Urge Action to Offset Anti-Allen Land Laws in U. S.

Tokio, Dec. 7.—Aroused by the return from the United States of large numbers of Japanese immigrants various public organizations and vernacular newspapers of the Empire are urging the Foreign Office to take some action which will offset the effect of the decisions of the United States Supreme Court, sustaining anti-alien land laws of California and Washington.

Thus far, beyond sending instructions for the guidance of Ambassador Hanfura at Washington, the contents of which have not been disclosed, the Government has taken no action.

Church Union Meeting. Prof. J. F. McFadden, of Queen's University, who acted as secretary for the church union meeting, on Wednesday night, was in a great sense responsible for the success of the gathering. Rev. J. K. Curtis, pastor of Princess street Methodist church, assisted in the service.
