BRITISH TORY DEFEAT THOROUGHLY DESERVED

is the New York Press Opinion -Premier Baldwin Oriticized.

New York, Dec. 8 .- Terming the verdict of the British people in the general elections as a thoroughly deserved defeat for the Conservatives, the World scores Premier Baldwin for its foreign and domestic policies.

The Tory party in Britain has received the beating is so thoroughly deserved," says the World. "It's foreign policy a failure, its domestic policy a muddle, it has brought nothing but confusion into politics. "Under the Conservative government, adds the World, "British prestige sank to its lowest point in generation," And in conclusion

Baldwin, was beaten in the British The Tribune thinks the off-hand manner in which Premier Baldwin forced the tariff issue upon the British public, irritated both politicians and electors.

This feathered adventuress excaped from her pen and BRINGING UP FATHER decided to investigate the inside workings of a Ford. After considerable merriment and much squawking the bird was recaptured and taken away.

Fowls without their feathers, and minus any signs of life, cold for one dollar each and chickens were $1.50 a pair. Ducks were $1 and $1,35 cach and some nice geese were offered at 23c to 25c a pound. Turkeys brought many different prices. They went as low as 25c a pound and so high as 35c a pound and the offering was not unusually large. Butter sold at 45c and 50c

The usual line of vegetables was offered at current prices. Indian women brought the first forecast of the Christmas season with their large baskets of beaded ornaments. The market was only of fair size and rather dull compared to the us-
