AMUSEMENTS
 What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

Tonight "The Dumbells," "Cheerio" is the aptly descriptive title of Captain Plunkett's latest "Dumbells" overseas revue, which opens a limited engagement at the Grand Opera House tonight for three nights with a matinee on Saturday. "Cheerio" is an even better entertainment than was "Carry On." All of the favorites of the latter show are still included in the cast, while several new artists have been added to the personnel of the company, the most notable of whom being the famous comedian of the second division, or "See Too's," namely John Hagan. Mr. Hagan was a well-known professional before the war, having appeared here with several New York companies. He was engaged by the George Edwards Company immediately after the war was over, and for the past four years he has been the featured comedian of the Daly's and Lyric Theatres productions. His phenomenal success as Suttain in "The Lady of the Rose" (called "The Lady in Ermine" in New York), is known to many Canadians who keep in touch with the English stage through the various stage and illustrated publications. His most recent and probably most pronounced success was in the big revue, "Whirled into Happiness," which was produced by the George Edwards Company at the Lyric Theatre. Mr. Hagan was starred in this revue, and was acclaimed the pier of the younger generation of comedians. One his most amusing skits, "The Disorderly Room," has been obtained for "Cheerio" and will be a feature of the new show. Al Plunkett has a budget of new songs which are destined to prove the most popular musical hits of the coming season. He doesn't sing anything about mother this time, but he has a "Granny" song that is going to get you. "Oh Gee, Oh Gosh, Oh Golly" promises to make you laugh while he smiles. Ross Hamilton makes his first appearance as "Marjorie" from a cute little bungalow, and tells you all about it. Another of his wonderful characterizations is the Canadian "Beauty in 'The Life of a Rose.'" Stan Bennett has a couple of new "Vere de Vere" songs and plays an important part in the various sketches. Pat Rafferty has been, cast to advantage, while T. J. Lilly and the other comedians, including the black face team of Ben Allen and Jack Grace, have a wealth of new material. Captain Plunkett and his Overseas Orchestra are a feature.

"Just Married" Coming
 The New York farce comedy success, "Just Married" has been secured by Manager Branigan for Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 3rd and 4th at the Grand Opera House through an arrangement with Jules Hurler, the celebrated theatrical manager who has given the American stage many clean plays. "Just Married" is now on a tour around the world, after completing long and successful runs in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston. The play is the work of Adelaide Matthews and Anne Nichols, authors of "Scrambled Wives," "Nightie Night," and "Abie's Irish Rose." The action of "Just Married" covers seven days, the time required for a French liner to raft from Bordeaux to New York. There are many couples aboard, including two young people, who are celebrating their honeymoon and who are desperately trying to keep it a secret. The cast will include George Snyder, Wallace Ray, Will Chase, George Paige, Yates Price, John Kelly, Robert Barclay, Walter Baker, Fred Atkins, Joseph Atwood, Ruth Thomas, Constance Cameron, Therese Quadri, Lillian Paige, Jane May and Marie Ainsworth. Clifford Stark staged the entire production.

"SUZANNA," STARRING MABEL NORMAND, A COMEDY DRAMA.
 Treating in a semi-serious way the adventures, the loves and romances of the hardy pioneers who first peopled southern California, the aristocratic old Dons of Castilian lineage, "Suzanna," now showing at the Allen Theatre, is a comedy drama, typical of a Mack Sennett production.

With the climax centred in a beautiful old fashioned chapel, an exact replica of one of the old Mission chapels, the plot is developed through the introduction of a torador, as the male vamp who continually schemes to win the affections of the beautiful senorita, then casts her off when he learns that a little peon girl who has been brought up as the daughter of one of the servants is the rightful heir of the wealthy Spanish family. Through almost tragic knavery on the part of this servant, who steals the daughter of a wealthy Spanish Don, replacing it with his own daughter, the two children grow to young womanhood ignorant of the transition, until the conscience-stricken parent divulges his secret. Mabel Normand plays the role of the girl who had been robbed of her rights, but who finally rises majestically to a position rightfully hers. Winifred Bryson is the other girl. Walter McGrill is the handsome, dashing hero with whom Mabel is in love. George Nichols, as usual, is cast as the stern parent, while Eric Mayne is the father whose baby was taken and replaced by another. Carl Stockdale was the servant whose trickery made the story possible. Romantic comedy, which savors of the real thing, adds

GETTING LAUGHS
 This scene in "Just Married" has been declared to be one of the most laughable seen on the stage in years. Coming to the Grand Monday and Tuesday nights, Dec. 3rd and 4th.

variety to the picture and the love element is not lacking. A feature of the production is the realistic atmosphere and the costuming which will please and entertain.

ALLEN THEATRE.
 The Queen's Dramatic Club To Appear There.
 Friday night, Nov. 30th, Queen's Dramatic Club, will present Anatole France's delightful comedy, "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife."
 The play deals with the troubles of a judge whose wife is dumb and consequently cannot help her husband socially. An operation by a famous surgeon restores her speech and then the fun begins.

Charles A. Gates is producing the play with a most capable cast of Queen's students. Reserve your seats early as the advance sale will be large.
 Prices, 50c-75c-$1, tax included. Starts on sale Wednesday, Nov. 28th, at the Allen. This is a play, not a motion picture.

"LITTLE JOHNNY JONES"
 AT STRAND TO-MORROW.
 The turf, its fascinating intrigues, the thousand and one desperate strategies of gamblers and turfmen to win by hook or crook, form part of the plot of the exceptional picture, "Little Johnny Jones," which opens at the Strand Theatre today. This is the most entertaining of cinema entertainments seen in a blue moon. The reason lies in the fine story itself, but particularly in the comedy acting of Johnny Hines, who, in the starring role, carries off honors by brilliant work, making the wholesome, peppy story even popper in its screen clothes. This young comedian has been dubbed the George M. Cohan of screendom. Those who witness his superb performance know why. His work is enjoyable, easily eclipsing other comedy entertainers.

DAME CLARA BUTT
 COMING FRIDAY NEXT.
 In deference to insistent public demand Dame Clara Butt, the famous English contralto, accompanied by her husband, Kennerley Rumford, the popular English baritone, are making a concert tour of Canada, this fall, that will extend from Halifax to Victoria and return. Assisting the famous contralto and her husband are W. H. Squire, the distinguished English 'cellist and composer, and Ivor Newton, the well-known pianist.

The tour will begin in Halifax and will extend over three months. In that time forty-five appearances in thirty-five cities will be made. The tour is the most extensive that has ever been attempted in the Dominion and is the direct result of the spectacular success that attended the tour of this celebrated contralto two years ago. On that occasion, Dame Clara, through the rare beauty of her voice, the charm of her personality and the conviction of her interpretive facility established herself in high popular favor throughout the Dominion and it is due to the artistic success of the former tour that the many admirers of this great contralto insisted upon her return.

The trip will include many cities throughout Canada in which it was impossible for the celebrated contralto to appear on previous occasions. In many instances two appearances have been scheduled. This is the case in Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton, Vancouver, Halifax and St. John.

Dame Clara Butt's Kingston appearance will be in Grant Hall, Friday, Dec. 7th.

At Queen's University
 The buildings of Queen's present quite a placarded appearance today, the Alma Mater elections being on this coming week. This afternoon the candidates will speak in Grant Hall to the student body, explaining their platforms, which the students hear once but never again.

The intercollegiate debate between Queen's and McGill girls is expected to be held on Friday.

Seeking Re-Election.
 John E. Johnston is seeking re-election as an alderman in Ontario ward. During his term of office he has given much attention to the needs of his ward, and also to questions of general interest, and his many friends look for him to be returned to council.

Declines Rectorship.
 Rev. A. W. Cooke, rector of St. Mark's, Barriefield, has been offered and has declined the rectorship at Merrickville and Burrett's Rapids.

TAKES OVER PASTORATE AT FIRST OF NEW YEAR

Rev. Frank Sanders, New Minister of Calvary Church, Has Splendid Record.

The Guelph Mercury has the following regarding Rev. Frank Sanders, pastor of the Congregational church at Guelph, who has accepted a call to Calvary Congregational church, Kingston:

"Rev. Mr. Sanders began his work in this city on the first Sunday in August, 1919, after a term of work under the Y.M.C.A. with headquarters at Ottawa. The reverend gentleman had previously held successful pastorates at Burford and Middleville, Ont.

"Since coming to Guelph, Mr. Sanders has made a host of friends, who will regret his decision and miss his cheery smile and encouraging word. He has thrown himself unstintingly into the upbuilding of his own church, and also into all forms of Christian activity, especially among young people. Having specialized in young people's work, he was ready to lend a helping hand, and his genial face and cheerily told message is well known to the young people of most of the sister churches. A clear and capable speaker, his sincere and practical messages ever carried earnestness and conviction to his hearers. Under his pastoral leadership, the church he served so well has gone forward in every department of its work. Mr. Sanders' worth and ability have also received recognition from his brethren in the ministry, and he has successfully filled the position of Sec.-Treasurer and President of the Guelph Ministerial Association. During the past year he has been President of the Association, which office he still holds, and stands high in the esteem of all his fellow.

"From the larger denominational viewpoint, the Guelph pastor has been a busy man, having been key-man for the Guelph-Stratford District; President of the Western Ontario Congregational Association, and is at present the Home Missionary Representative on the General Home Missionary Committee.

"The Calvary Congregational Church, Kingston to which Mr. Sanders has been called, has recently lost its pastor, Rev. A. F. Brown, by death, and Mr. Sanders has been recommended by denominational officials for the position. In Mr. Sanders' going, Guelph loses an all round man and worthy citizen, and our loss will be a distinct gain to the Limestone City. Mr. Sanders expects to begin his duties in Kingston on the first Sunday in January, and his many friends will wish him every success in his new field of labor. The Congregational Church here will meet on Wednesday next, to take action upon the resignation of the pastor."

Lives in the Ward.
 R. Baldwin, who is seeking election as a school trustee in Frontenac ward, is a resident of that ward, and for some time has taken an active interest in the matter of education. He is a member of the Frontenac Home and School Club, and has taken a prominent part in all matters of interest to the schools. For nine years he was manager of the Home for the Aged, but is now living retired, and has ample time to serve the city on the Board of Education.

Seeking Re-Election.
 Ald. Howard Kelly is seeking re-election in Frontenac ward. He has given strict attention to city business. He has been looking after the needs of his ward, and has a wide circle of friends who hope to see him re-elected as representative of that ward.

"Jack" Elder will take part in the musical programme at the commencement exercises of the Morrisburg Collegiate Institute on Dec. 14th.

Vesper Services.
 Mrs. R. O. Joffe, of this city, gave a most impressive address last Sunday afternoon at Odessa Methodist church to a large audience. Misses Woodman, Shaw, Saunders and Pollard rendered a first class musical programme. On the Sunday previous Rev. G. A. Sisco, Cataraqui, spoke eloquently at Wilton on "The Home and Nation" and Wilton ladies gave the musical programme. The Vesper services will be resumed at these churches next spring.

DR. A. S. LAMB, B.P.E.
 Director of the Department of Physical Education of McGill University, who is to be one of the staff in charge of the preparation of Canadian athletes for the Olympic contests in France next summer.
