FIND "PHONEY" GUN USED BY LEO ROGERS

Hunters Come Across Rogers' Ooat and Boots Hidden in the Bush.

North Bay, Oct. 19.-William Hogan and Oscar Parks made an important discovery yesterday while out shooting partridges. Reaching a heavily wooded portion of the bush near the C.N.R. line, four miles east of the Bay, they stumbled on a blue serge coat, neatly folded, and a pair of brown boots on top of the coat. On searching the coat pockets, the "phoney" gun used by the late Leo Rogers, bandit, in his sensational getaway from the court house was found.

Paris, Oct. 19 .- A new disease that has completely baffled physicians, has appeared in the region of en from that institution during the Lille, says a despatch to L'Oeuvre. After an extensive research the Pasteur Institute has identified the germ as the amoeba of dysentery. It is supposed to have been imported with the Chinese laborers from Annam, who are being employed in after signing an undertaking to keep the reconstruction of the devastated regions, as the disease is known only in the tropics. It is caused by a microscopic but tough parasite in the intestine. Physicians hope that colder weather will discourage the germs, for the death rate from the disease is 25 per cent.

TO URGE THE PEOPLE TO OBEY "DRY" LAW

U.S. President to Treat Enforcement From Common Sense Viewpoint.

Washington, Oct. 19 .- President Coolidge, when he meets the governors of the states in conference on Saturday, is going to make an earnest appeal for enforcement of the prohibition act.

The president is not unduly con cerned about the proposal made by the citizens' conference here this week that enforcement of the law must be laid at the door of White House, Governor Pinchot's insistence that the president must enlature. The speaker discussed in force the law does not worry him either from a governmental or political standpoint.

It is the president's view that the Volstead act must be concurrently enforced by agencies of the federal and the state governments. All but three of the states subscribed to the constitutional amendment and enforcement of the law is a concurrent business.

GIVES WARNING

Auto Speeding Must Cease or the Offenders Will Be Jailed.

Hon. G. S. Henry, minister of Scattered German dead are also highways for Ontario, addressed the County council attended to hear what the new minister had to say about roads, A. M. Rankin, M.P.P., and members of the Kingston Automobile Association were present. Mr. Henry was introduced by J. M. Farrell, K.C., who presided in the absence of T. J. Rigney, who is conducting the Murrell murder case at London, Ont. In opening his address, Mr. Henry stated that he took part in the opening of the Collin's Bay diversion and he was pleased see such a fine work. He was informed by Mr. Rankin that the C. N.R. paid fifteen per cent. of the cost, the railway board paid twentyfive per cent., and the provincial government sixty per cent. He wondered what percentage Frontenac county was paying, or the city of Kingston, for that matter. "Where does the responsibility of Frontenac county come in?" said he.

Word to Auto-Privers.

Referring to highway improvement, the speaker informed audience that no person could legally drive an automobile from Kingston to Toronto in five and one-half hours on the highway. "The laws regarding speed limits have been changed. The new legislation. will not come into operation until next year. I would remind you that the law puts a man in jail who is apprehended, but the man who runs away will not escape. He will also be put into jail. We are driving at an excessive rate of speed today, and we will have to slow up as a people, generally, or we will get into difficulty. The speed of motors is only indicative of the speed we are going at in a general sense." "I said to my son, 'I hope it snows ten feet deep this winter so that your car cannot run and we can once more get back to habits of living.' It is in a general way that we are needing something slong that line. We need a cut in good many lines of expenditure. I think the people said so last June. It is my important duty to improve highways and cut down expenditure. and, consequently, it will not be as large this year as in the past few years. But improvements are not going to stop still, and no government would attempt to cut down or retard development. There is nothing in the mind of anybody to stop highway improvement.

Review of Highways. "I want to be fair to the late government. At the end of this year we will have completed a system in this province taking care of all traffic demands in congested centres. It will not be long until you have macadam roads from Kingston to the Province of Quebec. From Oshawa to this city there will be either a cement or asphall pavement. There are two highways from Toronto to Hamilton of asphalt and concrete, thence to Niagara Falls, west to Paris, Ingersoll, London and St. Thomas; and high type roads leading out of Windsor. These will enable anyone to drive at any time
