GANANOQUE

Dec. 11.—Nominations for Water Commissioners yesterday morning resulted: C. C. Skinner, Aubrey Lott, Gordon Bishop, A. Laver, and Charles W. Root. Two of this number will be chosen and they will have until nine o'clock tonight to qualify.

Captain Kenneth Holloway and Mrs. Holloway, who are staying at Chateau Belvidere, Kingston, for the winter, motored to Gananoque, Saturday, and spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sampson, returning Sunday evening. In the afternoon Capt. Holloway played eight holes of golf, the links being in very good condition for this time of year.

Robert Tulloch and Miss Anne Tulloch motored to Syracuse, N.Y., at the week-end to spend a few days with their sister, Mrs. John Goulette.

Sunday was like a lovely September day, and a great many people spent the afternoon on the river, golf links and motoring.

Miss Eva Glover spent the week-end with friends in Kingston. Misses Nellie Kidd, Margaret Chapman, W. Reid, J. Conlin and R. Button spent Sunday in Kingston.

Mrs. Stephen Dorsey, who underwent an operation in the Hotel Eden a few days ago, is progressing favorably.

Dr. Edward Ryan, Kingston, will deliver a lecture this evening in the Lyceum. A silver collection will be taken up.

Jack LaFrance spent the week-end in Mallorytown. Mr. and Mrs. Heribson, Miss Hilda Heribson and Mrs. Pergau, Lyn, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Lattimore over Sunday. Keith Burns, Queen's University, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Adam Seale.

Dr. D. H. Rogers, Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. dePencier motored to Ottawa on Sunday. Miss Helen Bain, R.N., Toronto, is home to spend the holidays. Miss O'Neill and Miss Woodgar, Kingston, were the guests of Miss Hyacinthe Sophie over the week-end.

Mrs. S. Turpin spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burridge.

Next Monday evening, Dec. 17th, through the courtesy of the Bell Telephone Company, W. V. D. Earle, district manager, Brockville, will put on a moving picture entertainment in Christ church parish house. There will be no admission fee and everybody is welcome.

John Shine spent Sunday in Kingston. Miss Nellie Kirke, Kingston, spent the week-end here with her parents.

ACCEPT RESIGNATION

Of William McCammon, Market Clerk of Kingston.

At a meeting of the city property committee on Monday afternoon, the resignation of William McCammon, market clerk, was respectfully accepted. Mr. McCammon resigned some time ago, but his resignation was held over in the hope that his health would improve. Mr. McCammon has been market clerk and harbor master of Kingston since the 1st of October, 1890, and has rendered splendid service to the city. Edward Green is acting market clerk until the first of February.

London's Old Churches.

The city churches—there is not such another series in the world—are a great spiritual influence in the daily lives and thoughts of thousands, notwithstanding the fact that some of them attract but sparse congregations on Sundays. Even for that there is a remedy. There is a deep-seated feeling that these exquisite fabrics—many of which are numbered among Wren's choicest masterpieces—should be preserved as national monuments and secured definitely from any risk of destruction now or in the future.—London Mail.

Supper and Concert.

The supper and concert given by the men of Queen street Methodist church on Monday evening was a great success. The supper was served at 6.30 o'clock and a splendid menu was provided. The concert was commenced at eight o'clock, with Judge Lovell presiding. His honor also took part in the programme, which was given entirely by the young men of the congregation. One of the special features was a reading by Capt. E. W. Skinner.

He Looked Like Taft.

In facit appearance at least, the late James C. Judd, Morton, bore a marked resemblance to William Howard Taft, former President of the United States, and it was one of the favorite anecdotes of Mr. Judd that he had been upon one occasion approached and warmly greeted as President Taft upon an Ottawa street by an American citizen who was visiting the capital.

Police Court Briefs.

After hearing evidence in a case in which a citizen was charged with assaulting a little boy in the police court on Tuesday morning, Magistrate Farrell dismissed the charge. Two drunks, on remand were on the carpet again, and a fine of $10 and costs was imposed in each case.

Early Sunday morning the combined general store and post office at Cambellcroft was entered by three men and a woman.

On Saturday the death occurred in Brockville of Mrs. John Charlton, who before her marriage was Miss Pearl Adels Race.

SAID ON THE SIDE

It is said that several thirsty Kingstonians have been using up a lot of gasoline and wearing out considerable shoe leather trying to locate the chap who was here over the week-end trying to sell a case of liquor.

By the way, the two fellows nabbed by the police, found that a bottle of bootlegger's whiskey was expensive. They paid $8 to the bootlegger, while the grand total in police court fines amounted to $125.

Tax on gasoline has been proposed. Cheers from all the street railway companies in the country.

"More mild weather assured this week" says the Weather Man. Cheer up, the worst is yet to come.

With so many places organized for hockey, it looks as if Kingston will be left out in the cold, as it were, without a team.

Many people will tell you that they don't believe in signs. Probably that is why they want the sign removed from the cricket field.

Now the sign has been removed there are many who are asking to have it put back again. It is certainly hard to please everybody.

MEETING OF THE G.A.U.V.

H. L. Bedford is the Newly-Elected President. (Contributed).

The weekly meeting of the G.A.U.V. at 205 Princess street was extremely well attended last evening. Owing to the increased attendance it has been decided to move from the present committee room into the large assembly hall as soon as convenient.

Several new members who have lately come to the organization expressed appreciation for services rendered.

The above points out the valuable work being carried on by the G.A.U.V. in Kingston and the progress which the association is making despite obstacles.

In the recent election of officers for the ensuing year much enthusiasm was shown, and it was deeply regretted that Dr. J. O. McDonald, the former president, was unable to attend, owing to his having left the city, but it is felt that his position is ably filled by the new president. The new officers elected are as follows:

President, H. L. Bedford; 1st vice-president, H. Brown; 2nd vice-president, D. Thompson; secretary, W. Murray; treasurer, C. Shea; Tyler, W. Moore; an executive of eight members was also elected.

The G.A.U.V. convey hearty congratulations to the Queen's senior Intercollegiate and Dominion champion rugby team, also to the Royal college and Dominion champions.
