ARTHUR (JOCK) HOLLAND
 The famous impersonator of world-renowned personages, who is appearing cluding one of the Queen Catherine perjured in Russia, at the Grand, Friday, law in London through the kindly help of his aunt's lawyer, Mrs. Wickfield of Canterbury, in whose house David had been living. Accompanied by a schoolboy friend, Steerforth, David pays a visit to an old friend of his youth, Feggoty, a fisherman living in an old boat fixed up as a house, on the sands at Yarmouth, on the east coast of England. Peg-gotty's household consists of his housekeeper, Mrs. Gummidge, widow of his partner who was drowned; Ham, a young fisherman whose father also met with the same disaster, and Little Emily, whose father was also drowned at sea. Ham at this time is betrothed to Emily, but Steerforth, a tall, handsome, debonair-minded young man, fascinates her, wins her love and induces her to run off with him. The news of Little Emily's flight is broken to Feggoty by Ham. The old fisherman is heartbroken and in a scene of dramatic fervour announces his intention of searching for her and bringing her back.

"HOLLYWOOD" SHOWS STARS IN MAKING
 Studio Methods and Life Finely Shown in Big Picture "Hollywood." How motion picture stars are made is definitely shown for the first time in pictures when Para-mount's "Hollywood," a James Cruze production, comes to the Allen Theatre starting Thursday.
 "Hollywood," by Frank Condon, tells of ambitious ones who go to the most famous city in the world—and what they see there.

Among their experiences is the signing of a contract with Cecil B.
 De Mille in the famous room which such stars as Gloria Swanson, Thomas Meighan, Bebe Daniels and Jack Holt entered as players to emerge as stars.

Cecil B. De Mille was formerly actor and a finished performance by him is assured. Needless to say this sequence will be watched by the hundreds of players Mr. De Mille has directed.

Photoplay patrons everywhere are going to be greatly interested in "Hollywood."

Imagine getting an intimate glimpse of behind the scenes at the big studios, seeing all the noted stars and directors at work, viewing the familiar scenes of the western film capital—the hotels, boulevards, studios, bungalows, bowl, etc.

That's what "Hollywood" brings to the screen and with it a very enjoyable tale of a middle western family which goes to Hollywood and gets entangled with the great industry that has made the community as famous as Paris itself.

This is no expose, no propaganda, but just a straightway tale of the sort that will appeal to all who love pictures and wish to know all about how folks get into them, how they are made and so on. There's a fine romantic strain, love interest in plenty and an abundance of comedy of the best quality.

Several faces unfamiliar to the screen public will appear in leading roles which add zest to the whole thing, but the "support" includes many screen notables of international fame.

Cecil B. De Mille, Pola Negri, Thomas Meighan, William S. Hart, Agnes Ayres, Jack Holt, Walter Hiers, Leatrice Joy, Jacqueline Logan, Nita Naldi, Betty Compton—to name only a few of the famous Hollywood player-folk seen on Hollywood Boulevard.

"The Heart Raider" Filled with thrills from start to finish, Agnes Ayres' new Paramount star picture, "The Heart Raider," will be on view at the Strand theatre for three days beginning tomorrow. Maillon Hamilton, a popular screen and stage player, is leading man and heads an excellent supporting cast.

The story deals with a headstrong young woman of wealth who has advanced ideas and rather too much independence. She boasts that she will cause a rich bachelor and woman hater to take her in his arms, and she has a difficult time in making good her boast. Before the bachelor realizes that she loves the girl, there is an exciting runaway, a thrilling pageant, a night swim to a yacht. Of course, all ends happily, but until the final climax, the fate of the heroine, played by Miss Ayres, is in doubt. The supporting cast is excellent.

Pola Negri in "The Cheat" will be shown for the last time tonight.

Killed in Auto Accident.
 Two Weeks After Wedding

Prescott, Sept. 5.—Charles B.
 Fraser, a member of the well known firm of Sherwell & Fraser, shoe dealers, of Ogdensburg, is dead as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident Monday evening, two miles north of Medina, N.Y. The other occupants of the car were Mr.
 Fraser's wife, formerly Miss Mary Robinson, Prescott; his mother, Mrs.
 J. H. Fraser, and George Sherwell, and his sister, Mrs. Nettie Hood. A sad feature in connection with the tragedy is the fact that it is just two weeks ago since Mr. and Mrs.
 Fraser were married at Prescott.

Judge's Son is Injured.
 Picton, Sept. 4.—Hamilton, the 14-year-old son of Judge E. H. Mc-Lean, met with a painful accident while duck shooting in Ha Ha Bay on Labor Day. By some unknown means the gun exploded, shooting three fingers from the left hand.
 Part of the charge lodged in the left thigh. He was taken to Napanee, where the wounds were dressed.

AN EX-CONVICT ASKS PERMISSION TO BEG

Says He Lost His Arm in Penitentiary—Visits Mayor's Office.

An applicant appeared at the office of the mayor on Wednesday and asked to be placed in a charitable institution or be given a license to beg. He gave his name as Arthur Cardinal and he has but one arm, the right one having been amputated at the shoulder. Mayor Angrove is in New York City and Dr. W. W. Sands, city clerk, heard Cardinal's story which is a thrilling one of daring, endurance and suffering.

"I received an injustice in dees town," said he in introducing his claims for assistance. "I lost my arm here and I get no compensation whatever." It was at the penitentiary where I was serving twenty years that I lost my arm working in the laundry in 1917 and they send me out with only $5 more than any other man is given. I was paroled in 1917 and that was the way I was treated. I want some assistance for there is little that I can work at."

"Where is your home?" asked Dr. Sands. "In Quebec," was the answer, "but it was here that I suffered and where I was treated with injustice and I am going to stay here until I am given fair treatment."

A clerk in the office of the city clerk telephoned to the House of Providence and Cardinal was notified that if he went there he would be taken care of while his case is being investigated.

Amendment by Canada Sidetracked.

Geneva, Sept. 5.—The Council of the League of Nations decided at the meeting yesterday that, as there was considerable divergence of views on Canada's proposed amendment to Article 10 of the Covenant, relating to the preservation of the territorial integrity of member States, it was not now in a position to make a recommendation to the Assembly.

Coal Relief Measures.
 New York, Sept. 5.—Governor Smith announced today that he would call a special session of the legislature to pass relief measures should suspension of the anthracite mining create an emergency in the state.

Wild Ducks Not Plentiful.

Sheriff Vair and H. M. Murray spent Tuesday afternoon at Collin's Lake duckshooting. They returned with a large bag of wild ducks which are none too plentiful this year as yet. The water is very low and this accounts for the ducks keeping out from the marshes.

Picton Town Hall Destroyed By Fire

Picton, Sept. 5.—Fire destroyed the town hall, central fire station and council chamber early yesterday morning. Mr. Shepherd, the market clerk, whose residence is also in the building, discovered the fire, the auditorium being filled with flames.
 The prompt action of the firemen saved the butter market, public weight scales, and other adjoining buildings.
