THE LATE J. ACKERMAN.

His Death Came From Injuries From Colt's Kick.

Picton Times. There passed away very suddenly from injuries received from colt kicking him, at his home Elmbrooke on Nov. 2nd, James Ackerman, in his seventy-third years. Mr. Ackerman was a son of James Ackerman and Rhoda VanCleaf, and grandson of Edward Ackerman, who being loyal to the crown, came to Canada after the revolution and settled in South Marysburgh. His par ents died when he was very young | HOUND-Lost, black and tan; last seen and he lived with his cousin, the late Samuel Gardiner at Bethel until eighteen years of age. He was the last surviving member of a family of eleven children. Mr. Ackerman was a resident of Elmbrooke for forty-five years, and was a successful farmer and breeder of Percheron horses, and for several years one of the government judges at fairs.

In religion he was a Methodist, and was converted at the first Crossley and Hunter meeting held in Picton, Mr. Ackerman was twice married. His first wife, who died seven years ago, was Genevieve Bradley, and five years ago he married Mrs. William Noxon of Picton with his six children, one son and five daughters, Mrs. Manly Rorabeck of Bethel, William of Elmbrooke, Mrs. Claude Kotchapaw of Bethesda, Mrs. Otho Flake, High Shore, and Misses Annie and Nellie at home, are left to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate husband and father.

The funeral, which took place from the family residence on Monday, Nov. 5th, was conducted by his pastor and an old friend of the family, Rev. J. J. Mellor, Picton, assisted by Rev. R. Richard, Northport, was very largely attended, many relatives and friends coming from a distance, and these, with the beautiful floral offerings, showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The remains were laid to rest in Glenwood.

Porch Lights Stolen. During Sunday night two porch lights were stolen from houses on Frontenac street, between Brock and Johnson streets. The residents who suffered the loss are up in arms over the matter, and threaten to been made of late about petty thefts office at Long Branch, N.J. around the city.

Well-Known Cattle Drover. George J. Joyce, who has been elected as an alderman in Frontenac ward, is a well-known cattledrover. He was born and raised in Kingston and has lived in this city all his life. He is a young man, industrious and progressive, and will, no doubt, be able to render the city able service in council. He was the recipient of congratulations on all ides over his election.

E. Morrison, Alexandria Bay, N.Y., is dead, aged forty-live year. He was ill but a few days. He owned a billiard parlor. Deceased was the son of Thomas and Jane Kerr Morrison and was born in Brockville in 1878. He never married.

Gas Ignited and Started Blaze. On Tuesday afternoon the fire department answered a call to the home of William Moore, 458 Johnson street, where a fire had started in a bed room. There was a slight leek in the gas pipe and as Mrs. Moore entered the room with a lighted lamp there was immediate ignition. She was slightly burned about the face and arms. The mattress on the bed caught fire but the blaze was soon put out.
