Music at Arena.
The Athletic committee at Queen's University has decided to have music at all the skating periods at the arena. The music to be furnished by a phonograph which has a powerful horn.

Sale of Boys' Overcoats.
Most sensational value ever offered in boys' overcoats at $10.50.
The regular prices of these overcoats were $15, $18 and $17.50; ages from 10 to 15 years. Prevost, Brock street.

Delighted with Presentation.
Members of Queen's senior and the Royal Military College intermediate rugby teams, which won the Dominion championships are delig-ted with the presentation which was made by the city council on Wednesday evening.

Are Given Uniform.
The members of Queen's senior rugby team who graduate this year are each being given the uniform in which they took part in the games this season. Queen's is the only university which presents the players with their uniform when they are leaving.

Died of Blood Poisoning.
Nina Mae Place, aged eight, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Bert J. Place, Cape Vincent, N.Y., died following a brief illness of blood poisoning caused by a slight wound in her foot.
The child ran a small tack in her foot as she was going down the stairs of her home in her bare feet.

Moving Vessels Close to Dock.
On Thursday morning a tug owned by the Canada Steamship Lines moved one of the company's steamers up to the dock of the Collingwood Shipbuilding company.
The idea is to get the steamers which are in need of repair as close to the dock as possible so that they can be entered during the winter months.

Largest Market in Years.
Edward Green, market clerk, reported that the market on Thursday morning was the largest pre-Christmas market in the past few years.
There was such a quantity of poultry that the farmers were unable to dispose of it, and many let it go at low prices.

Bringing in Potatoes.
Large quantities of potatoes are being brought into the city from outside points, and are being retailed at about $1.50 per bag. Some have been brought from the Toronto district. Maritime province potatoes are also being sold in the city.

May Be Back.
It is hoped that Roy Reynolds, the crack wing player of the Queen's senior rugby team, who graduated from the school of science next spring, will be back in the college again next fall as he intends to take post-graduate work.

Shopping In The Rain.
It takes more than a heavy shower of rain to keep the shoppers far doors around Christmas time. On Thursday, in spite of the downpour of rain, the streets were well filled with shoppers. There was a big rush of parcels going to outside points.
The general delivery office and the stamp office were besieged with people with parcels from early morning until closing time.

Delighted With His playing.
Bertram Sutton Brown, the youthful violin soloist, who has won considerable renown in the past four years, delighted the Methodist church congregation, Pembroke, with a violin solo at the Sunday evening service. Mr. Brown is well known in Pembroke and is being warmly received after a four year absence, during which time he has made remarkable advancement in the musical world.

Death of Ernest C. Denyes.
Ernest Clayton Denyes passed away on Tuesday at Foxboro. Deceased was in his fifty-fifth year and was born in Thurlow where he had resided all his life. He was the youngest son of the late Wesley Denyes. Deceased was a member of the Methodist Church and a member of the Belleville Lodge A.F.
& A.M. He was some months ago the victim of a paralytic stroke from which he never recovered. He was well known and much respected.

Mailing of Parcels.
Early mailing, correct wrapping and addressing plainly are among the chief factors in insuring safe delivery of Christmas parcels and cards before St. Nicholas pays his yearly visit, according to local postal officials who are now in the midst of one of the greatest rushes of business in several years. The overseas Christmas mail is already on its way to make thousands of hearts happy.
Postal employees, whose services at this season of the year Santa Claus seeks, are engrossed mostly with the delivery of parcels and cards destined for other centres and the usual large influx of Christmas mail into the city, besides the regular mail matter.

Big Rush of Mail.
That there is no falling off in the giving of Christmas gifts is shown by the number of parcels going through the Kingston post office.
The big rush is now on and will continue for the next five days. At the post office, on Thursday, the staff was busily engaged handling the Christmas rush. It was stated that during Wednesday night, 140 bags of mail arrived from the west, while the mail from the east was nearly as large. On Thursday forenoon, over one hundred bags of mail arrived at the local post office. The staff is doing everything possible to dispose of the mail as speedily as possible. On Thursday three rigs were in use to help in the distribution of mail, while on Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday twenty rigs will be used.

Gifts Provided by Will.
The will of Mrs. Lucina Lavina Raines, Almonte, who died on April 24th last, has been probated. The total value of her estate was a little over $40,000. There is a bequest of $200 to the Rosamond Memorial Hospital, along with a considerable amount of linen, bedding, etc. The sum of $2,000 goes to Almonte Methodist church. It is to be known as the Catherine Rose and Helen Coates and Lucina Raines Memorial Fund, and is to be used for the purposes of the Methodist church. Sums of $250 each are to go to the Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto, the Toronto Hospital for Incurables and Stanstead College, Quebec, each of these also participating in the residue. There are sixty-eight persons and institutions named in the will.
