GREAT FOOTBALL IS EXPECTED TO-MORROW

Queen's and Cadets Will Fight son. Out Second Battle for Junior Grouping.

There should certainly be a football match worth seeing at the Richardson Stadium tomorrow afternoon when Queen's III. and R.M.C. II. meet for the second time to fight it out for the honors in the local junior Intercollegiate group.

The Tricolor juniors took the first game 10 to 1 but they had to move fast to do it and five of their points were scored within the last few minutes, on a touch which resulted from the snappy and sensational work of the diminutive Bonfield. Tomorrow the junior cadets will be out in earnest to take down that lead-and when R.M.C. goes after a thing, then it is some job to stop them. Both teams are looking forward to victory and it would be good man who could forecast the outcome.

Queen's, naturally, with the lead of nine points on the round, figure that they have a very good chance to take the honors. That junior squad worked well in its first game and had the intermediates shown some of its class they might have gone farther.

It will be a real battle from whistle to whistle.

The senior squad had a light workout last night but nothing more than running and a little booting of the ball to loosen up was allowed. None of the boys suffered severe injuries in Toronto. Bill Muirhead received an accidental kick but will be over it in a day or so and beyond some bruises the rest are all right. John McKelvey suffered the worst battering of the crowd but | was far from "done up" at any stage of the game, as the opposing team could well testify. Coach Hughes is giving the most of his time at present to the junior team.

ZEV AND MY OWN

MAY GO TO ENGLAND The developments came fast in the wake of the big international race from Benjamin Irish's English Derby bout. winner, Papyrus, at the Belmont track on Saturday. The chief occurences in the racing world were as follows: Mr. Sinclair stated at dinner given to Trainer Jarvis, and Payprus' coterie of handlers at the Hotel Biltmore, that he would use his best efforts to send Zev to Eng- ranged a month ago, and after much land to race in 1924.

Rear-Admiral Cary T. Grayson, owner of My Own, the substitute for er four hours' leave from the jail. Mr. Sinclair's horse in the international race, stated in a tolegram to Mr. Jarvis that he hoped to send My Own to race in the Ascot Gold Cup event in England next year.

Mr. Sinclair stated that his horse was ready to meet My Own or any horse at any time or place.

Corbett battled Jackson himself. They fought over four hours without reaching a decision. The bout was finally stopped and called no

"I started to box with Jackson early in the fight," Corbett tells, "and he went right along, landing just as often as I did. I figured he would tire. At about the 15th round he was puffing. I thought I had him. I stepped in and started to slug with him. Billy Delaney was in my corner. 'Don't slug with him, Jim, He'll kill you," shricked Delaney.

"I took his advice. It probably saved me from being flattened. I went back to boxing and held my own. I never met another fighter like Jackson. He was just as good 'a boxer as a slugger, and great at both. That's why I hold him up as the ideal fighting type."

HEILMAN SAYS HE IS

AFTER HITS NOT HOMERS. ed why he didn't go after a large total of home runs. Suggesting the matter to Hellmann a friend said: When you go to bat take a full swing at the first one and maybe the second one. If you hit the ball you are certain to get a home run." To this Heilmann replied: "There is only one man in baseball who is payed for hitting home runs. What good would it do me unless I could hit 60 in one year, which I could not. If I took a full swing at the first good one or at the second, I would kill my batting form, throw myself out of stride and then I could not hit at all. There is only one thing for me to do, and that is to get hits. That is the best policy. Too many of the boys are trying to get home

Chanticlere for Sale.

At Halifax, N.S., the one-time Am merican racing yacht Chanticlere, has fallen upon evil days and an order for her sale was given in Admiralty Court to meet a claim against her for $9,000 wages for her crew. It is all the result of the renowned Chanticlere travelling incognito under the name of Mary O'Connor, and frequenting "rum row" for a space

The Chanticlerc was built in 1903 and after attaining fame as a recer, was converted into a cruiser yacht.

Ten Winners In Twelve Mounts. Jockey Ivan Parke established what is thought to be an American If not a world's record when he won the fifth race at Latonia on Oct 17th. The victory made his 10th in 12 starts and horseman at the track said they never heard of another jockey in the world equalling the same feat. Parke finished third with is other mounts on Oct. 16th.

FROM THE OUTSIDE-LOOKING IN.

It is surprising to find that a publication with the reputation of the Toronto Mail and Empire should "sling mud" at so fine an athlete as John McKelvey. By his coolness and refusal to be hurried unnecessarily the great "Red" led a team to the Dominion Championship last year and the remarks in the Mail about him showed a mighty smail spirit.

Referee Bob Isbister yill appear here in the next two senior intercollegiate games. Until the Kingston crowds have looked him over we withhold judgment. Perhaps he may redeem himself.

Many of the fans at Toronto on Saturday were much surprised to see "Chicks" Mundell doubled up with laughter on the ground. It was almost necessary to send for Billie Hughes. What was the joke? Ask Isbister; he knows.

Our old friend "Daig" Shaw came to town yesterday and he did not seem to think that Ottawa got a fair shake in their 2-1 game with Tigors. Bill says "Pluck-head" Harding dropped as fair a field goal as could be asked and that it was not allowed, and that Connell galloped for a long ran to a try which was not counted either. He is of the opinion that Argos will have to be good to trim Ottawa next Saturday.

"Smutter" Veale was back in his old place at outside for Tigers in the game Saturday. He filled in at flying wing for a while but shows to Harry Heilmann was recently ask- much better advantage in his accustomed position.

> The Hamilton Herald thinks the open style of rugby makes for more injuries. Yet Queen's have won two games this year without having a man very badly hurt. Another score for Trainer Billie Hughes and the Queen's squad as a whole.

> "Chicks" Mundell has a great respect for Alec Campbell, the Varsity outside wing, and says he played a great game. Bruce King was the best line performer for the Blue and White from the sideline view o it, and had Capt. Westman greatly overshadowed.

BREAKS POLE VAULTING RECORD

Irving Francis, of Hamilton, now a student at the University of Toronto, who broke the Canadian pole vaulting record at the intercollegiate athletic meet at the University stadium, Toronto, on Friday, October 19th. His record was 12 feet 7 inches, the previous record being 12 feet 5 inches in 1908, by Ed. Archibald, in a former Olympic trial. This also breaks the intercollegiate record. He will now represent Canada at the 1924 Olympic. The picture shows him making the record jump.

YANKEES AS WELL AS GIANTS ARE TO REBUILD

New York Clubs Find Holes To Be Plugged In Their Baseball Machines.

Not only will the New York Giants, fallen world's champions, go through a rebuilding process before they are ready to scale title heights again, but the Yankees, their successors to baseball's crown, also may boister a few weak links in their vicson gets under way.

It developed to-day that Everett Scott, veteran shortstop of the Yankees, who holds the all-time record for consecutive games played, is considering voluntary retirement, although Miller Huggins, manager of the new champions, has no desire himself to part with the game's greatest "Iron man."

Scott, however, has an attractive business enterprise in view, which, if accepted, would mean his passing, after having piled up the remarkable record of participating in 1,138 consecutive games, a record he started in 1916 with the Boston Red Sox, and which nearly doubles the best previous major league mark.

Scott may find the call of the game too strong to resist when spring comes around, but in the event he drops out, his shoes may be filled by Joe Boley, "$100,000 beauty," of the Baitimore Orioles, who has been eagerly sought by number of major league clubs for several seasons. The purchase Boley has never been officially announced by the Yankees or Jack Dunn, manager of the Baltimore International League champions, but it is understood the world's champions have first claim on him.

Huggins is also understood to be anxious to obtain a right-handed hitting outfielder, either to alternate with or replace Whitey Witt in cenlast game of the series, when Joe series of 1903. manner me
