Relieve that Eyestrain

Many women have the foolish notion that glasses are a disfigurement. On the contrary, they are an asset to your appearance if you wear a pair to fit every occasion—the ballroom, the movies, outdoor sports and reading or sewing.

Better to guard your eyes against increasing weakness for neglect will bring wrinkles and eventually serious discomforts.

CLAIM AUTO TOURISTS CAUSE LOSS TO HOTELS

The Visitors Use Hostelry Conveniences But do Not Spend Money.

It is claimed that the summer automobile tourist traffic is not a source of profit to the hotelkeepers. Some of them complain that not only is this sort of traffic not a profitable one but it is occasioning an actual loss. This, as explained, is due to the fact that so many tourists travelling in family parties avail themselves of the use of the hotel parlors and toilets and leave without buying even a meal.

A representative of the Whig was privileged to spend several hours in one of Kingston's largest hotels and he saw the conditions the proprietors complain of. Parties of six to eight were entering and leaving the hotel, but paid nothing for the use of conveniences maintained for guests. These people appeared to be in fair circumstances and were travelling through the country in cars carrying camping outfits. They would halt at the roadside to prepare meagre meals and then drive on, halting again at night to sleep under tents which they pitched.

"It is a considerable item in our annual expense account to maintain the service which tourists avail themselves of free of charge," said two proprietors when discussing this new method of travel. "There is a considerable loss from these people, because they don't spend one cent after using our parlors as rest rooms. If municipalities are encouraging this class of business I would suggest that they provide a building with the conveniences demanded. There may be an occasional tourist whose party leaves a little money in the town, especially if it happens to be their destination, but such cases are the exceptions."

THIS PEOPLE ARE PLACING COAL IN THEIR CELLARS

Hoped the Napanee Council Will Look After The Wood Supply.

Napanee, Aug. 28.—The few cold days and nights which we have had recently have stirred up business for the coal dealers. A schooner is now in the river discharging a large cargo at Van Luvan's yard. Another large boat-load of coal is expected this week at Gleason's dock. W. S. Wilson is busy delivering coal to town and country patrons from the railway siding. It looks as if many users of coal, who suffered during last winter, and had to use any-odd-thing that would burn, are taking time by the forelock and laying in their winter's supply, as much as they possibly can arrange for. This action is commendable as it will to some extent solve the fuel problem here. The price here for anthracite coal seems to be $17 a ton for the popular sizes, stove and nut. This does not savor of bargain-counter prices, but—oh, well. Many people in town unfortunately cannot afford that price, nor can they lay in a supply for the cold days that will intervene between now and the balmy days of spring. For their benefit it is hoped that the town council will repeat their good action of last winter and maintain a town wood-yard on the market square.

AN ACCIDENT AT PARHAM.

Mrs. Barr's Buggy Hit by Auto—Lady Escaped Injury.
Parham, Aug. 25.—What might have been a serious accident, took place on Thursday when Mrs. E. Barr was driving near the Bank of Montreal building. In turning out for a car coming from the opposite direction, the buggy was struck with such force that it was nearly overturned. However, Mrs. Barr escaped injury. The buggy was badly broken.

S. Barr's sale was well attended, and everything was sold. R. B. Forbes, Binghamton, N. Y., is a visitor in the village. T. A. Wagar and family, also Mrs. F. Wagar, spent a day in the city recently.

GANANOQUE

Aug. 28.—One of the prettiest of weddings was solemnized yesterday morning in St. John's church when the Very Rev. Dean Kehoe united in marriage Mary Florence, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Pilon and Frederick McEwan, Windsor. The bride radiantly lovely in a gown of white canton crepe with veil becomingly arranged with Orange Blossoms was given away by her father. Miss Jean Pilon, cousin of the bride, was maid of Honor, and looked very lovely in an orchid gown of canton crepe and orchid hat. She carried sweet peas. Joseph McKeon, Windsor, was groomsmen. A high nuptial mass followed the marriage ceremony, with special music, the soloists being Mrs. Sanford Delaney and Misses Lorraine Pilon and Mayme Brennan. Miss Kate O'Neill presided at the organ. The groom's gift to the bride was a rope of pearls, to the bridesmaid, silver meshbag, to the groomsmen, gold cuff links. After a dainty buffet luncheon at the home of the bride's parents, North street, the happy couple left for Montreal and Quebec City by motor, and after a couple of weeks honeymoon will take up residence in Windsor. Among the out-of-town guests were Misses Zeta Pilon, Kingston, and Miss Irene Amond, Brockville.
