

The British Whig Pictorial Page

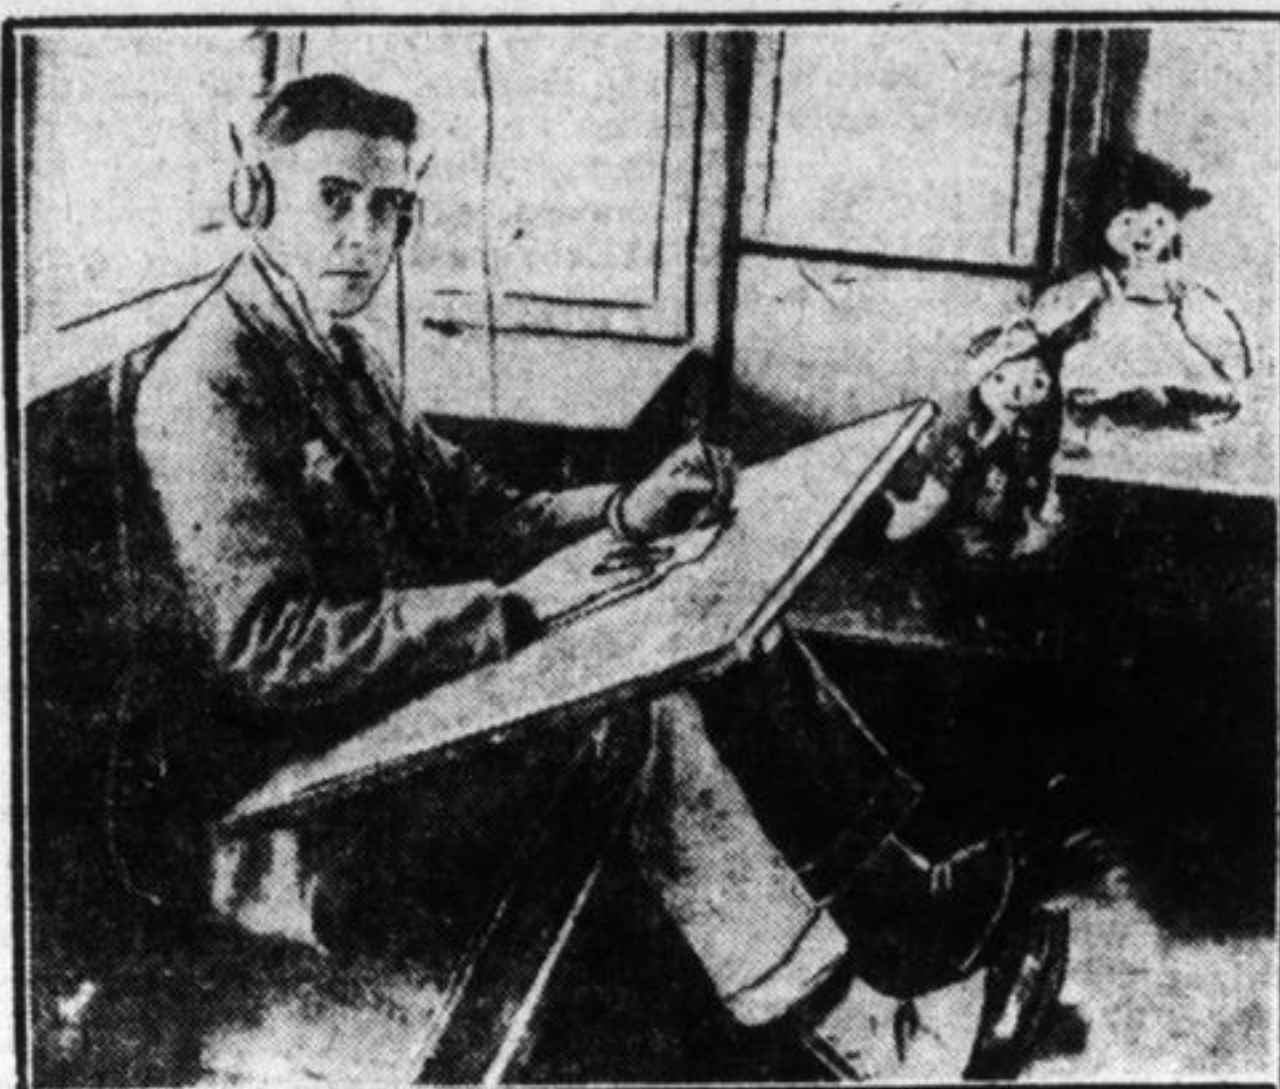

Senorita Mayendia, a popular favorite of the stage in Madrid, has been declared Spain's most beautiful girl by a committee of Spanish artists

Canada may yet boast of a "Divine Antoinette" as France did of a "Divine Sarah." Antoinette Giroux, la petite Canadienne of the stage, has been awarded a scholarship by the provincial government of Quebec which entitles her to three years dramatic study in Paris

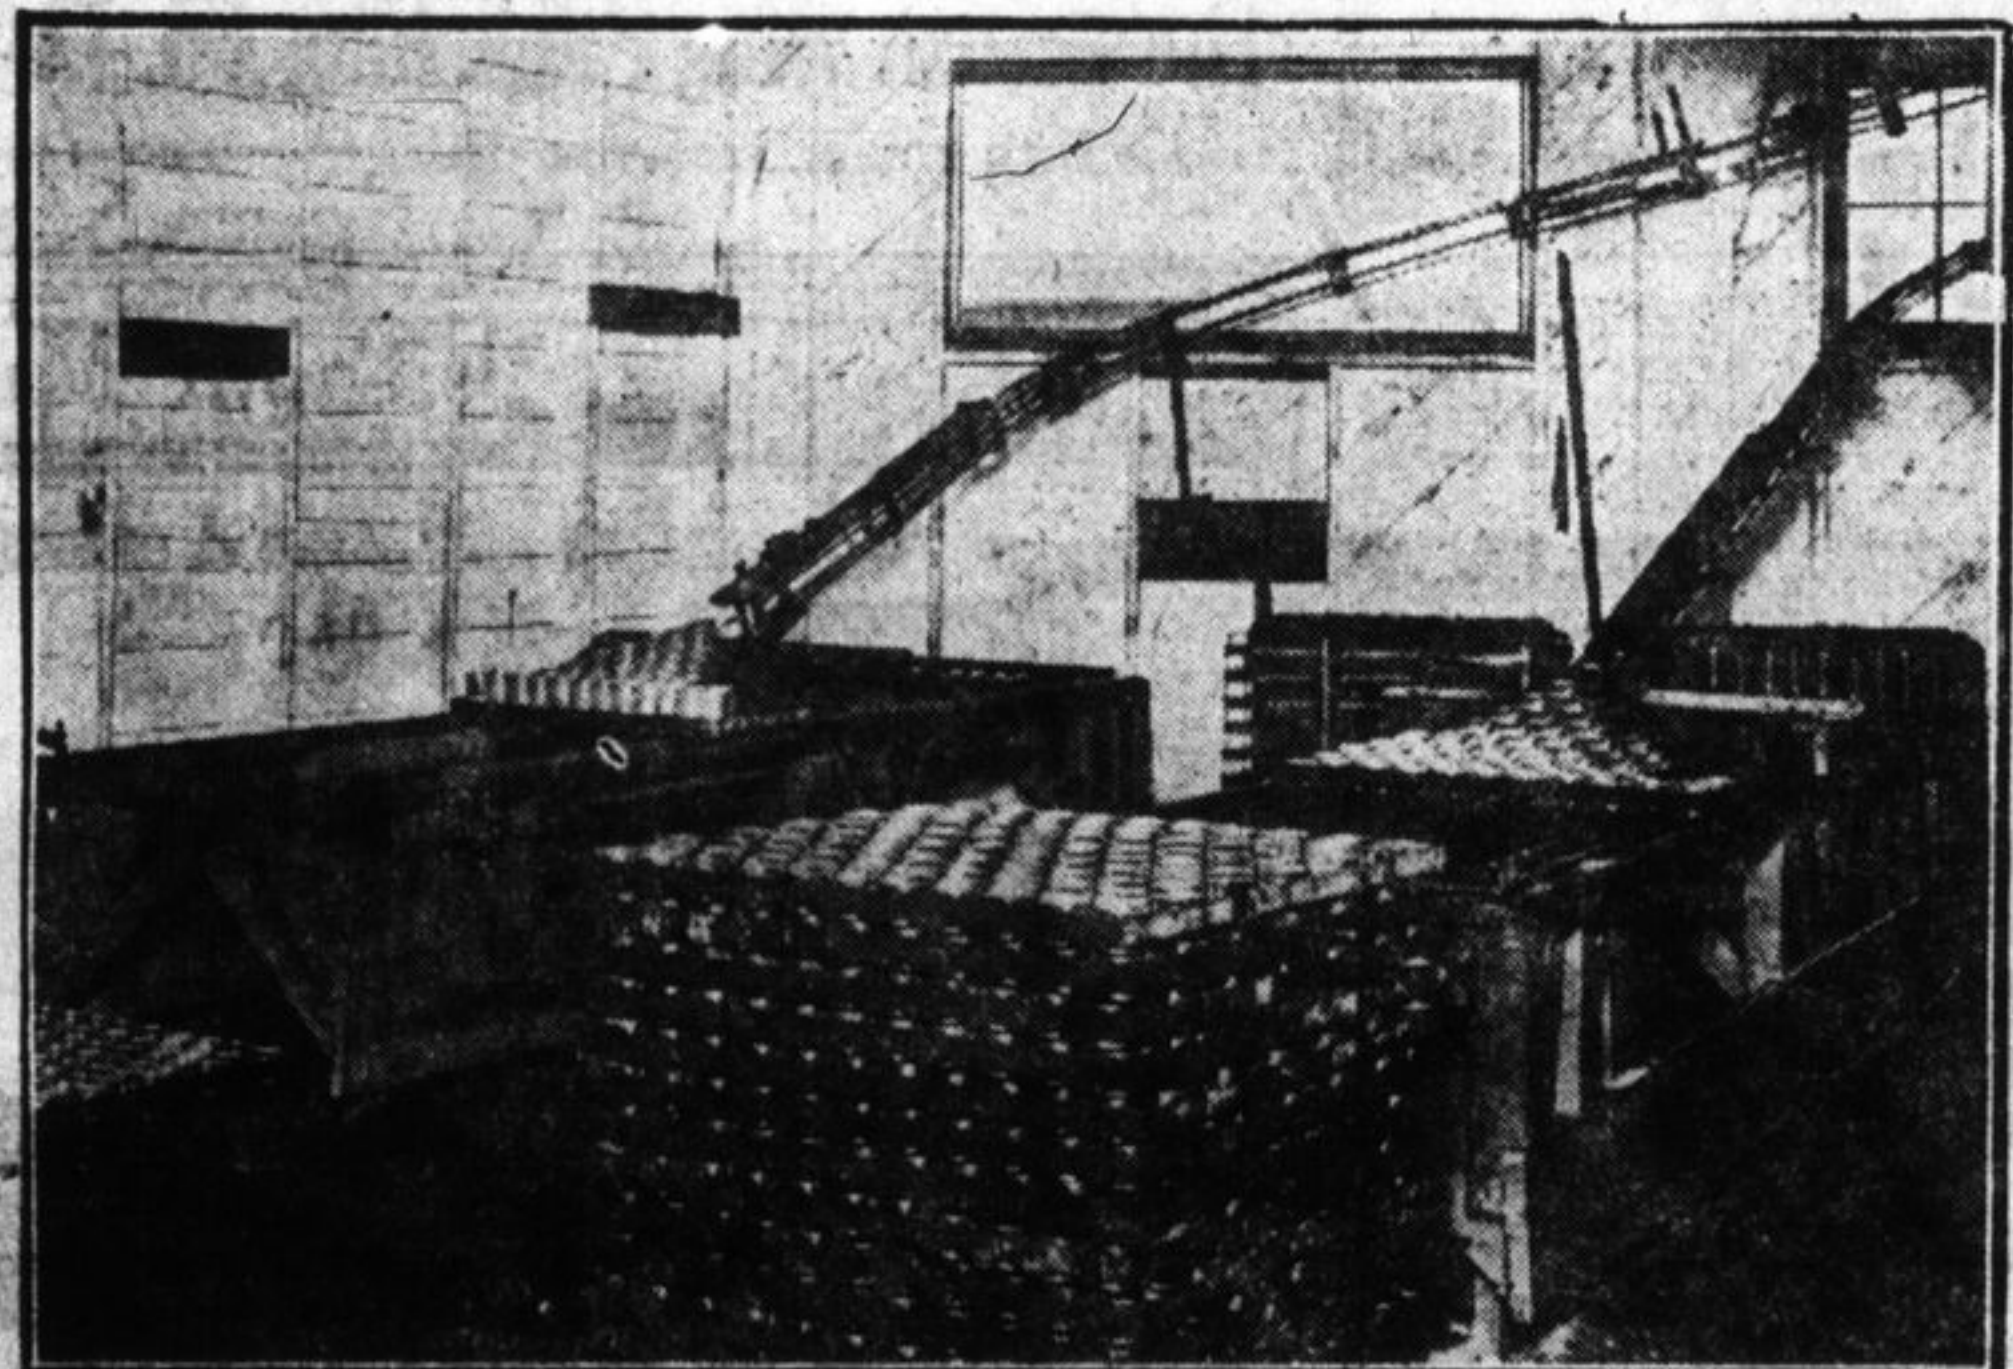

During the meet at Newmarket, England, recently, the field in the All-Aged Plate is shown half-way through the race with the winner, Sternlight, holding a good lead

Johnny B. Gruelle, humorist and cartoonist, installed a radio set in his car when he traveled across the continent by train, and thus received news of the world as well as concerts from broadcasting stations

Odette Myrtil, violinist, arrived in New York from Paris recently with no other clothes than those on her back—her trunks were left behind. There is tragedy in this, but Odette doesn't seem to mind

It was a boon to British Columbia to have its salmon recently placed on the proposed preferred list by the Imperial Economic Conference. Tins of the fish are shown on their way to be cooked at a cannery

After spending their honeymoon in America, the Earl of Northesk and his bride, Jessica Brown, Winter Garden girl, have sailed recently for England, where they will make their home on the earl's estate

Two young ladies created a sensation at Wimbledon Park links, London, when they appeared garbed in the new "plus fours" skirt, which is easily changed into golfing knickers by the adjustment of four buttons

These are some of the precautionary measures used by the Republican police of Berlin to prevent any possible attack by Hitler and his Bavarian "Putsch". Sentries are seen searching civilians on the outskirts of the city

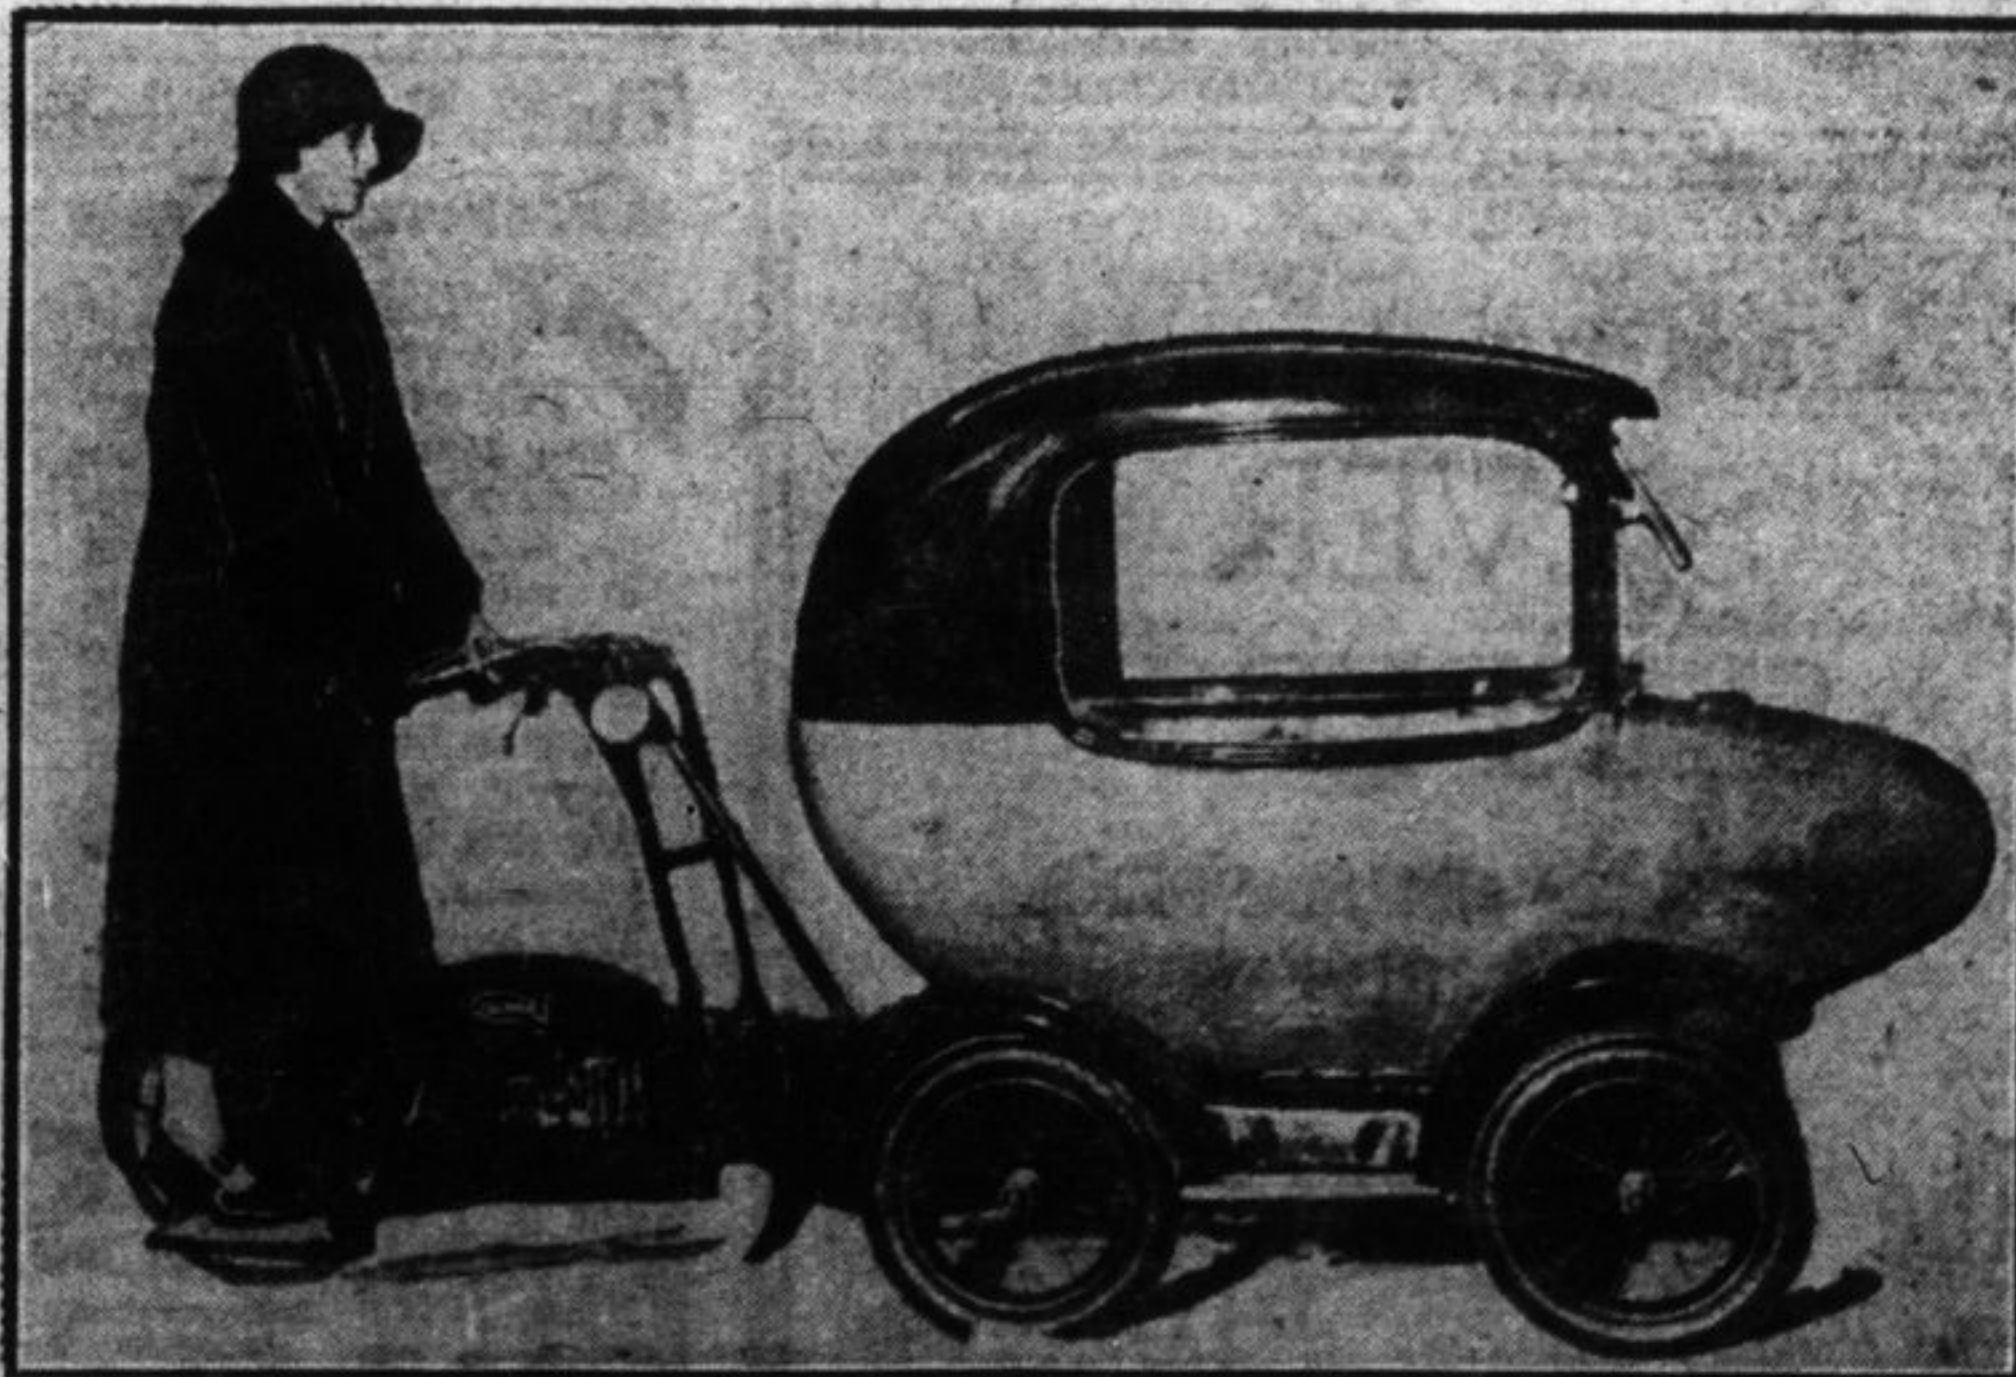

John S. Kedowsky, who claims to be the Metropolitan Archbishop of North America for the Russian Greek Catholic Church, has started dispossess proceedings against Metropolitan Platon Rojdesvsky, of New York

"Good morning, Judge," is the way Miss Mary B. Grossman will be greeted after January 1. She has been elected by a sweeping majority to preside over Cleveland's municipal court for a period of six years

When the above group of girls from the British Isles arrived at Montreal to take up domestic work, applicants wanting "help" literally lined the streets with their cars, anxious to rush them away to their new positions. There were hundreds of positions, but only fifty girls to fill them

When this novel motor pram comes into use for baby, mothers will not find it hard to get young brother to operate the carriage for an afternoon wheeling. This new infant's limousine was on exhibition at a motor show in England