WILL THE SPOOR DIARY SETTLE SWIGART CASE?

Alleged That It Has Entry of Birth of Mrs. Ena Welch.

The trial of the suit of Mrs. Ena Welch against the Swigart Estate, Chicago, is set for Jan. 10th in the Circuit Court there, and it is expected that all of the Kingston and Wolfe Island witnesses will attend. Francis King, K.C., Canadian counsel for the estate, may also attend.

When the case was tried in the probate court it was dismissed, the judge holding that Mrs. Ena Welch was not the child of the late Ald. Charles F. Swigart, Chicago, but the daughter of Tom Jim Davis, who was killed at Cape Vincent, N.Y., a few months after his marriage to her mother.

Mrs. Welch appealed from that decision and many Canadian witnesses have already been heard. It is claimed that valuable information is contained in a diary kept by the late Morey Spoor, Wolfe Island. Mrs. Vincent Greenwood, a granddaughter of the late Morey Spoor, is alleged to have stated that she saw the entries in this old diary, the existence of which has caused such excitement. According to a report attributed to her, this diary contains entries telling of the tragic death of Tom Jim Davis, and the birth of his daughter several months later. It is also alleged that the departure of Mrs. Davis with her infant is noted, and her return on a visit three years later with the child. If this is ascertained to be so, it will serve to show that statements made by a number of witnesses are true.

LALONDE-KELLY WEDDING.

Ceremony Took Place in St. Paul's Church on Wednesday.

At St. Paul's church, Wednesday morning at 10.30 o'clock, Lillian Kelly, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly, became the bride of George Lalonde, eldest son of Mrs. Gramalin, Trenton. Canon W. F. Fitzgerald officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, wore a beautiful gown of white silk canton crepe. The veil of tulle fell from a crown of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was of pink roses showered with lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Kathleen Thomson, Ottawa, was bridesmaid and wore a charming frock of pale blue georgette trimmed with gold lace, with black picture hat, and carried pink carnations. The groom was assisted by the bride's brother, George Kelly.

After the ceremony the wedding party proceeded to the home of the bride's parents where a dainty luncheon was served.

The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond and platinum lavallere; to the bridesmaid a string of pearls; and to his groomsmen a pearl tie pin.

Mr. and Mrs. Lalonde left on the noon train for points west among showers of confetti. The bride travelled in a navy blue silk canton crepe dress with hat to match. With this smart costume she wore a Persian lamb coat.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly gifts, showing the esteem in which she is held. Upon their return the newlyweds will reside at 57 Lower Bagot street.

EVENT AT ENTERPRISE.

Christmas Entertainment at the Methodist Church.

The annual Christmas entertainment of the Methodist church, Enterprise was held Tuesday night. The basement of the church was gaily decorated for the event. Supper was served at 6 o'clock and there was a jolly time for an hour. Everyone was brimful of merriment. A pleasant event during the supper was the presenting of a "baton" to Choir Leader Cascaian. Mr. Cascaian is deserving of all the good things that were said about him, as to his untiring activity is due to the success of the programme commenced at 8 o'clock in the church, which was crowded, many having to stand. A number of the young people contributed with songs and instrumental numbers. The number by the choir was a real treat. "Tom" Kelly, electrician, Kingston, delighted the audience with his recitations and stories. "Jack" Elder, Scotch entertainer, excelled himself. Mr. Elder appeared there before, and he sure got a hearty welcome when he appeared on the platform. "Jack" is a real Scotchman and sings Scotch songs as only a native of the (Land O'Cake) can. He responded to many encores and each one was a treat.

Rev. Mr. Merriman acted as chairman and kept the audience in good humor. Miss Elizabeth Mellow acted as accompanist and her playing added much to the success of the evening. After a vote of thanks was moved to the Ladies' Aid, and those taking part in the programme. "The King" was sung, bringing a most successful entertainment to a close.

Christmas Entertainment at the Methodist Church.

This has been a very open winter so far and as a result very few people have applied at the police station for shelter over night. Wednesday night a man in East York was given protection.

Let every have her full sway and she would, if she could, take away our honor as well as our money. Opportunities are only chances. Be ready to take hold of them when they come your way, my friend.

AN UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT

Automobile Collides With Miss Flossie Keating and Fractures Her Leg.

Miss Flossie Keating, who resides with her mother at 321 University avenue, suffered a broken leg when she was knocked down by an automobile, driven by Oscar King, on Princess street, above Division on Wednesday evening about eight o'clock. Miss Keating, in company with her mother, were going down Princess street and attempted to cross the roadway directly in front of Dr. G. W. Bell's residence and walked in front of the Sedan driven by Oscar King.

Mr. King, when speaking to a Whig representative, stated that he was coming up Princess street and was travelling at the rate of about fifteen miles per hour. He had passed the service station at the corner of Princess and Division streets when Mrs. Keating and her daughter were walking directly in front of his car. He did not get the slightest warning, as the street is very poorly lighted and the two women came from the dark side of the road. When he first noticed the two women, he had presence of mind to swing his car to the left side of the street with the result that the fender of the auto struck Miss Keating and knocked her down. The mother who was farthest away from the automobile, was knocked down but was able to proceed to her home. Dr. S. J. Koyes was called and the injured lady was rushed to the General Hospital where it was found that the leg was fractured in two places.

Had it not been for the prompt action of Mr. King, there is a chance that both ladies might have been killed.

Mrs. Keating, when speaking to Mr. King after the accident, stated that she did not blame him in any way for the injury to her daughter.

MERCHANTS "STUNG" BY BOGUS CHEQUE ARTIST

Stranger Gets Goods at Local Shop to the Value of $73.30.

Beware of bogus cheque artists. In spite of all the warnings given in the Whig from time to time, about cheque artists being at work, a Princess street merchant was "stung" for the sum of $73.30, on a worthless cheque. The cheque was given to the merchant by a man who stated that his home was in Odessa, and who was given goods to the value of the cheque.

The transaction was put through on Dec. 15th, and the merchant says that he is a strong believer in the old adage about the 13th being unlucky. Investigation at the banks showed that the man who issued the cheque had no funds and no trace can be found of him.

Within the past three weeks several complaints have been received about bogus cheque artists being at work in Belleville and Brockville.

Hockeyists Await Ice.

The Kingston hockey teams are greatly handicapped on account of the lack of ice at the Harty arena. "Mike" Flanagan, ice maker at the arena, is doing everything in his power to get ice, but the weather is not cold enough. Mr. Flanagan when speaking to a representative of the Whig on Thursday morning stated that twenty-seven years ago there was no ice in the old covered rink until New Year's. Previous to Christmas it rained nearly every day and on Christmas there was a downpour. On New Year's Day there was a great change and before night the thermometer had touched zero. With a couple of zero days there will be good ice at the Harty arena.

furlough while Mrs. Dunlop and Miss Jean had spent some years in Kingston.

In police court Thursday morning, a drunk was fined $10 and costs for being intoxicated. He was also accused of stealing an overcoat but this charge was dismissed.

A citizen who celebrated Christmas drinking gin was fined $10 and costs and also $100 and costs because he had a bottle with him when arrested. He threw the bottle on the sidewalk and destroyed the bottle and contents.

It's a mighty good thing that people don't have to pay taxes on the amount they think the first baby is worth.
