IN THE POLICE COURT.

Two Cases on the Docket Further Enlarged on Thursday.

The case of George Pratt, charged with "wrongfully converting money to his own use," was further enlarged till Monday, in the police court on Thursday morning. T. J. Rigney, K.C., is conducting the prosecution and asked for the adjournment in order to give Eugene Denece, the plaintiff, time to secure more evidence. Mr. Denece claims that Pratt sold a large quantity of potatoes for him, and that he did not make the proper returns.

Pratt told the magistrate that he could give an account of all his collections and that he was prepared to do so. C. M. Smith appeared as his counsel.

A further enlargement for a week was made in the case of Cecil and Herbert Johnston, who are charged with the theft of an overcoat and a suit of clothes.

The overcoat was found in a local second hand store, but the suit of clothes has not been located as yet. The magistrate asked that the accused put up $25 to pay for the suit, but the money has not been paid into court as yet.
