AN INFANTRY SCHOOL TO BE OPENED HERE

It Will Begin on Nov. 1st With Officers From Outside Points.

An Infantry — odaroadd
A provisional school of Infantry will be opened for M.D. No. 3 in the Armouries, on Nov. 1st, for the qualifying of N.C.Os. and officers. It is understood that an officer from M.D. No. 1 has been detailed as officer in charge of the school, with Sergt.-Major Patterson, W.O., R.C. R., as instructor. The courses will include N.C.Os., lieutenants, captains, and F.Os. and will last six weeks.

The bugle band of the P.W.O.R. is being reorganized, and will practise throughout the winter two nights each week, one night for drummers and another night for buglers. The adjutant, Major W. J. McManus, has charge of the reorganization, also of instruction. Applicants will see the advertisement in another column.

It is the intention of the commanding officers and officers to have the organization fully equipped and brought to a state of efficiency which will do credit to the regiment and to the city.

AT THE ROTARY CLUB.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst to Give Address Friday Night.

Much interest is being taken in the address to be given by the members of the Kingston Rotary Club, at a dinner in the British-American Hotel on Friday night. Mrs. Pankhurst will deal with the question of "Social Welfare," and the occasion is to be marked as "Ladies' Night," when the Rotary Aunts will be present. Mrs. Pankhurst will deal with her subject with the woman's viewpoint on social hygiene. Mrs. Pankhurst will have an important message and the club is looking forward to a most enjoyable evening.

The club is making special arrangements for the musical programme. An orchestra from Queen's University will provide music, while in addition there will be other musical numbers.

Souvenir Programme.

On Friday evening and Saturday morning a splendidly edited and illustrated souvenir programme of Saturday's rugby game, between McGill and Queen's, will be on sale at the following: McGill's Cigar Store, College Inn Cigar Store, Jack Elder's Cigar Store, Princess Pharmacy, cor. Princess and Division Sts.; Harris' Drug Store, cor. University avenue and Johnson St.; the Whig Office, and in the University Grounds. It is considered the best programme published for a rugby event, and students and citizens are urged to secure copies. Price 10c.

Police Court Brevities.

An assault case, in which a man was accused of assaulting his stepson, was booked for hearing before Magistrate Farrell, in the police court on Thursday morning, but when the case was called it was announced that the charge had been withdrawn. A drunk was fined $10 and costs.
