JOINT INSTALLATION IN MASONIC TEMPLE

Hon. Dr. J. W. Edwards Emphasizes Some of Canada's National Problems.

The joint installation of three Kingston Masonic lodges was held in the Masonic Temple on Tuesday evening, St. John's Day, and the event, from the viewpoint of numbers, was the biggest of its kind ever witnessed in Kingston. The lodges were: Cataract No. 92, Minden No. 253, and Royal Edward, No. 588. The installing officers were R. W. Bro. John Nicolle, P.D.D.G.M., and R. W. Bro. F. H. Burke, P.D.D.G.M., of the 14th Masonic District, and the work was carried out in a faultless manner. At the conclusion of the ceremony of installation and investiture, greetings were conveyed to the gathering by deputations from the various sister lodges and concordant orders of the city. The annual banquet was held after the installation and it was attended by about 400 brethren. W. A. Bearance, worshipful master of Royal Edward Lodge, presided, and the chief speaker on the programme was Hon. Dr. J. W. Edwards, who gave an inspiring address in which he emphasized some of the national problems that confront Canada.

After the toast to "The King and the Craft," the toast to Grand Lodge was proposed by W. Bro. H. Milne and responded to by R. W. Bro. P. H. Burke, who gave some figures that showed the rapid growth of Masonry in Ontario. While three years ago the membership was about 30,000 it is now over 100,000. Over $150,000 was spent for the purposes of benevolence in the province of Ontario in the last year. Bro. John Mercer proposed the toast to the visitors and Bro. H. W. Newman, the Junior Warden's toast. Prof. Baird, pianist, Napanee, played a number of selections, and a quartette composed of James Saunders, W. Eva. F. Hafner and William Christmas, sang several songs in a manner that won warm applause.

Dr. Edwards' Address. In opening his address, Dr. Edwards reviewed the general world conditions following the war, and paid a high tribute to the people of Canada for their sacrifices and fortitude throughout the world-conflict. The results of the war are still visible because of the enormous changes that have taken place. Jealousy and distrust lurk everywhere. Class distinctions and religious and racial differences that were disregarded during the war have returned," said he. "With our burden of debt, the future is not a pleasing prospect. The war showed us what might be done by united action, and we must have national unity if we are going to make here in Canada a great British nation."

Proceeding, the speaker said that he believed that there was a place for an order, such as the Masonic, in the national life of Canada because he believed that it was 100 per cent British. He told of the benevolent work of the Loyal Orange Order, which had orphanages in six of the provinces. It paid insurance on all Orange soldiers killed in the war, 85 per cent of the amount being a special levy on the members. Referring to the distribution of population in Canada, the speaker expressed his strong disapproval of Oriental immigration and suggested that immigration be restricted to peoples of British origin. It was a mistake, he thought, to bring people from continental Europe because they settled in communities and sought to perpetuate here the conditions of Europe. Ontario, he regarded as the arch in Confederation, and advocated making it 100 per cent British instead of 77 per cent, at present. "Canada's greatest need today is immigrants," declared the speaker.

Officers Installed. The new officers installed were: Minden Lodge—W. M. W. Bro. R. J. Robinson; I.P.M. W. Bro. R. Crawford; S. W. G. W. McGlynn; J. W. H. C. McIlquham; Chap. A. S. Doggett; Treas. W. Bro. H. Milne; secretary, W. Bro. R. S. Graham; S. D. H. Kelly; J. D. M.L.C. Orr; I.G. M. L. Davy; S. S. E. F. Richardson; J. S. E. B. Vanatyrne; D. C. C. J. Brunke; Tyler, W. Bro. R. Bunt; auditors: H. W. Newman, W. D. R. H. Ward.

Royal Edward Lodge No. 585.—W. M. W. Bro. Thomas Mercer; I. P. M. W. Bro. F. K. Ludlow; S. W. M. J. Hyland; J. W. F. A. Hafner; treasurer, C. S. Wheeler; secretary, H. A. Graham; Chap. J. de P. Bishop.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EVENTS

Santa Claus Pays Visits to Several of the Kingston Churches.

In spite of adverse travelling conditions, and the physical weariness which Santa Claus must feel after a very strenuous Christmas season, he arrived at the annual entertainment of the First Baptist Bible school last night, just in time to distribute the many prizes won by members of the school, for memory verses, attendance, and bringing new scholars. The old gentleman was in the best of humor, and had a cheery word for the young folks as he handed them their well earned prizes. There was a Scotch accent to his voice, which made it evident that either that must be the language spoken at the north pole, or his reputed headquarters, or that he has been spending much of his time in the land of the heather and bag pipes. Before saying "good night" he promised to come back for the primary and cradle roll entertainment, which takes place this afternoon. Having performed the pleasant duty of rewarding the children for their faithfulness, he suddenly produced a thin envelope, containing a fat check, which he presented to the pastor, Rev. J. S. LaFleur, on behalf of the members and adherents of the church.

The following splendid programme was much enjoyed by the large audience. Song by the school, recitation, Helen Little, whistling duet, Hilda Friendship and Edith Hussey; Scotch songs, Jas. Marshall; recitation, Hope Finney; song, Douglas Denison; recitation, Hazel McCullough; piano duet, Misses Isabel and Loraine Leslie; songs, Stuart Salisbury; tableaux, girls and boys of Miss Osborne's and Mr. Isaacks classes; recitation, Ivy Cattermole; piano solo, Hilda Friendship; recitation, Harold Clarke; piano solo, Frons Turner; chorus by the school; duet, Ruth and Jack LaFleur; piano duet, Florence Salisbury and S. A. Salisbury; recitation, Harold Brand.

The following received prizes: For memory verses: Harold Clarke, Chas. Cooper, Stanley Osborne, Clarence Pritchard, Walter Finney, Eva Rose Black, Edith Hussey, Hilda Friendship, Harold Finney, Leslie Pritchard, Harold Brand, George Hussey. For attendance: George Pickering, Kenneth Pickering, Nellie Senior, Helen Finney, Eva Rose Black, Chas. Cooper, Stanley Osborne, Clarence Pritchard, Walter Finney, Leslie Isaacks, George Patrick, Wm. For new scholars: Alicia Black, Yvonne Emlaw, Jas. Hussey, Chas. Cooper, George Hussey, Leslie Isaacks, Helen Derbyshire.

Salvation Army Concert. Last night in the Salvation Army Citadel, a large audience gathered for the annual Christmas programme. The platform was decorated, and a beautiful scenery of Bethlehem with the Wise Men and the Angel appearing to the Shepherds formed the background, helping all to feel the real Christmas spirit. The little tots recited in a pleasing manner. The singing of the Sand Tray class received great applause. The different dialogues were well rendered. Mrs. Boshers' Bible class girls deserved great praise for the clock work way in which they did the grill and marching. Ensign Boshers, in his remarks as chairman, spoke about the work of the different leaders and appreciated in full their service for the young people.

DAY AND NIGHT. The church that fails to reach out fails to bring in. Cod Liver Oil Emulsion, Gibson's.

St. Andrew's Church. The annual Christmas entertainment was given for the Sunday school children at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church on Thursday evening. Rev. J. W. Stephen presided and a most enjoyable time was spent. A splendid tea was served to 150 children at 6 p.m. and following the tea, presents were distributed from a Christmas tree by Santa Claus. A musical programme was rendered by talented children.

St. Paul's Christmas Tree. The infant class of St. Paul's Sunday school held their Christmas tree and entertainment in the Sunday school hall on Thursday evening. Santa Claus arrived in good time and distributed the gifts to the children. Canon FitzGerald received Santa Claus with a happy and humorous welcome. A delightful evening was spent by all. It's success was largely due to the efforts of Miss Thurston and her band of assistants. The little ones contributed a splendid programme of songs and recitations. At a later period the other departments will hold their entertainments.

At St. Luke's. The most successful event in the history of St. Luke's Sunday school was held in the parish hall last evening. The hall was beautifully decorated with evergreens by the scholars; one of the principal features being a lighted star over the front of the platform. Tables were laid, and promptly at 6 o'clock the entire school was assembled. Grace was said by the rector, Rev. J. dePencier Wright, and then all enjoyed the sumptuous dinner provided by the people of the parish. Music was supplied by the school orchestra. Promptly at 8 o'clock the rector addressed the children and the parents, who were invited to attend the concert part of the programme. He said he was pleased to have such a large family gathering and stated in his opinion it was one of the best in the city, reflecting great credit on those who were responsible for the carrying out of the event. He then called for the various numbers on the programme until intermission, when Santa Claus arrived to distribute the prizes and presents from the tree.

The following contributed towards the programme—Miss Edith Jordan, Mrs. Walker's class, Mrs. Wood's class, Miss Daisy Simpson, Miss Lizzie Fraser, Miss Marjorie Prittle, Miss Roberta Saunders, Miss Evelyn Cooper, Miss Green's class, Mrs. Metcalf's class, Miss Isabel Chapman, Mrs. Blakey, Miss Clinch, Miss Compton's class, Miss Sophia Webster, Stuart Watson, Violet Jackson, Winnifred Jones, Isabelle Palmer, Jack Wright, Doris Bolton, Arthur
