CAMPERS GATHERING. At Dead Man's Bay Sunday Night Last of Season.

The regular summer evening gatherings of the campers at McDonaid's Cove, or Dead Man's Bay, as it is more generally known, were concluded on Sunday night, when about 125 people gathered at the Crumley-Galloway camp.

These events, which started at the camp of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Anglin, early in the summer, have been exceptionally popular and it is with general regret that the cool weather forced the breaking up of the gatherings.

The programme Sunday night consisted of songs, choruses, speeches and musical selections, those taking part including Miss Stagg, of the Y.W.C.A., at the piano, assisted by Mr. Watson, of the R.M.C., on the violin, and Prof. O. F. Teigmann, Miss Teigmann and Mr. Teigmann, Jr., Frank Anglin, D. A. Shaw, Miss Buhlig, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., Major McManus, H. V. Moore, Miss Edna Crumley, Mrs. Galloway, Mrs. B. F. Casselman, Miss Vanaistyne, Miss Henstridge, Miss Reid, Jack Elder, Earl Fidgeon and others. B. F. Casselman, Vancouver, B. C., acted as chairman. Several of the speakers stressed the enjoyment and appreciation of the concerts at the camp and it was mutually agreed to continue the events next year.

The campers and their friends from Kingston and the surrounding country enjoyed the concert very much, and a generous amount of applause was given the various artists for their clever selections.

Police Court Cases. Two well-known citizens were on Monday morning convicted in the police court of being intoxicated, and were fined $10 and costs or one month in jail. With two others they were in possession of the kitchen of the home of one of their number, whose wife was absent. On her return Sunday night about ten o'clock she found them, and telephoned the police who made the arrests.

Mrs. Nellie Beance appeared on a charge of receiving money by false pretenses, and was committed for trial at the next session of the county court.

The Harmony Six Orchestra. The popular Harmony Six orchestra consisting of Art Christmas, leader, Roy McCormick, Sid Fox, Norman Way, and Albert Colclough concluded a full week on Friday evening when it played at Sydenham. Enjoyable dances were held at Brophy's Point, Stella, Morton and Godfrey at which this orchestra supplied the musical programme. The Harmony Six is considered one of the best dance orchestras in these parts.

Music of Special Character. Princess street Methodist church was filled on Sunday evening to hear a sermon by Rev. W. Curtis on "What Then, Shall I do With Jesus?" The attitude of the nation, social reform movements, home and individual to this question, was ably discussed. A solo by Mrs. Percy Ward, in the chorus of which choir and even the congregation, joined, was very effective.

For the most part man's contentment is due to his ignorance.

The steamer Fiftown is an American vessel.

Preached in St. George's. Rev. J. Connolly Dixon preached an excellent sermon in St. George's cathedral on Sunday morning, on the need of patience and faith in these days of hurry and rush when the thought in every one's mind seems to be how much business or pleasure they can crowd into the hours. The anthem "Come to My Heart, Lord Jesus" was well sung by the choir, Eytan Warburton taking the solo most effectively. In the evening, Rev. W. E. Kidd preached to a good congregation, who were glad to hear him again after his well deserved holiday.
