THE CHURCH BAZAAR SPLENDIDLY PATRONIZED

It is Estimated That at Least Nine Hundred Dollars Was Taken In.

Napanee Dec. 15.—Although the inclement weather, which prevailed here on Thursday, interfered with the bazaar, lunch and supper given by the ladies of Trinity Methodist church; they have not much reason to complain of the loyal patronage of their own members and of those of the other churches in town. There was abundance of good things to eat at the two meals which were admirably served and there was a good revenue from the large number of paying guests. Tea was also served during the afternoon.

The bazaar tables were loaded with useful and fancy articles, many of which will appear later on as Christmas presents in many homes. The decorations were charming and attractive and the sale of the wares offered went merrily on. It is as yet impossible to say exactly how much money has been realized by the efforts of the ladies, but it is estimated that at least $900 was taken in. This amount is likely to be largely augmented when the final accounting is made.

The funeral of Mrs. Leonard took place on Friday afternoon at the church of St. Mary Magdalene. The services being conducted by Rev. J. H. H. Coleman, M.A., vicar. The handsome grey casket was covered with a profusion of beautiful flowers, tributes of affection and respect. A very large congregation was assembled to take part in the beautiful and impressive service for the burial of the dead. The hymn "Peace Perfect Peace" was sung by the choir in procession. Later the hymn "On the Resurrection Morn-ing" was sung. The Nunc Dimittis was sung as a recessional. The cortege was reformed and proceeded to Riverview cemetery, where interment was made.

The pall bearers were: Dr. Galbraith, W. S. Herrington, K.C., Judge Madden, Fred F. Miller, C. E., Fred S. Richardson and W. G. Wilson. The grief mourners present during the last sad rites were the bereaved husband, Dr. R. A. Leonard and his immediate family, Mr. and Mrs. William Leonard, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Luce, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Byers, Gananoque; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. E. Graham, Belleville.

A brother of the deceased, Sidney Dektor, and a large number of relatives and dear friends from out of town took part in the obsequies. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Daly and Miss Celestine are spending the week-end in Toronto.

The Napanee Collegiate students are making great preparations for their commencement entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Morse, Winnipeg, Man., are expected to arrive in town tomorrow to spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Morse's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Daly.

SATURDAY'S MARKET.

Turkey Market Reached by Eager Buyers—Varied Prices.

Saturday morning's market was fairly large as to vendors and a giant as to buyers. It was hard to get around the aisles at various times during the morning and some of the farmers had sold out and cleared for dinner before eleven o'clock. Fowls were the main interest. Turkeys were offered all the way from 20c a pound to 35c a pound. Most of them weighed around ten pounds. One lady offered a 25-pound beauty at 20c a pound. Geese were also much in evidence, selling from 25c to 30c a pound. Chickens brought $1.50 to $2 a pair and fowls $1 to $1.50 each.

Eggs ran from 60c to 70c a dozen and butter from 40c to 50c a pound. Apples could be bought from 40c to 75c a peck. The vegetables offered were attractive and fairly priced for the season.

Forty Convicts Will Be Given Parole

Forty convicts at the Portsmouth penitentiary are to be allowed out on parole, in the course of a few days. Their time would be up around March 1st, so they are being given three months off their sentence. This will reduce the number of prisoners in the penitentiary to 690.

Re-elected President of the United Farmers of Ontario, for a second term. The programme of the U.F.O. calls for Dominion-wide prohibition and rigid enforcement of the laws already in force.

PROBS:—Sunday, fresh westerly winds, fair and mild.
