ALD. CHARLES S. ANGLIN CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR

Well-Known Merchant Announces Himself—He is a Citizens' Candidate.

ALD. CHARLES ANGLIN

Ald. Charles S. Anglin is the first to announce himself as a candidate for the mayoralty. Ald. Anglin enters the field as a non-political citizens' candidate. He voted against politics in the city council at the inaugural meeting in January last, believing with the Whig that politics should be kept out of municipal affairs. Ald. Anglin has served three years in the council in general. He is a member of the well-known S. Anglin & Company, coal and lumber merchants, and has resided in Kingston all his life. Ald. Anglin is prominent in church and Y.M.C.A. circles and is a member of the Rotary Club.

DROVE CAR WHILE DRUNK; GOT SEVEN DAYS IN JAIL

Two Young Men and Young Woman in Auto—Held Up by Police.

In police court Monday morning, a young man pleaded guilty to a charge of driving an auto while in an intoxicated condition, and was given seven days in jail, by Magistrate Farrell. On the charge of being intoxicated, he was remanded for a day, as he told the magistrate that he could not remember where he had secured his liquor. Another man who was charged with being intoxicated, stated that he had been with the former, but he could not say where he had secured his liquor, and was remanded a day. A young woman, who says she hails from Wyoming, also admitted being intoxicated. She was with the young men in an auto on Princess street, at 11 o'clock on Sunday night. She said she got her liquor from her male companions, and was fined $10 and costs.

Police Constable Timmerman held up the car as the driver, he said, was intoxicated and the members of the party were taken to the police station and the charges were laid.

Rotary Club Donated $50 To Help Dr. Grenfell's Work

At the close of the Rotary club dinner in the Y. M. C. A. on Friday night, the club presented Dr. Wilfrid T. Grenfell with $50 to help in the good work he is doing along the Labrador coast. The presentation was made by the president, Loman A. Guild, who stated that it was a pleasure for the club to give to such a worthy cause, and wished Dr. Grenfell continued success in his great undertaking. Dr. Grenfell, who is an honorary member of the Hull, Eng., Rotary Club, expressed his sincere thanks to the members of the Rotary Club for their donation and wished the local club success in all its undertakings.

THE PROVIDENCE BAZAAR

Opened in the City Buildings—The Kiwanis Club Had Dinner There.

The House of Providence bazaar opened in the city hall Monday and the Kiwanis club attended in a body at noon. All of the members took dinner in the Memorial Hall and it was a splendid one. The menu left nothing to be desired, and the service, carried out under the direction of Mrs. W. C. McDonald, convener of the refreshment committee, was perfect. In addition to the Kiwanis Club many business men from all parts of the city went there for dinner, and they purpose patronizing the bazaar at noon each day during the remainder of the week.

In Ontario Hall, where the booths are set up the Sisters of Charity and the ladies of the various church organizations and committees are engaged in carrying out a scheme of decoration that is strikingly artistic and captivating. The booths are open all day and every evening. They are: Ice cream, in charge of Mrs. E. Roberts; soft drinks and cigars, Mrs. J. Martin; fishpond, Mrs. Carleton; pharmacy, Mrs. J. Kane; candy table (Children of Mary) Mrs. Kane, Miss Walsh; baby booth, Mrs. Ambrose Shea, Mrs. R. Milan; novelty, Mrs. Mangan, Miss Halpin; children's ware, Orphan's Guild, Miss Shaw; apron table, Mrs. R. Harpell; art, Miss M. Brophy; fancy work, Miss Agnes Walsh, country store, Mrs. A. Carey, refreshments, Mrs. W. C. McDonald; the dolls, Mrs. Hubert Ryan.

CANON J. W. JONES MEETS WITH ACCIDENT

Thrown From His Bicycle in Avoiding Collision—Breaks Bone in Wrist.

Canon J. W. Jones, clerical secretary of the Ontario diocese, had a narrow escape from what might have been a more serious accident when he was knocked off his bicycle at the corner of Brock and Bagot streets Monday morning and rendered unconscious. He was proceeding down Brock street and in avoiding a collision with two automobiles that were passing at the intersection of the streets, he ran into the sidewalk, or was pushed to the sidewalk by a car. He fell, landing on his head, and a passer-by picked him up and carried him into Guess's livery stable where he was revived. His bicycle was smashed.

Canon Jones was shaken up severely, besides being cut on the mouth and suffering a fracture of a small bone in the left wrist. He went to his office when he recovered sufficiently to walk.

Late Mrs. Mary Somerville. The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Somerville took place from her late residence, 474 Albert street, to Cataraqui cemetery at 2 p.m. on Saturday under the direction of James Reid, undertaker. Rev. J. K. Curtis officiated. The pall bearers were: W. H. Chalmers, Thomas Marshall, F. Somerville, R. Somerville, R. Smith, S. Watson.

Died in Belfast. A cablegram from Belfast, Ireland, announces the death of Sir Edward Coey, high sheriff of Belfast. His demise was quite sudden. He was an uncle of Mrs. Ross Livingston, Johnson street.

Dr. C. C. Nash and P. Y. Gedye have returned from their annual hunting trip in Muskoka, each bringing a fine large deer home.
