

NEWS AND VIEWS FOR WOMEN READERS

LIFE'S SOCIAL SIDE

Editor of Women's Page, Telephone 243. Private phone 827w.

Golden September sunshine greeted the tennis players at the Country Club on Tuesday afternoon when the finals in the tournament for the Leslie shield were played...

The Vancouver branch of the Canadian Women's Press Club has sent a most artistic and interesting book of welcome to the members of the C.W.P.C. who will attend the third triennial convention in Vancouver...

Batescourt School

Will re-open Sept. 16, 1926. Pupils received in all grades, including Primary and Collegiate classes. Entrance class, if desired...

RADIO advertisement for Michigan Radio Corp. Machine, featuring an image of a radio and text about its features and availability.

and B.C. Institute of Journalists, the Automobile Club, the Victoria C.W. I.C., the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Nichol, Government House, Victoria, the Capitol Theatre, the Harbor commission and the Board of Trade.

The marriage took place on Tuesday evening at half past eight o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Dorchester street west, Montreal...

Miss Sarah Lovell is visiting Mrs. H. A. Lovell, Barrie street, who asked a few of her old friends to meet her at the tea hour on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. H. Elmsley, King street, entertained at bridge on Tuesday when her guests included the members of the Tuesday Bridge Club.

Mrs. A. W. Winnett, Bagot street, on Thursday will entertain the Bridge Club of which she is a member.

Mrs. C. H. Hutchins, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nickle, Barrie street, for the summer, has left for Hamilton to visit her sister, Mrs. L. Noble Armstrong, before leaving for her home in Worcester, Mass.

Mrs. D. G. McPhail and Miss Katherine McPhail, King street, returned to the city on Monday from a happy vacation in Muskoka.

Miss Myrtle King has returned home after spending the past three weeks at Centre Island, Toronto, Brantford and Niagara Falls.

Mrs. N. B. Hamm, Bath, has been the hostess of visitors from the Pacific and Atlantic coasts.

Her guests were Mrs. Burleigh, Portland, Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Symons, New York City, who greatly enjoyed their visit on the shores of the Bay of Quinte.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanna, Rochester, N.Y., spent the week-end with the Misses O'Brien, Upper Union street.

Miss Edna Griffith, who has been in China, has returned to her home in Sydneyham.

Prof. and Mrs. Alexander and their children have arrived from England and are at "Denamere House."

Kenneth Bibby, Bert Winnett, Ross Anderson, Jack Campbell and Alex Miller are among the Kingston boys who will return to Trinity College School.

Mrs. F. A. Nye and two children, who have spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hartick, Division street, have returned to Detroit, taking with them Miss Florence Potter for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stephenson, Kings'ton, are visiting Mrs. George E. Board, Brockville.

Miss Carolyn Stockton, who taught folk dancing at the summer school of Queen's University, has been visiting in Montreal and Algonquin Park, but is expected back in Toronto this week.

Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. H. E. Pense, Princess street, were in Montreal for the Nicol-Bentley wedding.

Miss Jean Beatty, Pembroke, is in Ottawa for the May-Bishop wedding and is the guest of Miss Dorothy May.

While in Ottawa, Sir Campbell Stuart is the guest of Sir Robert and Lady Borden.

WOMAN'S INSTITUTE.

The Elgin Institute. The Elgin Women's Institute met in the town hall on Thursday, Sept. 6th, with an attendance of fifty-six.

This was a grandmothers' meeting and was a very interesting one. Invitations had been sent to all the grandmothers and great-grandmothers of the locality, and a goodly number was present.

A discussion of the finishing of the Women's Institute booth took place. It was decided to appoint a committee to visit the executive of the association. A report of the booth held on field day was read by Mrs. C. J. Fleming.

Also one on the sale of roses in aid of the Queen Mary Hospital, it being the purpose of the institute to hold a booth on school fair day, on Sept. 21st.

A committee was appointed to look after that. Money was also donated for prizes. The musical part of the programme consisted of two solos by Mrs. P. A. Smith and Mrs. H. S. Davison.

Which were much enjoyed. Miss McGuigan then read extracts from a book dealing with the early days of South Crosby, recalling names of early settlers and their history.

The roll-call was answered by some ancient event which called forth much mirth. The directors of the meeting had offered four prizes, one to be given to the oldest grandmother, one to the youngest grandmother, one to the number of grandchildren and one to the one with the largest number of great-grandchildren.

Mrs. P. A. Smith captured two prizes, Mrs. Charles Hamilton one and Mrs. S. De Wolfe one. There was a splendid exhibit of relics of pioneer days.

Miss McGuigan took the pictures of the grandmothers, also one of the members. The meeting was brought to a close by the singing of "God Save the King," after which a dainty luncheon was served.

The Editor Hears. That the musical programme at the Horticultural Exhibition on Tuesday evening was excellent, and the display of fruit, flowers and vegetables a credit to Kingston.

That women's exhibits are jending at this year's fall fairs. "The Farm Kitchen" was one of the big attractions at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto, and the Woman's Institute of Frontenac promises to have one of the most attractive sections of the main building at the Kingston Industrial Exhibition.

That Stephen Leacock says in his latest book: "Let it be noted that marriage, which used to be a sacrament, became presently a contract, and is now a problem."

That a modern writer says: "What woman who possessed a ring conferring invisibility on its wearer, would dare put it on and move about among her friends..."

That short fur coats are very smart this season, so we can get out our old ones and have them made over and still be in the height of the fashion.

That the famous ranch of Jack London, located in Mexico, is managed by a woman—Mrs. Eliza Shepard, who has sole control in the management of the ranch and the hundreds of men employed there.

$5.00 no.525 This is the New Duplex Self-Reducing Corset on special display in our Corset Department during all this week. Have you seen it? Nemo WEEK SEPT. 10th to 15th STEACY'S LIMITED Sold in Kingston exclusively by Made by Kops Bros. Ltd., Toronto 23 ing and knitting. The red ticket is of course a source of delight, but all the articles shown were really excellent and the owners took a pardonable pride in their work.

One of the interesting events of the afternoon was the parade of the schools in the district with their banners, and at least five hundred interested people watched this pretty sight.

Forest S. S. 1, won first prize, Sydneyham, No. 3, second, Wilbur, S. S. 6 third and Rosedale S. S. 5 fourth prize. The national anthem was sung heartily by the scholars and then Mr. Strrett complimented them on the fine showing and reminded those exhibiting at the Kingston fair about being in time, so that the tent should be ready for the first day.

Live stock was exhibited and one hen was so anxious to show what she could do that she laid an egg on the spot. Races and a baseball match between Sydneyham and Picton were among the events of the afternoon.

The Sydneyham branch of the Woman's Institute served a delicious hot luncheon on the grounds and during the afternoon ice cream and soft drinks were sold.

WRIGHT-HOPKIRK NUPTIALS. Solemnized in St. Andrew's Church at Noon Wednesday.

On Wednesday at 12.30 o'clock the marriage was solemnized in St. Andrew's church of Helen Marjorie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ewart Hopkirk, and William McKay Wright, Windsor, son of the late Orange Wright and Mrs. Wright. Renfrew. The officiating clergyman was Rev. J. W. Stephen. The bride wore a smart suit of brown velvet and a brown velvet hat, fawn shoes and a corsage bouquet of sweetheart roses.

As she entered on the arm of her father, Miss Shaw played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, and Mendelssohn's grand wedding music rang forth at the conclusion of the ceremony. Grooms and asters were artistically arranged by the girl friends of the bride among whom her helping hand in all church activities will be much missed. The wedding was a very quiet one, the only out-of-town guest being Annelie Wright, Renfrew, the brother of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Wright left immediately for their wedding trip. They will make their home in Windsor.

Hawley-May Wedding. A charming wedding ceremony took place quietly at half-past eleven o'clock on Tuesday, when Miss Gladys Ethel May, B.A., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. May, Ottawa, was married to James Edwin Hawley, M. A., Kingston, recently returned from India. The ceremony was solemnized at St. George's church, Ottawa. Rev. Archdeacon J. M. Snowden, the rector, officiating. George Newington presided at the organ, playing most impressive wedding numbers, and during the signing of the register, Miss Marjorie Henderson sang, "Yesterday and Today."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was unattended. She wore a smartly modelled costume of bronze colored broadcloth, with a French model hat of the same tone, and trimmed with a peacock mount. A platinum fox fur was worn, and the bride's corsage bouquet was composed of sunset rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. May, mother of the bride, was dressed in black velvet with a black velvet hat, and she wore American Beauty rosebuds.

Mrs. Stuart L. Burns, Hawkesbury, sister of the groom, was wearing a brown patterned tulle coat with hat of brown. Mr. Burns was also present for the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawley have left on a wedding trip, and will take up residence at Madison, Wis.

A blow with a word strikes deeper than a blow with a sword.

Bon Ami advertisement for cleaning mirrors and glass. Includes an illustration of a woman cleaning a mirror and text describing the product's benefits and availability.

Advertisement for Nemo Week Sept. 10th to 15th, featuring a corset and the Nemo brand logo.

Advertisement for Borden's Eagle Brand Condensed Milk, featuring an image of a milk can and text about its quality and availability.

Advertisement for Wilson's Fly Pads, featuring an image of a fly pad and text about its effectiveness in killing germs.

Advertisement for Lockett's shoes, featuring an image of a shoe and text about new fall styles and prices.

Advertisement for Smith's Grocery, featuring text about various products and services available.

Advertisement for Lindsay's Sonora Phonograph, featuring an image of a phonograph and text about its features and price.