. McCammon, City traffic Superintendent of the Western Union, Telegraph Company, New York, is in the city for a few days and is with his brother, License Inspector McCammon. Mr. McCammon says he feels greatly drawn to Kingston for its clean appearance wide and splendid streets and its vast collection of fine homes. Mr. McCammon would like to live here again, although he has been away over forty years. He is making a trip through the west, down to California and back to New York by the southern route. Many old friends were glad to meet him.

Cattle Falling Off in Flesh.

The agricultural representative in Leeds reports to the Ontario department that pastures are very short and dry. Live stock are falling off in flesh and the delivery of milk at some cheese factories has been cut almost in half. Many farmers are feeding buckwheat green, the second crop of clover, or ensilage, as a supplement. Some fields of corn and oats have also been pastured.

Had a Joyous Trip.

Dr. F. Ray Clapp and Mrs. Clapp gave a birthday party for their little daughter Catherine at Hickory Park, Prince Edward county, the old home of Mrs. Clapp. Miss Bessie O. Smith, an old schoolmate of Mrs. Clapp, was the guest of honor. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent on the beautiful shore among the hickory trees. Miss Smith gave some thrilling accounts of her three and a half years in Talara, Peru, and described the different cities and places she had visited while in South America.

Cape Church 100 Years Old.

The celebration of the centennial of the founding of the Presbyterian church of Cape Vincent was held this week. The Sunday services were most successful. Rev. Arthur F. Meabon, D.D., of the Hamilton Grange Reformed Church, New York, preaching at both services. The morning topic was, "The Church and Its Influence in Formation of Character." In the evening he preached on, "The Church and Brotherhood." Monday afternoon an informal meeting was held. Rev.
