

The British Whig Pictorial Page

An aerial ambulance with ample accommodation for two patients recumbent and two sitting, besides a medical officer and the pilot, has been perfected by the U.S. army air service.

A member of one of Kent's most distinguished families, Miss Muriel Collard of Canterbury, England, believes she is helping the general game along by conducting a chain of night coffee stalls in English university towns.

Chick Evans was selected as a model for the figure surmounting the sun-dial in Jackson Park, Chicago, which is supposed to typify "the true spirit of golf."

"Patsy" is no ordinary coon. He arrived in Toronto the other day with his globe-trotting master, Tex Tressler, who avers that the two were hiking companions all the way from New Mexico to Canada.

Terrified by the ever-approaching bay of the hounds, the buck breaks cover and makes a wild dash across the open toward a denser part of the New Forest in Hants county, England.

These dark-eyed twins are looking for a hole in the law of Georgia that will allow them both to marry the same man. They are Ruby and Ruth Webb, aged 21, of Marietta, Ga. The object of their love lives in New York and keeps up a faithful correspondence with each.

This healthy and handsome specimen of Canadian babyhood is Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle J. Freeborn of Chapleau, Ont. He won first prize in a recent Ontario baby show.

The lord mayor of Ulster bids good-bye to Major Ney, M.C., leader of a party of 160 Canadian teachers who have been making a rapid tour of the old country this summer.

The stately, fortified island of Corfu has been seized from Greece by the Italians, and is being held by them pending a settlement of the present mix-up in the Balkans.

A premature glimpse of what milady will be wearing in coats this winter. The one pictured is made of duvetyn, trimmed with seal. Note the blouse effect and the richly embroidered, loose style sleeves.

Gordon Vennels is a western athlete who is more at home in the water than on land. He holds the Saskatchewan championship for the 100-yard dash, was captain of the U.T.C. water polo team for 1923, and is captain of the U.T.C. swimming team for 1924.

Ismet Pasha is conversing with the wife of Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the man nearest the camera, on the triumphant return of the Turkish plenipotentiaries to Angora following their success at Lausanne.

Canada's first shipment of foodstuffs for the relief of stricken Japan was loaded in the holds of the Empress of Russia at Vancouver two days after the first word of the disaster reached this side of the water. The flour pictured was contributed by the B.C. division of the Canadian Red Cross.

Seventy miles an hour, with forty persons on board, is what this extraordinary-looking motor boat is reputed to be capable of. It was one of the unusual displays at the recent Olympia engineering exhibition in England.