he is witty: a woman who reflects, without distorting, his opinions. My own idea of an ideal woman is a woman broad-minded enough to see many different points of view without losing sight of her own, a woman who can distinguish between events and incidents, a woman who has the courage to strike out a line of her own, who has the courage of her convictions, a woman with sympathy.

Women rely on their personal appearance to-day more than on their quality of mind. This is largely the fault of man. Woman is so adaptable that she is very much the product of her country and her environment. She is always what a man wants her to be.

Men of to-day make woman insincere. They look always to the exterior and not to the interior. If a capable business woman wants to carry out a serious transaction with a man, she has much more chance of getting what she wants if she wears a Paris hat and has a well-powdered nose.

I am not sure that the ideal woman, from everybody's point of view, should not be complementary to man. You must have a head, and logically in a partnership between a man and woman the head, is the man, the wage-earner. There are 90 things a man does better and 10 things a woman does better."

It is one of the most fallacious of practices to attempt to economize by wearing old shoes about the house, unless they possess all their buttons, have straight heels and soles, and are daily brushed and aired, as are their newer fellows.

By mixing plaster of Paris with the white of an egg to the consistency of cream, it may be applied to broken china just as you apply any prepared cement.

It's difficult to settle a case in court while the litigants have any money.

TO-MORROW'S HOROSCOPE

BY GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26.

The sidereal operations for this day are not to be read as entirely of a friendly nature. Although new projects or propositions may be taken under consideration, it may be hazardous to risk money or go security on financial obligations. It may not be safe to lend money, as Jupiter is in an unfriendly position to all money operations. The health should receive more than usual attention, and it may be well to be on guard against deceit.

Those whose birthday it is should give close attention to business and be cautious in the lending of money or going security. They should beware treachery and should be careful of the health. A child born on this day should receive firm training in perseverance and grit, as it may encounter difficulties in the carrying of its career. It will succeed in business.

Is Skirt Returning?

It is said that the split skirt is coming back. Dress reformers are having spasms about it. They say that no sooner had they rid the world of the evil of the short skirt than the peace of men and the morals of the race are threatened with side slashes running above the knee. And stockings are either shorter or rolled down, and the whole situation is worse than it was before the war. The preamble about having rid us of the short skirt is a rather immodest admission—we were not aware that they had. The short skirt is still here. If anything could rid us of it, or perhaps we should say deprive us of it, it would be the fact that it is no longer conspicuous. We had grown so accustomed to it that it attracted no further attention and provoked no masculine comment, and so its main value tended to disappear. In this condition of staid custom, it is, of course one of the most modest garments ever worn. Except on the beaches it is the ne plus ultra of woman's dress. What is there left to do? Once the world had accepted that, it became almost impossible to do anything immodest. Perhaps that is the reason the split skirt is coming back. And after that, what.

When the outer skins of onions are brittle and break off in small pieces, making them hard to peel, let them stand a few minutes in warm water. This will make peeling easy.

A LADY SAID—

Why does MacKey's Better Bread retain its moisture longer than ordinary bread? BECAUSE—

The modern system of STEAM PROOFING our Bread before and after placing the bread in the ovens, brings about a better loaf, not obtainable by the ordinary system of baking. The moisture content is retained in the loaf instead of being extracted by the dry hot heat.
