KINGSTON AND VICINITY

Brought Down a Hawk.
William Lawson, Harlem, Leeds county, recently shot a hawk while it was flying away with a white Wyandotte pullet. The hawk measured forty-eight inches from tip to tip.

Sale of Boys' Overcoats.
Most sensational value ever offered in boys' overcoats at $10.50.
The regular prices of these overcoats were $15., $16 and $17.50; ages from 10 to 15 years. Prevost, Brock street.

Fox Pen Case.
In the case of Walter Harold vs.
Harry Fisher, which was heard by Judge H. A. Lavell on Monday last, Judge Lavell decides that Mr. Fisher must deliver up the fox pens or in default pay $300.

Heavy Passenger Traffic.
The passenger service of the Canadian National Railway is experiencing an unprecedented traffic over the Christmas holidays. Beginning on Saturday, special trains had to be put on and the International was divided up into sections between Toronto and Montreal.

Remember Retiring President.
Michael Corrigan has lived in Tyndalga township for fifty years, and has been actively associated with the Albert cheese factory for years, being a past resident. He retired at the annual meeting and a motion was unanimously adopted thanking Mr. Corrigan for his past services.

Christmas With the Garrison.
There will be a special Christmas dinner for the troops of the Kingston R.C.H.A. at Tete du Pont barracks have been decorated and all who are not married men will sit down to the turkey dinner. There will not be a church parade.

Busy Cutting Wood.
Perth now has thirty-five men engaged in cutting wood in the town's two bush lots in Bathurst and Elmsley. Already over 700 cords of wood have been cut. It will be interesting to our readers to know that Perth supplies to her citizens a little over 2,000 cords of wood each year.

Died at Miami, Florida.
The death is announced of Mrs.
Mary Parker Cox, at the home of her son, Ray L. Parker, at Miami, Fla., on Dec. 14th. Mrs. Cox was born in Clayton, N.Y. Two sons survive, also one sister, Mrs. Henry Grant, Clayton, N.Y. Mrs. Cox had spent her summers at the Parker summer home on the St. Lawrence.

Open a New Store.
James McParlane, who has carried on a successful insurance business at Carleton Place for several years has disposed of his business and has formed a partnership with W. H. Matthews and the new partnership will open a furniture and undertaking store in Perth. Mr. Mc-Parlane will have charge of the Perth store.

Won't Put On Collars.
In Gananoque there are many dogs running at large without tags. The owners have paid the license fee but refuse to get collars and tags on dogs, claiming that it is a needless expense, as collars come off or are stolen. It is also said the collars hurt the dogs' necks. Maybe a higher tax will bring about results. Brockville tried it and thinned out the animals.

The Old People Entertained.
Last Thursday evening a pleasant entertainment was given at the Home for the Aged by the girl pupils of the senior fourth class of Robert Meek school, under the supervision of their teacher, Mrs. Gallagher, assisted by Miss Eason at the piano. The class brought candies which they distributed among the inmates. On request, before leaving, the young entertainers repeated that old Welsh melody "All Through the Night."

A War Veteran Dead.
A Military funeral was held in Marmora over the remains of Frederick Simmons, a war veteran. Six of his comrades were bearers. Deceased died from tuberculosis contracted while overseas. Some time after returning home he took a trip to the coast ending up in California where he stayed last April. Since then he has been almost constantly confined to his bed. He was a young man of sterling qualities.

This is No Joke.
A Joke is all right at times, but it is no joke to be called up at your home by telephone at 1 o'clock in the morning, and told that there is a small fire in your shop, to hurry down and find that you have been made the victim of a joker. This was the experience of a well-known Kingston business man on Sunday morning. Some person gave him a call over the telephone telling him about the fire at his shop and he hurried to the scene, to find that everything was O.K., and there had been no fire.

No Drunks in Perth Jail.
Perth is one of the six county jails in Ontario in which there were no commitments for drunkenness during 1922, according to the report of the Board of License Commissioners.
In 1914 there were twenty-two commitments. It is interesting to note also that there were fewer commitments for all offences during 1922.

Last year there were sixty-nine and in 1923 there were 133 or just double.

Remembered With Gifts.
A large number of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and G. L. A. assembled in the Oddfellows' hall, Smith's Falls, when Charles Eldridge was the recipient of a gold-headed cane on the occasion of his retirement from the C.P.R., after fifty-two years of service. The gift was presented by G. T. McLaughlin, who read an appropriate address.
Mrs. Eldridge was also the recipient of a dainty gift.

Death of War Veteran.
John R. Goode, who died in Picton hospital of appendicitis, was buried in Glenwood with military honors. The deceased was a veteran of the great war and his comrades accorded him the honor of a military funeral. Mr. Goode resided on S. J.
McCoy's farm in Hallowell. He was taken to the hospital suffering with appendicitis but his condition was too serious for an operation. His wife, Bertha M. McCoy, and three small children survive.

Former Athens Residents.
At Regina, Sask., the Parkdale Women's Club gave a bungalow party in honor of the fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs.
Gordon McClary, of 1068 Athol street, formerly of Athens. Mrs. Mc-Clary was presented with pearl earrings, a sheaf of pink and white roses; and Mr. McClary with a pearl-set tie pin and together they received a silver bowl, suitably engraved and filled with pink carnations, a gift from the staff of the National Drug and Chemical Company, of which Mr. McClary is department manager.

Masonic Temple Inspected.
The Masonic Temple was thrown open to visitors on Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m., and there was a continuous throng of people, all of whom were greatly impressed by the beauty of the building and the furniture and symbols that distinguished the ancient craft. Mrs. A. W. Richardson gave an organ recital in the auditorium from 2 to 4 o'clock and R. R.
F. Harvey from 4 to 5.

This superb Masonic edifice has already been minutely described in the columns of the British Whig. It is complete in every detail for social functions as well as for the carrying out of purely Masonic rites. What was seen on Sunday by non-Masons, although but a glimpse, served to impress upon the public mind that Masonry is a great institution.

Suffered Fire Loss.
Beecham Trotter and Sons suffered a serious fire loss at Brandon, on December 12th, when one of Brandon's oldest landmarks, Beecham Trotter and Sons horse exchange on Sixth street, was destroyed by fire. It is believed the fire originated in the hay chute. A high wind prevailed at the time and hindered the work of the fire department.
Animals and vehicles were got out of the building without loss or injury, but considerable expensive English harness, robes, blankets and miscellaneous articles were destroyed. The total loss is placed at $12, 000, which is only partly covered by insurance. Mr. Trotter formerly lived in Pittsburgh township, and is well known in the Kingston district.
He has been in the west for many years.

Christmas Event.
A fine time was spent on Friday afternoon, Dec. 21st, at Maple Hill school, No. 5, Storrington, where a first-class programme was given by the pupils of the school. The numbers included recitations by every pupil present, dialogues, drills, solos, duets, etc. Two special numbers given were physical training and club swinging by Carmel Murphy. Short addresses were given by Councillor John Mundell, Nelson Silver, Charles Nicholson, Bert Balls and a fine little talk on hygiene in school, by a former teacher, Jennie Mundell.

The secretary, Bert Balls, gave an address of thanks to the teacher, Miss Bernice Henderson, for the splendid way in which the affair was given, also for the good feeling existing between pupils and teacher.
After a very generous treat of candy and fruit, the teacher thanked the parents and scholars for the splendid support she had received at all times.
The gathering concluded with the National Anthem.
