SAID ON THE SIDE

For years it has been the custom for girls to change their shoes for "pumps" at the dances. Now, it is said that it is quite the fashion to change from heavy to lighter clothing as well. But then, there is an old saying that you might as well be out of the world as out of the fashion.

"Red" Ryan had to blame some person for the downfall of his pal, and he was mean enough to blame a woman.

"Scotchman Jailed at Detroit for Neglecting to pay Head Tax," says newspaper headline. It takes the Scotch to save the money all right, all right.

It's nice for pals to stick together, but what is the use of two men going to jail for the making of "moonshine" in the one house.

Kingston is to have one-man street cars. It is hoped that they will be well manned in spite of the reduction.

Farmers in the Kingston district shipped 1,067 turkeys to Rochester. Some turkey trot this.

Armed with a search warrant, the Kingston police found a still and a large quantity of liquor in a home on York street. A doctor's prescription may secure liquor of quality, but a search warrant gets the quantity.

To Inspect C.S.L. Vessels. It is expected that officials of the Canada Steamship Lines will be in the city this week to make a careful examination of all the C.S.L. steamers wintering in Kingston harbor. Until such time as the inspection takes place it will not be known the extent of the repair work to be done on the steamers during the winter months.

Ten Degrees Above Zero. Monday night was the coldest so far this season. Early Tuesday morning, Queen's Weather Bureau reported that the thermometer registered ten degrees above zero. The curriers and hockey fans were delighted that the cold weather had arrived so that the ice makers could make a good surface.
