Small Dwellings Set at Angle to the Street to Give More Light and Air and Greater Security against Insects: Heat and Electricity are Supplied from a Central Plant

More Light and Air for Small Homes

Some of the disadvantages of small dwellings built in groups for the sake of economy have been overcome in Germany by placing the houses at an angle to the street to provide more light and air for each dwelling.

each of the houses has a little garden, secure against the prying curiosity of neighbors and equally protected against intruders in the front and rear.

Million Wasps Are Freed To War on Crop Pests

One million wasps, the size of pin-heads, have been imported by the government and are now distributed in the East to destroy the corn borer.

Women Inventors Are Busy on Industrial Problems

To learn just what part women were taking in inventions, government officials recently undertook a survey that showed over 5,000 patents had been granted to women in 10 years, more than the total for 105 years previous.

Novel Method of Taking Time Exposures with Hand Camera

Tripods are more or less of an annoyance to the camera enthusiast, and few use them. However, it is sometimes necessary to make a time exposure to get the desired picture, but the camera cannot be held steadily enough with the hands to avoid doubling the image.

Another method of steadying the camera is to cut a length of tape into three pieces, and to tie or sew these pieces together at the central point as shown, making a form of the letter Y.

The RANGE that cooks with STORED HEAT McClary's Electric Range

McCLARY'S Electric Range saves current by accumulating heat in the oven and cooking top.

Warm up the oven to good baking heat—turn the current "off"—and you may continue to use the oven for hours. A perfect "fireless cooker" because of "stored heat".

"TOR-RED" Protected Elements retain heat, too. You do most of your boiling and frying on "low".

Consult McClary's Electrical Dealer and consider the saving of these two great features.
