EX-ALD. D. J. MILLAN PASSES AWAY SUDDENLY

Veteran Kingston Merchant Stricken With Heart Trouble While in His Shop.

Death came with terrible suddenness late on Thursday afternoon to one of Kingston's best-known merchants, in the person of Ex-Ald. Dennis J. Millan, grocer and butcher at his shop, corner of Princess and Ontario streets. Mr. Millan was standing near the cash register when stricken with an attack of heart trouble, and death was almost instantaneous. Death took place shortly before 5 o'clock. About 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. Millan complained about pains in his chest to his son, Norman, with whom he was working in the shop, but attributed it to an attack of indigestion. Deceased was sixty-three years of age.

News of the death of Mr. Millan came as a severe shock to his friends, and they were legion, for deceased was widely known and held in very warm esteem by all his acquaintances. In his passing, the city loses a good citizen, and many were the tributes paid to the deceased by citizens in all walks of life.

The late Mr. Millan was born in Kingston, and had lived here all his life. He was engaged in business here for upwards of forty years. He owned the shop he occupied at Princess and Ontario streets for the past twenty-two years, and previous to that was located a block farther down Ontario street. The building occupied by Mr. Millan was regarded as one of the oldest in the city. It was built of blocks hewed out with an axe, and is a reminder of the pioneer days of the city. Mr. Millan catered to the marine trade, and he was known to marine men all over the great lakes. To the marine men his place of business was known as "Millan's Corners," and it was visited by mariners daily for their supplies. "Dinny," as he was known to all his intimate friends, had a personal acquaintance with all the men who sailed the rivers and the lakes. He was a warm friend to all, and his death will be mourned by men who sail the seas. Possessed of a kind and genial disposition, he made many friends. To know him was to love him for his many fine qualities of heart and mind. He was ever ready to lend a helping hand to all in trouble.

Deceased for many years took an active part in civic affairs, and served as an alderman for Cataract and Sydenham wards for a number of years. He was a great lover of sports of all kinds, and in his early days was a celebrated ball player and played on the old Kingston league teams of forty years ago that brought great honor to the city. These teams will be recalled by old residents of the city. He very seldom missed a local baseball or hockey match and was the father of four sons of hockey fame. In politics, he was a staunch Liberal. Mr. Millan was a member of St. Mary's cathedral, and was also a member of the Knights of Columbus. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Misses May and Katherine, four sons, Leo and Norman, engaged in the business with him, Dr. Eby Millan and Jack, also one brother, Cornelius Millan, Toronto, and three sisters, Mrs. Hunt, Earl street, Miss Mary Millan, nurse, Rochester, N.Y., Mrs. Irwin, also of Rochester. The family residence is at 50 Earl street.

THE COUNTY HAS DEFICIT

 Councillor Graham had been inclined to make a little light of the matter.

Councillor Graham—"Oh no, I did not, Mr. Warden."
 Warden Sibbitt—"Well it is hardly my place to answer a question like the one you put."

Councillor Hamilton then proceeded to show that the finance report presented last June was a good report when brought in and had been concurred in item by item right through. Then when the rate was to be struck, some members of council opposed a levy of twelve mills, which was required to raise the amounts they had passed upon. The council struck the rate at eleven mills, which, according to the revised budget statement showed that there would be an estimated deficit of $5,873.11. The law required that municipal councils should levy a sufficient rate to provide for the current expenditure. The council, he declared, had failed to do this.

"A report was spread over the county about the folly of two councillors trying to strike a rate of twelve mills when eleven was sufficient, and being turned down. Now we see that a twelve-mill rate was needed," said the speaker.

GANANOQUE

Nov. 23.—Douglas dePencier is in town with plans of the proposed Royal St. Lawrence hotel to be erected at McNinch's Beach. The foundation is to be started at once when twenty-five men will be put to work, and contract calls for completion of foundation within sixty days. Mr. dePencier, who has just returned from New York, speaks most encouragingly of the prospects of this new hotelery. Among those who took stock in this proposition was William D. Sargent, who is a high official in one of the large steel corporations on the other side. Mr. Sargent is well and favorably known in Gananoque and vicinity, being one of our millionaire summer residents and having a beautiful summer home on Juniper Island near Gananoque. It is particularly gratifying to the directors to be able to include a gentleman of his high business acumen and social connection on the advisory board, as undoubtedly through such channels a large and desirable patronage will come from the American side.

Mrs. J. B. Mooney, Mrs. John Phillips, Misses Maynie Brennan and R. Calow were among those who motored to Kingston yesterday and had dinner at the bazaar.

Miss Mary Jeroy of the Hotel Dieu staff spent a few hours at her home here yesterday.

The entertainment on Wednesday evening in the lecture room of St. Andrew's church under the auspices of the local I.O.D.E. was a most successful affair. Mr. Gustav of the National Institute for the Blind who lectured was a most interesting speaker and the entertainment throughout was very much enjoyed. A silver collection realized a goodly sum for the above institution. Mrs. L. R. Stedman and Prof. Thomas contributed to the musical part of the programme.

The Y.P.A. of the Anglican church held their usual weekly meeting on Wednesday evening and decided to hold a box social next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. William Edwards, Mrs. Charles Donegan and Mrs. L. R. Stedman motored to Kingston yesterday.

Despite the unfavorable weather there was a large attendance at the euchre in the Lyceum Wednesday evening. The winners of the prizes are as follows: 1st ladies', Mrs. John Dorey; 2nd ladies', Mrs. Herbert McDonald; 1st gentlemen's, Mr. Frank McIntyre; 2nd gentleman's, Joe Jeroy.

Miss Molly Smith visited friends in Kingston yesterday.

Dies Very Suddenly.
 Alarmed at the absence of her husband, Mrs. John MacDonald, Smith's Falls, went in search of him a few days ago to find him dead at the foot of a ladder at his home on the outskirts of the town. He had evidently been seized with heart failure while ascending or coming down the ladder. MacDonald was seventy-three years old and a former section master on the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Scene from "The Wasp," at the Grand Opera House Monday and Tuesday evenings only.

To Arbitrate Case.
 An Indian woman living at Grimby for one year paid a visit to the Reservation in Tyendinaga and took back to her western Ontario home her three-year-old Indian child. The youngster had been left a year ago with relatives on the reserve and it was felt by them that there should be some compensation in the way of paying certain expenses. She interviewed the provincial police here and they with her visited the Tyendinaga farm where the child was. The affair was arranged between the parties.
