LOCAL NEWS.

Brief Items of Interest Picked Up by the Whig Reporters.

Mr. Swain, piano tuner. Orders received at 100 Clergy street west, phone 564w.

On Monday there will be a special nomination in Gananoque for two waterworks commissioners to fill vacancies on that board.

Cooke's Church anniversary Dec. 9th. Rev. R. M. Hamilton, Brockville. Inspiring sermons, bright music. Come.

Miss Flossie E. Spence, R.N., of the Receiving Hospital, Detroit, Mich., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Spence, Charleston.

The ninth anniversary of Calvin Presbyterian church, Ottawa, will be observed on Sunday, when Dr. Bruce Taylor, principal of Queen's University, will preach.

M. R. German, Picton, has been going through a serious ordeal in Kingston General Hospital, but reports received by his sisters are more favorable, in fact, quite cheering.

One of the chief topics on the market Saturday morning among the farmers was the wonderful weather this fall. They remarked that not in years had they experienced such open weather. The rains have kept the pastures in great shape.

REX STOCK COMPANY.

Playing to Capacity Houses at The Grand.

The Rex Stock company played to a capacity house at the Grand on Friday evening when the company presented "Too Many Husbands." It is one of those productions that the best way to appreciate it is to pay the admission fee and go.

Rex Snelgrove in his little speech between the second and third acts, stated that he was delighted to be back in Kingston after spending part of the summer months in the United States. The Rex Company intends to present the finest plays that money can buy, and there is no doubt that there will be record attendances during its stay in the city.

During the past week, there has been such a demand for tickets that it is very advisable to order your card boards well in advance.

"Too Many Husbands" will be presented at the Grand on Saturday night for the last time, with a bargain matinee for the kids on Saturday afternoon.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week, "Twin Beds" will be played.
