Whipped cream will always be heavy enough to stand alone if you cut up five or six marshmallows in small pieces and add these to one-half pint of cream, then stand the heavy cream on ice or in some very cold place for three hours, before whipping it.—Mrs. L.D.

RECIPES FROM READERS. Generous Reader Friends have contributed these fine recipes for other readers to enjoy:

"Lemon Pudding: Put on fire, to boil, one cup of boiling water, juice of one lemon and one-half cup of sugar well mixed together. When it is boiling, stir into it a paste consisting of corn-starch, one-half cup more of sugar, a pinch of salt and just enough water to moisten well. Remove the mixture from the range when it becomes thick enough to coat a spoon and beat it, while still hot, into the stiffly-whipped whites of two eggs. Let cool and serve with a simple boiled custard sauce.—Mrs. F."

"Macaroni Salad: Mix together three-quarters of a cup of sugar, one teaspoon of mustard, one teaspoon of salt, one tablespoon of flour, one well-beaten egg and one cup of vinegar; cook this mixture till thick, then add to it a piece of butter the size of an egg. In the meantime, cook macaroni in salted water till done, then rinse it in cold water; add to the macaroni at once either one small teaspoon of celery, or a small quantity of celery-stalk cut into bits, three small chopped raw onions, three chopped pimientos. Mix well, then add the salad dressing while still warm. Let stand a few hours before serving. Just before putting it on the table, add to it one cup of heavy cream which you have whipped stiff. This is a delicious salad. Here is another good recipe: "Green Tomato Mincemeat: (Your readers can use this next Fall if it is too late to do so this year.) One peck of green tomatoes chopped fine. Four boiling water through them three times (to wash all the

TO-DAY'S FASHION By Vera Winston.

Corn-Colored Chiffon Blends with Gold Lace to Give This Gown Its Loveliness.

The evening season is marked by sumptuous fabrics. Metal laces are among the smartest and many of the most effective evening gowns combine metal lace and chiffon.

Corn-colored chiffon is used for the model above. It makes a charming dinner or dance frock, with its gathered skirt which shows a deep border treatment of gold lace.

The lace shows a leaf design, and the leaves are silhouetted against the chiffon where the lace joins the TIRED, NERVOUS MOTHERS are the direct cause of much unhappiness in our homes; their condition irritates and wears upon the husband and often ruins a child's disposition. This condition of the mother is often due to some weakness which makes her entirely unfit to perform her household duties and bear the strain upon her nerves that governing children involves. Every woman who finds herself in this condition should remember that statistics prove that 98 out of every 100 women who suffer from female ills are helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and lose no time in giving it a fair trial.

TO-MORROW'S HOROSCOPE BY GENEVIEVE KEMMEL

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 24. The planetary operations for this day point to difficulties and disturbances. There may be delays and disappointment and the health may be a matter for concern, since Saturn is in adverse place with regard to Luna. The luna square to Uranus warns against the advisability of change, removal or travel until more auspicious conditions prevail. Under the unfriendly position of Mars, the danger of quarrels and litigation is emphasized.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year of annoyance and disappointment. They should postpone change and journeys and should attend to the health as well as shun quarrels and litigation. There may be some interesting developments in affairs of the heart. A child born on this day is likely to indulge in much travel and may be restless unless it is carefully trained.

Berlin Doubts Cop's Tears In Jackie Coogan's Picture

Berlin, Nov. 23.—The weeping policeman in Jackie Coogan's film, "My Boy," is too much for German imagination. The German film fans know that a German policeman couldn't weep and are very skeptical about the ability of an American "cop" to shed tears. They even doubt whether one of the brass-buttoned bluecoats across the Atlantic could be moved to tears by Jackie Coogan's many film trials and tribulations.

If the policemen in America are as tender-hearted as the big fellow who weeps when he is forced to arrest Jackie Coogan for law-breaking, one of the Berlin newspapers says it must be a fine place for criminals.

Cornering Chicago Egg Market.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Charging Chicago egg dealers with an attempt to corner the egg market and force the price to a dollar a dozen, Joseph Ruskiewicz, secretary of the Council high cost committee, has ordered an official investigation.

"More than 1,200,000 cases of eggs are in storage here," he said, "and the city uses only about 10,000 cases a day. Eggs being sold at 30 cents a dozen now were put in storage last spring at 20 to 25 cents."

Corralled the Players. At Alexandria Bay, N.Y., two drate wives raided an alleged poker game and corralled the players. Though doors were locked they got in. They held the players who were forced to sit at the table and listen to a good lecture from the women who stated that they intend to lay their evidence before the police.

WOMAN SHOTS HUSBAND.

Claims Pre-Nuptial Agreement To Be So Made. Chicago, Nov. 23.—A pre-nuptial agreement that if either left the other, the offending party should be punished by death, was revealed yesterday by Mrs. Mary Bulavaki, 30 years old, who shot and probably fatally wounded her husband, Simon, last night in their home, 1613 West Huron street.

"We agreed," the woman told police, "that if either left the other after we married, death would be the punishment. Simon came home and began upbraiding me for things I did not do. Then he said he was going to leave me. I went to my room and got the pistol and shot him. It was what we agreed before we were married." Bulavaki was shot twice over the heart and in the neck. He is in a critical condition. Mrs. Bulavaki is said by the police to have been married five times, although she denies it. She is the mother of two children, one four and the other two years old.

She Needs a Spanking. Rutland, Vt., Nov. 22.—When Miss Isabelle Meuse, Worcester, Mass., pleaded guilty in Federal District Court to transporting 168 quarts of liquor into the State, Judge Harland B. Howe told her she would be "better off with a spanking." The judge fined the girl $5.

Author's Son is Choos. Edmonton, Nov. 23.—Announcement was made here that the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire scholarship for Alberta has been awarded to John Wesley McClung, son of Mrs. Nelly McClung, authoress of this city. The foundation of justice is good faith.

BLACKHEADS Blackheads go quickly by a simple method that just dissolves them. Get two ounces of peroxide powder from your druggist, rub this with a hot wet cloth briskly over the blackheads—and you will wonder where they have gone.
