ONTARIO RELIGIOUS COUNCIL.

Kingston Officers Elected at Meeting on Monday Evening.

The annual meeting of the local branch of the Ontario Religious Educational Council was held in Queen street Methodist church on Monday afternoon and evening. Taylor Statten, Toronto, who is in charge of the boys' work department of Canada, was in the city to speak, but was called home on Monday noon due to the death of his father-in-law, in Toronto. Alex Edmison, a Queen's student who has worked under the direction of Mr. Statten for some time, took his chief's place.

The conference commenced at four o'clock, and after a brief session the delegates divided into departmental groups. At 6.15 a banquet was served in the Sunday school hall of the church, after which Mr. Edmison gave an address. Mr. Edmison was mayor of the boys' council of Toronto, previous to entering Queen's University last fall.

At eight o'clock a mass meeting was held in the church auditorium and the following officers were elected: President, D. McDougall; vice president, Charles Anglin; secretary treasurer, C. A. Shaver.

Rev. Dr. J. Robertson, who is in charge of the Young People's work of the Presbyterian church, and Miss Whidden gave addresses at the evening session.

Demoralizing Publicity.

Hamilton Spectator.

"Red" Ryan has started to work out his life sentence, and it would be well if the public were permitted to forget about him. One would have thought that with all the publicity which has been given him since his recent recapture, enough had been said about the desperado to satisfy even the most avid of sensation-mongers. The reporters rose to the height of their opportunity, and we have been regaled with details "ad nauseam" of the activities of the bandit since his escape. Enough surely has been told of this sordid, mispent life of crime; what good object can be served by rehashing it all up again in permanent book form, supplemented by additional information supplied by the convict himself? Who wants to know anything more about his criminal escapades? The wrong he did, and the greater wrong he intended to do if he had had the chance, has been fully exploited. The sensible and decent thing now is to bring down the curtain on this life of shame.

OBITUARY

The Late James Erwin.
James Erwin died at the House of Providence on Jan. 12th. He was a roadmaster for the Kingston and Pembroke railroad for about thirty years and was a resident of Renfrew. The remains were forwarded to Renfrew on Monday. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Elizabeth Erwin, New York, and one son, the Canadian Northwest. The funeral was held at Renfrew on Tuesday morning.

FIRE TRUCK AND AUTO HAVE A COLLISION

While Firemen Were Responding to Chimney Fire on Division Street.

Shortly after 6 o'clock on Monday evening the firemen had a call to the home of Ernest Stewart, Division street, between Union and Clergy, for a chimney blaze.

While responding to the call, the motor truck from the Ontario street station met with a slight mishap at the corner of Brock and Montreal streets, when a collision occurred between the fire truck and a car driven by H. W. Newman. Mr. Newman was coming over from Princess street. Fireman John Hall was thrown off the truck and suffered a serious shaking up but was not seriously injured. The fire truck and the auto suffered but slight damage.

Killed A Gray Wolf.

A full-grown gray timber wolf was shot yesterday morning by Elmer Poole, Kingston road, a short distance in the rear of his home, which is situated between Fernbank and Hillcrest, about four miles west of Brockville. It was caught feasting on the carcass of a dead horse. The fur of the wolf, which is of great length, gray in color, with touches of red, will be preserved by the owner in the form of a rug.

It is hardly likely that Mr. Poole will claim a bounty on the animal, as it was stated this morning that the head had to be forwarded to the government before the bounty would be paid. This Mr. Poole does not care to do, as he wishes to preserve the skin intact.

Sons of England Installation.

The following officers of Leicester Lodge No. 33, Sons of England, were installed by D.D.S. President H. M. Hawley, assisted by Bro. W. A. Twigg, P.P.:

PICTON LADIES INJURED.

Several Residents Leaving For A Trip to California.

Picton, Jan. 15.—Mrs. Ethan Palmer, Mary street West, had the misfortune to fall on Jan. 12th and seriously injure her right wrist.

Mrs. Dunning and her sister, Miss Cook, Main street East, sustained injuries from falling. Mrs. Dunning's knee was injured and Miss Cook was hurt internally.

Dr. T. S. and Mrs. Philip and Mr. and Mrs. James Porter, Picton, will leave on the first of February for a trip to California. They will be absent two months.

Mrs. Herb Love, Queen street, entertained at a five table bridge at her beautiful home on Saturday. The favor, a fine piece of china, was awarded to Mrs. Frank Minkler.

Several ladies came in for tea when delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Nina Conger of the Gazette staff, has been ill for four weeks, but is slightly better.

Mrs. McLean, Barker street, died on Jan. 12th after a lingering illness. She was the mother of the former editor of the Picton Times and has resided a number of years in Picton. Interment took place on Monday in Glenwood cemetery.

The Curling season opened with a bonspiel on Tuesday, Jan. 8th, with the president and vice-president in competition. It was a win for the president's rink, so the vice-president's rink supplied the supper at the close of the competition.

Mrs. D. P. Boles, Picton, is in Kingston hospital for treatment for arthritis.

Lewis Garrison, Queen street, passed away on Jan. 12th, after a lingering illness. Interment will be at Cherry Valley.

John Burns left on Monday for a trip to Winnipeg and will remain for some time, hoping that his health will be benefited by the bracing atmosphere of that part of Canada.

Late Miss Catherine Johnston. The funeral of the late Miss Catherine Johnston took place from the family residence, 115 Montreal street on Monday morning to St. Mary's cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass was sung by Rev. Father Coyle. There was a large congregation, testifying to the high respect in which the deceased was held. The bearers were: John Johnston, Everest Johnston, William Walsh, Francis McQuaide, George Hogan, and David McQuaide. The remains were placed in St. Mary's vault. Interment will take place at Raitton in the spring. The funeral arrangements were in charge of I. Ronan, director.
