BANG-UP LUNCHEON OF KINGSTON ROTARY CLUB

One Hundred Per Cent. Attendance at the Gathering of Friday.

The Rotary Club held a bang-up luncheon on Friday noon, in the British-American hotel, with a hundred per cent. attendance.

There was no special speaker for the day, but there was something doing every minute and the members and their guests had a great time. This is the first occasion the local club has registered a hundred per cent. attendance, but it will not be the last, judging by the enthusiasm over this record. There was great rejoicing at "going over the top" and the members are to be congratulated on their splendid showing. Rotarian "Sid" Smith was the last member to take his place around the table and as he did so this was the signal for the singing of "Hail! Hail! the Gang's All Here," and it was rendered with all the "pep" possible.

Rotarian Rex Snelgrove delivered a snappy ten-minute address, in which he gave the members some very good pointers on how to help the tourist trade. The members were agreed that the suggestions put forth by Rex are bound to go over big. It is proposed to give them a trial. Last week Rex made a big hit with his little song, "In the Green House," and was forced to repeat on Friday. He also had another little ditty that caught on well.

Rotarian "Al" Davis also made a few timely remarks in regard to the tourist traffic and while his plan of action differed somewhat to the scheme outlined by Rex, it will be given a trial as the members of the club are quite willing to try anything a first time.

Asa Huyck, who was a guest of the club, delighted the members with his piano selections and his singing. One piano selection was of his own composition and brought forth warm applause.

Rotarian H. E. Day submitted a report on the Shoe and Stocking Fund, stating that up-to-date the sum of $248.51 had been subscribed for this worthy cause. The fund will remain open for some time in order to give everyone an opportunity to help.

Rotarian Harold Singleton was at the piano and in fine form and it was wonderful the way the Rotarians rendered the songs they love so well from the Rotary song book. When it comes to good hearty singing of a high order, you have to hand it to the Rotarians.

Rotarian "Jack" Elder rendered one of the club's old favorites, "It's a Fine Thing to Sing" and was assisted by his colleagues in the chorus. Harry Lauder, who is now making a trip through Canada, has nothing on Kingston's Harry Lauder, who is always listened to with keen interest. The club had a number of guests and Lemar A. Guild, the president, who presided, extended to them a very warm welcome. Rotarians Fred B. Smith and Ernest J. Smith, of Belleville, were among the guests, and answered to roll call. Other guests included P. A. Boncher, H. S. Cleverley, Asa Huyck and G. J. Mackie.

To Dedicate Windows.
In St. James' church, Kemptville, on Sunday, Bishop Bidwell will dedicate five memorial windows in memory respectively of Emmeline Lewis (deceased by her husband, A. B. Lewis); of Mary Ann Huntington Bower, erected by her grandchildren; of Mary Poole, wife of Wesley Guy, erected by the family; of Rev. James Harris, sometime rector of Kemptville and his wife, Margaret, erected by John A. Harris, Chicago; and of William Bottom and his wife, Sarah Hurd, and their son, William Bottom, and his wife, Harriet Wright, erected by Elijah Bottom.

Choral Society Concert.
Subscribers may obtain tickets for the Choral Society concert in Grant Hall on January 23rd, on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Those citizens who have given their names to members of the society will be considered subscribers and come under this ruling. "The Pied Piper" will be presented as part of the programme. The admission prices are 25c and $1.00.

LETTERS To The Editor

Re Bank Depositors.
Hamilton, Jan. 9.—(To the Editor): Suppose the government were to pay the Home Bank depositors the other 50c on the dollar, they would immediately walk across the street, and deposit it into another bank, with the possibility of a repetition of the Home Bank disaster a few years hence, when they would again clamour for government relief.

Now there is no chance whatever of the government doing this, because the people would not consent to a continuation of that sort of thing.

Better judgment on the depositors' part would be to persuade the government to remove the $1,500 limit on P.O. saving deposits, and make the rate 5 1/2 per cent. instead of 3 per cent. This would nearly save the situation for the Home Bank depositors so far as income was concerned, and in addition would be of immense benefit in almost doubling the income of the million other savings depositors.

For this act and assistance the other million depositors benefited thereby might, and I believe would, extend their sympathy and influence with the government for the assistance of the Home Bank unfortunates, in consideration of the splendid public service they would have accomplished, in addition to preventing any possible future repetition of the chain of savings disasters in the past.

The government owes it to the people to provide absolutely safe accommodation for saving deposits, at the best possible rate of interest they pay to any person, and especially so when it would not cost the government or the country either a dollar, but, on the contrary, pay the depositors 40 million dollars annually of increased interest thereon.

Think it over seriously, Home Bank depositors, and direct your efforts along the line that has some chance of success.

Yours truly,
—W. O. SEALEY.
