PURDY-FINNEGAN WEDDING

At Home of the Bride in Pittsburg On Wednesday.

On Wednesday morning at 10.30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Finnegan, Pittsburg, the marriage was solemnized of their youngest daughter, Emily Jane, and John Robert Purdy, Morven. Rev. Kenneth Lancaster, minister of the Presbyterian church, officiating.

The home of the bride was decked with flowers, and the living room, where the ceremony took place, was banked with evergreens. The bride's gown was of silver grey canton crepe and her flowers roses, and as she entered the room her sister, Miss Alma Finnegan, wearing a smart frock of robin's egg blue and sand color, played the wedding march.

Pink and white asters and streamers decked the table centered with the bride's cake. Although only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present, the party was a merry one, an honored guest being the groom's grandmother, Mrs. R. G. Purdy, Morven, who has reached the good old age of eighty-four.

Mrs. Finnegan, the mother of the bride, was gowned in black silk. There were no attendants. The witnesses were Miss Finnegan and Moore Finnegan.

Mr. and Mrs. Purdy left on the train for the west and will visit Toronto, Niagara Falls and other western points. The bride travelled in a smart navy blue frock with a coat to match and wore a small grey hat and veil and the groom's gift, a brown fox stole. The gift to the pianist was of French ivory. The young couple will make their home in Morven where Mr. Purdy is a popular young farmer.

There lives more faith in honest doubt, Believe me, than in half the creeds. —Tennyson.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream

To Discard Freckles, Tan, Pimples, Wrinkles

It is said that creams containing animal grease cause hair to grow. You run no risk of acquiring superfluous hair from using ordinary mercuric soap. There is nothing better for a discolored skin, as the wax actually absorbs the offensive outside. The latter is naturally replaced by a clear, smooth, healthy complexion, full of life and expression. It's the sensible way to discard a freckled, tanned, over-erased skin.

Get an ounce of mercuric soap at any drug-gist's and apply nightly like cold cream, erasing in the morning with soap and water. Soon you will observe a most remarkable transformation.

The ideal wrinkle remover is made by dissolving an ounce of pure powdered saxolite in a half pint of witch hazel. Rubbing the face in the solution brings about immediate results.
